Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

NO. 19

MAYOR CREATES NEIGHBORHOOD SERVICE CABINETS

Mayor Kevin H. White, on April 26, announced the creation of a framework to tailor the delivery of city services to specific neighborhoods through closer, city, line-department coordination; and to confront neighborhood problems through a town meeting type forum. The framework is the Neighborhood Service Cabinet program.

The Neighborhood Service Cabinets will be composed of local district representatives of Police, Fire, Public Works, Parks and Recreation, Building, Housing Inspection, and Youth Activities, and the local Little City Hall Manager.

The cabinets, for the first time, provide a formal working relationship between Little City Hall managers, and line-department personnel without abrogating the departmental chain of command, Civil Service regulations, or collective bargaining requirements.

The public meetings of the Neighborhood Service Cabinets will provide a unique forum for local residents to gain access to local, line-department, decision-makers in much the same way direct democracy is exercised in the venerable New England town meeting.

Said Mayor White, "This concept is a natural outgrowth of the Little City Hall program I initiated ten years ago. As the Little City Hall program has matured, the service delivery problems it has encountered have become more sophisticated."

Mayor White added, "Geographic boundaries for the service districts, for example, present a particular problem. Districts for police, fire, public works, parks, building, and housing inspection vary enormously from department to department. In some neighborhoods, the Little City Hall must work with two or more police districts and several building and housing inspectors. This cabinet proposal will simplify that muddle."

Said Mayor White, vice-president of the United States Democratic Mayors' Conference, "Town meetings have always been recognized as the purest form of self-government. Through this new system, we will be relying on a basic premise of our government to make the system fit the neighborhood. The town meeting aspect of the new cabinet system makes government more accessible to the neighborhoods in much the same way that our return to the greater use of police horses makes law enforcement more accessible to our community."

OPS Director Richard J. Kelliher, who will oversee implementation of the Mayor's plan, said that six neighborhoods have been selected for the initial cabinet process: Charlestown, Roxbury, Hyde Park, Allston/Brighton, South Boston, and West Roxbury.

As outlined by Mayor White, the objectives of the new proposal are:

- to improve interdepartmental cooperation;
- to upgrade processing of routine services;
- to identify fundamental neighborhood service delivery issues;
- to create an opportunity for improved departmental performance;
- to provide a forum for local residents;
- to develop a stronger sense of commitment to the neighborhoods; and
- to provide "two-way" information exchange.

Introductory cabinet meetings started on May 4, and the cabinets should be operational by June. Mayor White plans to review the performance of the cabinets after six months to consider expanding the program to other parts of the city.

YOUTH GAMES UPDATED

Mayor Kevin H. White has released an updated schedule for tryouts for the Boston contingent to the twelfth annual United States Youth Games being held in Detroit on August 2 through 6.

The Youth Games were conceived in 1966 by city officials in New York, Washington, D.C., and Boston to bring together young people from different parts of the country in competition and friendship. This year fourteen cities will be represented at the games.

Tryouts are for both boys and girls, aged nine to fifteen, in basketball, bowling, swimming, tennis, and track and field.

The updated schedule is:

Track and Field — May 20 at 10 a.m. at Franklin Park's White Stadium in Dorchester — Coach Don Speaks, 725-4006.

Tennis — July 10 at 10 a.m. at Franklin Field's Tennis House on Blue Hill Avenue in Dorchester; applications must be picked up before July 7 — Coach Jim Smith, 288-9092.

Bowling — May 27 at 1:30 p.m. at the Boston Bowl, 820 Morrissey Boulevard in Dorchester. June 10 at 10 a.m. at the All Star Lanes, 800 Lynnway in Lynn — Coach Maureen Kelliher, 321-1083.

Boys Basketball — April 3 and May 7 at 1:30 p.m. at the Shelburne Recreation Center, 2730 Washington Street, Roxbury — Coach Willis Gibson, 725-4850.

Girls Basketball — May 7 at 4 p.m. at the Shelburne Recreation Center — Coach Alfreda Harris, 725-4006.

Swimming — Contact Coach Don Frye at the Roxbury Boys' Club for schedule.

MBTA AWARDS CONTRACTS TO RUN 16 PARKING LOTS

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) on April 19, approved contracts which will generate at least $1,279,216 in revenue over two years to the MBTA for the operation of sixteen of its parking lots.

The contracts took effect May 1, at parking facilities along the Red Line in Quincy, the Mattapan trolley line, the Riverside Green Line, and the Orange Line in Medford and Malden.

The contracts specify tougher standards for cleanliness, security, and snow removal at all the facilities.

The result of the public bidding process is that there will be a new parking operator at the Quincy, Milton and Mattapan facilities and also at the Medford and Malden Orange Line parking lots.

Walter F. Henneberry, supervisor of concessions, said that the parking fees at the lots in Quincy were being raised twenty-five cents a day to cover increased costs required to give increased service which commuters and public officials have demanded.

In response to new demands the parking lot contracts specify that there be a daily pickup of papers, cans, glass, and other debris and that a "spring cleaning" be done three times a year. The contracts also specify that snow removal be done promptly and clear the maximum number of spaces. The grounds and shrubs also are to be maintained by the operator.

The Quincy Center Station and other lots along the Quincy and Mattapan lines will be operated by Allright Boston Parking, Inc., under a new contract beginning May 1. The lease specifies that the Quincy Center garage will have two attendants on hand twenty-four-hours-a-day, with one manning the booth and the other serving as a roving patrol. The operator is liable for theft and vandalism and the resulting increase in the cost of such insurance is one of the factors that prompts a twenty-five cents increase in the parking fee at the Quincy Center garage (from 75 cents to one dollar), and at the parking lots at Wollaston and the two at North Quincy from fifty cents to seventy-five cents.

The other winning bidder was Apcoa, Inc., of Cleveland, Ohio, who won the bid for the Riverside Green Line parking lots at Wellington Station in Medford and the Malden Center and Oak Grove Stations in Malden. The parking fee at Oak Grove lot will be seventy-five cents, like the lots at Malden and Wellington. Previously, the fee at Oak Grove had been one dollar in an experiment suggested by the community and the MBTA as an attempt to minimize the number of cars on streets around the station. However, the experiment resulted in cars parking on the streets while the lot had empty spaces.

SENIOR CITIZENS: TAKE NOTE!

MBTA to register senior citizens and handicapped in Little City Halls.

An MBTA registration team will visit Boston's nine Little City Halls in May to register eligible senior citizens and handicapped citizens, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) announced April 25. Registration will take place between 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

To be eligible for a senior citizen, reduced-fare, identification card, which contains the name and address of the holder and a color photograph for positive identification, senior citizens must bring proof of age — sixty-five years or older — such as a birth certificate, baptismal record, or driver's license; proof of residency such as a driver's license, library card, or charge plate; and a fifty cents, cash fee.

Medicare cards will not be accepted as proof of age.

The MBTA stressed that senior citizens who already have a reduced-fare, identification card do not need to register again. What appears to be an expiration date is used merely for internal auditing and control purposes. Once a reduced-fare, identification card is issued, it is good for life.

To be eligible for a handicapped citizen, reduced-fare, identification card, good only during off-peak hours, handicapped persons must present acceptable proof of their disability such as a Medicaid card showing Category 03, handicapped; a certificate of award letter from the Social Security Administration; evidence of 70 percent or more disability, as determined by the United States Veterans' Administration; or completion of MBTA Form No. SN-7 which must be approved and signed by a physician or state or federal agency serving the handicapped.

The MBTA forms will be mailed to anyone requesting them by calling the MBTA's Special Needs Office at 722-5438.

The MBTA special registration team will visit the Little City Halls on the following dates:

Tuesday, May 16, 1978 — Franklin Field Little City Hall, 972 Blue Hill Avenue;

Wednesday, May 17, 1978 — Dorchester Little City Hall, Park Street and Dorchester Avenue;

Friday, May 19, 1978 — Hyde Park Little City Hall, 1179 River Street;

Monday, May 22, 1978 — Allston Little City Hall, Harvard and Commonwealth Avenues;

NEW APPOINTMENT

*Mayor White names Paul Grogan
Director of Community Schools*

Mayor Kevin H. White, on April 27, announced the appointment of Paul S. Grogan of Jamaica Plain, as director of the Mayor's Office of Community Schools, effective May 1.

The Boston Community Schools program, initiated in the early 1970s, represents a partnership between the city administration and the city's neighborhoods.

Sixteen Community School councils, consisting of locally selected, neighborhood residents, preside over a network of eighteen modern schools serving normal School Department functions during school hours and providing a wide range of social, recreational, cultural, and educational programs after school for children and adults alike.

Each local council sends a delegate to a city-wide board, which sets overall policy for the program. This board unanimously approved the appointment of Mr. Grogan at its March meeting.

Mr. Grogan said the community schools system "is not only a very exciting program, but a unique concept as well; a partnership in which neighborhoods have a real voice in determining and responding to their own needs. I am privileged to be part of the program."

Mayor White said Director Grogan's background "is well suited to his new responsibilities as director of Community Schools. He has excellent credentials and experience in public administration, and I'm confident the program will prosper under his management."

Paul Grogan, twenty-seven, worked recently as special assistant to Vice-Mayor Edward Sullivan, and previously served as chief speechwriter and research director of the Mayor's Office staff. He was responsible for drafting speeches and position papers on neighborhoods, state, and national issues.

During Phase II desegregation, he participated in planning the administration's public safety response, and assisted in preparing the city's submissions to the federal court. He also represented the administration in a public safety role during the Carson Beach incidents in 1977.

Mr. Grogan is a graduate of Williams College and has nearly completed a master's degree in administration, planning, and social policy from the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

Director Grogan formerly taught secondary school English, United States history and government at the University School in Wisconsin, in the early 1970s, and coached junior varsity football and basketball.

His salary will be $22,115.

REPAIRS SET FOR SOUTH BOSTON DRY DOCK

Mayor announces $1.7 million contract award for Boston Plan harbor revitalization.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on April 24, announced the award of a $1.7-million contract which represents a major step toward revitalizing the harbor as part of the Boston Plan.

The contract, awarded to the Edward R. Marden Corporation of Allston for $1,701,579, covers repairs to Dry Dock No. 3 at the Boston Marine Industrial Park (Formerly the South Boston Naval Annex).

The 1,176-foot-long, dry dock, one of the world's largest, has been in need of a general overhaul since the postwar period. Once the repairs have been completed, the dry dock will become the focal point for ship repairs at the BMIP. Ships from Bath Iron Works, General Ship and Engine Works, and Braswell Shipyards are already taking advantage of the dry dock's unique features.

Said Mayor White, "Recently, I had an opportunity to tour the facility and inspect the dry dock. I am pleased that this facility is to be overhauled, and I am also pleased that a Boston firm will be performing the work."

The bulk of the repairs will be paid for by Federal Economic Development Administration monies. The Marden Corporation was the lowest of four bidders and was certified to perform the work by the city's Public Facilities Department.

Work on the project will provide approximately 150 construction-repair jobs during its eighteen-month duration.

Said EDIC Director Michael Westgate, "The more ships we can attract to our repair site, the more jobs we can generate. Repair of this facility can further our goals in this area."

Mr. Westgate added that further repairs at the park will begin in the near future.

JOB TRAINING PROGRAM FOR HUB RESIDENTS

Mayor Kevin H. White, on April 24, announced the approval of a $150,000 contract awarded to the Franklin Institute of Boston for the creation of a program to train eligible residents in marine-related electronics.

The program, which is administered by Mayor White's Office of Economic Development and Industrial Corporation (EDIC), is an expansion of the curriculum and training offered by EDIC's year-old, Job Training Center at the Boston Marine Industrial Park (BMIP).

Pleased with the expansion and diversification of the Job Training Program which is a facet of the Boston Plan revitalization blueprint, Mayor White said, "For the first time in decades, Boston is attracting new, permanent, industrial jobs. Last year, there was a net increase of 3,000 blue-collar jobs. About half of these were the result of EDIC's efforts. The Job Training Center, by providing skill upgrading and training to Boston residents — many of them disadvantaged — is a vital cog in the economic redevelopment machinery."

The Job Training Program was established by EDIC to train Boston residents in fields where jobs will be created in marine welding, pipefitting, industrial building maintenance, machine tool setup and operation, and now, electronics.

The electronics training is made possible by a Skills Training Improvement Program (STIP) grant which was awarded to Boston by the Department of Labor late last year. The training will be conducted at Franklin during the first phase beginning in May, and will be completed at the BMIP Job Training Center. Sixty trainees will be instructed over the six-month, training period in two, electronic courses.

The Job Training Center has placed more than 90 percent of last November's graduates of six-month, classroom training in jobs suited to their respective specialties.

EDIC Executive Director Michael Westgate said, "The most significant element in our training approach is preparing young men and women from the city for jobs that exist in fields where industry seeks help. The effects of a sound, viable, and realistic training program are many. Unemployment in the city is reduced; industry is attracted by a trained supply of skilled workers; and revenue is generated for the city."

Mr. Westgate urged anyone interested in the Job Training Program to contact the EDIC Job Training Center at 482-6855.

BOSTON: MORE GOOD NEWS!

Mayor White announces new federal planning program to assist city's economic development.

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that Boston has been selected as one of thirty-seven pilot areas nationwide for federal planning assistance in formulating comprehensive, economic development policies.

Boston is one of four New England sites selected for the pilot program by the Economic Development Administration (EDA) of the United States Department of Commerce.

More than 1,000 areas nationwide were considered by EDA. Other New England sites chosen were Hartford, Connecticut, and two rural areas in northern Vermont and northern Maine.

John Corrigan, EDA regional director, said "Boston was chosen because of its demonstrated commitment, through efforts like the Boston Plan, to launch a coordinated and systematic approach to economic development. We are confident that, with our assistance, Boston can further define its economic goals and strategies. We look forward to working with the city in that effort," he added.

Mayor White said the planning program "comes at a particularly good time for Boston. It is meant to develop implementation strategy for well-planned, economic development. In Boston, a major part of our planning processes have been completed through efforts such as the Boston Plan. We welcome the opportunity to work in closer partnership with the federal government. This program should further ensure that Boston's economic resurgence is carried out effectively."

The new approach, called Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS), is designed to link all funding resources available to a community. Its purpose is to improve the effectiveness of EDA programs by assuring that local economic development planning and specific project investments occur in a rational, effective way. The program will assist the city's economic development effort by helping to set priorities and coordinate use of public and private funding resources.

By implementing the CEDS approach in Boston, EDA will be forming a partnership with the city; and will work closely with those agencies responsible for economic development planning — the Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA), Economic Development Industrial Corporation (EDIC), Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA), and the Office of Federal Relations.

MAYOR PRAISES SUFFOLK FOR INCREASING YEARLY CONTRIBUTION

Mayor Kevin H. White has praised Suffolk University for its decision to increase the amount of the annual voluntary contribution it has been making to the city since 1975. The university, which had been making a contribution based on a calculation of $10 per student, will soon begin paying at the rate of $14 per student. The per capita rise is expected to up Suffolk's total contribution from approximately $30,000 to over $40,000.

"This is by no means a solution to the city's fiscal problems," the Mayor said. "But the fact that Suffolk, a tax-exempt institution, recognizes its responsibility to the city that provides it with critical services, is very encouraging."

The Mayor also noted that if the city's other institutions of higher learning followed suit with similar payments for services rendered, a very substantial sum could be realized, relieving in part the awesome burden of tax exempt property in Boston.

GO FLY A KITE!

The tenth annual Greater Boston Kite Festival will take place on Saturday, May 13, on the Golf Course in Franklin Park, Boston, from twelve noon to 4 p.m. Cosponsored by the Boston Parks and Recreation and the Committee for the Better Use of Air, the festival usually brings together approximately 20,000 greater Boston residents for a day of fun in the sun while flying kites, feasting on the ethnic foods provided by community groups, and participating in the day's special events.

Some of the various activities taking place that day include folk dancing and skywriting. There will also be clowns and jugglers, mime artists, parachutists, and even an African percussion group for all to enjoy.

Highlighting the festival will be a judging of the kites by local celebrities. Included in the categories will be "the biggest kite flown by the smallest person" and "the kite that most resembles its owner."

MAYOR MOURNS THE DEATH OF ARTHUR GARTLAND

Mayor Kevin H. White, on April 24, issued a statement mourning the death of Arthur Gartland, former chairman of the City-wide Coordinating Council.

Mr. Gartland, a sixty-three-year-old insurance executive, died on April 24, at Massachusetts General Hospital.

Said Mayor White, "No man in our time has given himself so generously for the public good as did Arthur Gartland. He was a man of unswerving dedication to the preservation of the rights and privileges of others. He was a gentleman in every sense of the word."

Mr. Gartland held a variety of educationally related and charitable posts during his lengthy public service.

Fire Fighters Patrick Munroe and Michael Cedorchuk, detailed to Aerial Tower 1, immediately ran up the stairs where they were confronted with heavy smoke in the fourth-floor hallway. When they reached the apartment, the door was locked. With the aid of a Halligan tool, they forced open the door and found the apartment to be heavily charged with smoke and heat. Fire Fighters Munroe and Cedorchuk began searching on their hands and knees and found an elderly man unconscious on the floor. They carried him from the apartment to the outside where first aid was administered.

This rescue was performed under great personal risk before ventilation could be carried out and lines of hose placed and charged.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend Fire Fighter Munroe and Fire Fighter Cedorchuk for this rescue which was made under very trying conditions.

VI. LETTERS OF THANKS

"April 13, 1978.

Dear Commissioner Paul:

I am very happy to write this letter to you to praise one of your dedicated men who saved me from a very tragic accident.

On April 2, 1978, I attended a social event and as we were eating our dinner, I happened to choke on a piece of roast beef and could not talk or ask for help. The efforts of people trying to help me failed, but the quick reactions of off-duty Lieut. John F. Hasson of Engine Company 43, performing the Heimlich method he learned in the EMT course with the Boston Fire Department saved my life.

I feel praise should be given to this man as I am very grateful that such an experienced person was there to help me in this very frightening happening.

Very truly yours,
Virginia M. Pillard."

"April 10, 1978.

Dear Commissioner:

I would like to commend District Chief Thomas Dunbar and the members of the Boston Fire Department, especially Engine Company 37 and Ladder Company 30, who worked at the fire at 140 Thorndike Street, Brookline, on April 9, 1978.

These men did an excellent job under severe fire and smoke conditions.

Sincerely,
John J. Duffy,
Acting Chief."

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

MANPOWER ADMINISTRATION CETA PROJECTS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As you know, the City of Boston has been granted funds, under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973, P. L. 93-203, to develop special one-year projects within city, state, and nonprofit agencies. In order to select from the many agencies eligible for funding, the CETA Public Service Employment Administration distributed a Request for Proposal (RFP) which outlined the specific details and parameters of a special project.

An advertisement notifying potential project applicants of the availability of CETA funds was placed in Boston's two city-wide newspapers and eighteen local newspapers. Two hundred organizations expressed an interest in applying for project funds and were sent an RFP. One hundred and four agencies responded with a formal proposal on or before the due date, April 1, 1977.

Each proposal was evaluated thoroughly on the basis of five Public Service Employment criteria. The criteria used were:

1. The ability of the project to employ the CETA target population;
2. The ability of the project to provide training to CETA enrollees;
3. The ability of the project agency to offer unsubsidized employment to CETA enrollees upon completion of the project;
4. The project's value in addressing the unmet needs of the residents of Boston;
5. The ability of the agency to supervise the project.

The project submitted by Roxbury Action Program was chosen on the basis of the comparative score it received in our review process.

I, therefore, respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract to Roxbury Action Program, a nonprofit corporation, with offices at 10 Linwood Street, Roxbury, Mass. The effective date for this contract is from June 15, 1977, to June 14, 1978. Funds for this contract will be provided from the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act and will not have impact on the City of Boston budget.

Because of the nature of the services to be performed, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $251,649.

Sincerely,
WALTER WILLIAMS,
Manpower Administrator.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTORS

HARVARD SQUARE RAPID TRANSIT STATION,
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

The Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority announces the second in a series of pre-advertising conferences relating to the Authority's extension of the Red Line Rail Transit system northwest from Harvard Square in Cambridge, Mass. The first pre-advertising conference held on May 2, 1978, relates to the deep-bore, tunnel sections of the extension. This second conference will outline the construction program for the new Harvard Square Rapid Transit Station.

The Harvard Square Station contract is a part of the $130-million, construction program to be let in 1978. The project is funded and final design is currently under way. The proposed Harvard Square Station Complex is a composite of new station construction and elements of existing station, subways, and busways. In concept, it is a rotation of two, existing track and platform levels from the present east-west position under Massachusetts Avenue to a north-south position—with the area under Harvard Square remaining the focal point for primary access, underground intermodal connection, and fare collection functions. The space under the square would be entirely restructured to conform with new design requirements. The abandoned train tunnel in the Harvard Square to Brattle Square sector would be kept structurally intact, and those portions utilized in the new station concept would be internally renovated. Bus tunnels not rebuilt would also be renovated. The Red Line extension would commence at the present two-level, Harvard Square Station, turn north on a 250-foot radius curve into Massachusetts Avenue, entering a new station platform area, extending approximately 440 feet. From the station, tracks would proceed northerly on a slight "S" curve to an interchange with the bored tunnel under Massachusetts Avenue.

Prospective bidders must be prequalified in accordance with the MBTA's "Procedures Governing Classification and Rating of Prospective Bidders," prior to submitting bids for this project. Copies should be obtained as soon as practicable from the Contract Administration Office, ninth floor, 50 High Street, Boston, MA 02110.

Interested contractors are invited to a pre-advertising conference at the D.O.T. Transportation Systems Center, 55 Broadway, Kendall Square, Cambridge, Mass. 02142, on Friday, May 19, 1978, at 9 A.M. The conference will outline the whole construction program for the Harvard Square Station in detail and give an opportunity for questions.

Attendees must register by phone with the MBTA, Mr. Steve Murdock, Phone 1-617-722-5806, not later than May 15, 1978, of their intention to attend and the number of attendees. Admittance and informational handouts cannot be guaranteed to those who do not preregister.

THIS PROJECT IS SUBJECT TO A FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE CONTRACT BETWEEN THE MBTA AND THE UMTA OF THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION.

CITY RECORD

KEVIN H. WHITE

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

LAWRENCE S. DiCARA
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 70

MONDAY, MAY 15, 1978

NO. 20

MAYOR SUBMITS FISCAL '78-'79 BUDGET

Mayor White sees renewed economic vitality, cites program goals for next fiscal year.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on May 2, outlined his administration's program plans for fiscal 1978-79 in his annual budget message to the City Council.

Mayor White's "Mayoral Budget Message," the first in the city's history to sketch programs as well as dollar amounts, stressed six program objectives:

—Stability in the tax rate. According to the Mayor, the proposed operating budget of $342.9 million could be balanced without a tax rate increase if the city receives "a reasonable share of new state aid."

—Job development through the Boston Plan. More than half of the $112 million requested from the federal government is approved or nearly approved, including funding for the Crosstown Industrial Park, Lafayette Place, the Charlestown Navy Yard, and the Project YES youth employment program.

—Crime prevention. The budget calls for additional funding for increased patrol activity, including the neighborhood mounted patrol program announced in March, and a new drive against teenage drunkenness and rowdiness. Mayor White cited both faster police response to emergency calls and the 17 percent drop in the crime rate over two years as evidence for improved management in the Police Department.

—Programs for the elderly. A large percentage increase in funding for elderly related programs will support a variety of efforts to help older Bostonians cope with the problems of finding adequate health care, dealing with the rising cost of living, getting from place to place, and obtaining information about services available to them.

—Neighborhood service delivery. The Mayor pointed to a record of investing both money and managerial attention in the delivery of city services to the residential neighborhoods. The Neighborhood Service Cabinets, announced last week, will attempt to focus the work of the line departments more precisely on local concerns.

—Management and productivity improvement. A more comprehensive budget planning process, several specific improvements in financial and information systems, and some efforts to improve productivity in the delivery of basic services will be this program's focus.

The message portrayed the budget as being caught in a squeeze between property tax yields, which tend not to grow over time, and costs — wages, benefits, purchases, and assessments by the state — which grow with inflation. Over the last five years, when inflation has totaled 30 percent, the yield to the city of a dollar on the property tax has not increased at all.

Mayor White cited labor settlements reached under compulsory binding arbitration and the health insurance bill for city employees as being particularly fast-rising costs.

In response to this continuing "budget squeeze," Mayor White pointed out that the city has reduced its workforce by one-fifth over the last four years. Adjusted for inflation, the city operating budget is lower today than it was in 1972. The Mayor argues that "shrinking the workforce cannot long continue if essential services are to be maintained at adequate levels."

In order to fund the budget without raising taxes, Mayor White estimated that new state aid of about $45 million would be needed. This would still represent a smaller share of the state's revenues than the city received in 1975. "Any aid above that level," the Mayor said, "will go to reduce the property tax."

Mayor White painted a generally optimistic picture of Boston's economic future, and predicted that the city's housing market would continue to strengthen as the children of the "baby boom" begin to form families and buy houses.

He warned, however, of the "disinvestment and deterioration" in some neighborhoods which would result from court-ordered 100 percent revaluation if the Classification Amendment does not pass in November. The Mayor promised a vigorous campaign to pass that amendment against what he foresees as a multimillion-dollar campaign by corporate interests to defeat it.

BOSTON'S ELDERLY HONORED

Mayor White announces "Great Grand-month" as May tribute to Boston's elderly.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on May 1, officially opened "Great Grand-month" in Boston at the "Shades of Gray" senior photo exhibit at City Hall.

The month will be a celebration of the City's elderly, featuring a number of special events for senior citizens and concentrating on city services available to them.

More than twenty-five special events and programs are planned for the elderly, along with free and discount admissions to cultural, informational, and recreational activities in Boston.

Major events include the Senior Service Information Fair, May 25, at Quincy Market and an Older Bostonians Harbor Tour, May 22. The month's festivities will conclude May 31 with "Nostalgia Day" at the Prudential Center.

The Mayor said the "Great Grandmonth" theme will evolve into an annual tribute each May to Boston's elderly population, involving city departments serving the elderly with civic, educational, and cultural institutions in a month-long fete for seniors.

During the month, the city is making a major effort to increase senior volunteerism and to appraise the elderly of Elderly Commission programs and other senior services and public health-care services. The program is also geared to heighten the public's consciousness and appreciation of Boston's elderly.

In addition, city Public Health and Elderly Commission officials will be making a number of appearances and speaking engagements during "Great Grandmonth," along with Mrs. Kathryn White, who will take a leading role in the month's activities on behalf of the Mayor and the City of Boston.

ANNUAL TAXICAB INSPECTION

Boston Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan announced today that the city's annual taxicab inspection will be held now through June 30, 1978.

The inspection process will entail rigorous and thorough evaluation of each vehicle. Each cab's general appearance and mechanical condition will be fully assessed.

Taxis will be scrutinized by police officers from the department's Hackney Carriage Unit, inspectors from the city's Weights and Measures Department and Delinquent Tax Unit, as well as Registry inspectors from the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

The overall purpose behind the inspection is to ensure that Boston's taxi fleet is kept at a high level of consistent quality and uniformity. In doing so, the general public will be assured the best taxi service possible—service that is safe, sound, and comfortable.

BLUE HILL AVENUE COMMISSION GRANTED SPECIAL STATUS

Mayor Kevin White has announced the signing of an executive order formalizing the city's relationship with the Blue Hill Avenue Commission and granting it special status as the "primary representative of community interests with respect to redevelopment and revitalization activities in the Blue Hill Avenue Corridor."

The twenty-eight-member commission will play a pivotal role in further definition and implementation of Boston Plan proposals for the Blue Hill Avenue Corridor (BHAC) and will work with the city on the development of a comprehensive land-use, development plan for the area, strategies and timetables for implementation of that plan, and will be full participants in the decision-making processes that affect funding for redevelopment projects.

The city, in turn, is providing the commission with office space, supplies, and a staff of no less than four, who are serving as the city's Liaison with the commission and providing the commission with office space, resources necessary to carry out their duties.

"Major neighborhood, revitalization projects can only succeed when there is full cooperation and genuine communication between city government and the community," Mayor White said. "That process turned Mattapan Square around."

"This executive order commits both the city and the community to a working relationship that, over time, will result in the revitalization of the entire Blue Hill Avenue Corridor," the Mayor added. "It is an important first step."

The executive order was approved by both the Blue Hill Avenue Commission and the Boston Plan Executive Policy Committee prior to its issuance.

Gordon Brigham, executive director of the Boston Plan and principal liaison in the Blue Hill Avenue Commission, underscored its importance.

"The city has a strong commitment to working with residents of the Blue Hill Avenue Corridor to ensure that all revitalization efforts reflect their needs and concerns," Mr. Brigham said. "We have been doing so informally for months, but we now have a formal mechanism that structures our co-operation and will allow us to move forward with specific plans and proposals."

BOSTON AND STRASBOURG: CLOSER THAN EVER

Mayor White renews relationship with French Sister City Strasbourg.

Mayor Kevin H. White on May 3, renewed the close ties between its French "Sister City" Strasbourg at a noontime, City Hall flag-raising ceremony commemorating the two-hundredth anniversary of the signing of the French American Alliance.

Mayor White and honored guest "Monsieur le President" Pierre Pflimlin, Mayor of Strasbourg, both spoke warmly of the relationship between Strasbourg and Boston.

Mayor White said, "This is indeed an opportunity we have to further our cultural ties between France and America in the true tradition of friendship between these two nations."

Both cities hold strong identities within their respective countries as centers of culture, education, medicine, and international banking. Each city has been vital in a historical sense to its country's freedom and development.

Strasbourg and Boston became sister cities in 1962. An official delegation led by Mrs. Kathryn White visited Strasbourg in 1976 to actively establish the sister city program.

Mayor Pierre Pflimlin: (addressed as "Monsieur le President") Mayor of Strasbourg and President of the Strasbourg Metropolitan Council ("Communaute Urbaine").

A lawyer by profession, Mayor Pflimlin was a national political figure of the Fourth French Republic, serving as its last Prime Minister in May, 1958. He helped draft the present French Constitution and was a minister in deGaulle's cabinet until 1962, when he broke with the general over foreign policy, Mayor Pflimlin supporting a more pro-Atlantic and pro-European policy. Mayor Pflimlin is also a former president of the Consultative Assembly of the twenty-nation Council of Europe, which is headquartered in Strasbourg.

Mayor of Strasbourg for the last eighteen years, he has taken a personal interest in fostering closer United States-French contacts. He has traveled to the United States several times. Mayor Pflimlin was one of the very French VIPs to have dinner with President Carter during his visit to France last January. He was able to talk with the President about current world affairs and was positively impressed with the President's remarks on human rights and economic policy philosophy.

PLAY BALL!

Mayor opens Boston Little League season by throwing out first ball at Parkway League.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on April 29, officially kicked off the 1978 Little League season in Boston by throwing out the first ball at the opening of Parkway Little League action at Praught Field in West Roxbury.

The Mayor congratulated the Parkway League for having "one of the most successful, well-managed programs in the city," during festivities at home plate, shortly after the league's 750 players, male and female, arrived in a parade procession from Fallon Field in Roslindale.

The league has forty-two teams of youths ages 9 through 12, including sixteen major league teams, sixteen minor league teams, and ten instructional teams. This is the twenty-sixth year of league play.

Mayor White told youngsters that "the important thing about playing baseball at the Little League level is to play the game for fun.

"Competition is fine," the Mayor said, "but the lessons and skills you learn from Little League baseball aren't going to sink in if you're too tense to enjoy yourself."

The Mayor said, despite complaints in recent years about the major leagues' high-paid, free agents and other issues, that "baseball is still the great American game, and a great form of recreation for millions of American kids and adults."

He thanked adults involved in the Parkway League for their volunteer efforts, saying the program "simply could not function without your support" and the sponsorship of local merchants and other team sponsors.

DRINK IN PUBLIC? FORGET IT!

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan has announced a major program to reduce public drinking from street corners and parks throughout the city's neighborhoods. The new program, being implemented over the next several days, will consist of a number of elements:

—People drinking in public will be warned and told to stop the activity.

—Following warnings, there will be strict enforcement of city ordinances prohibiting public drinking.

—Special, public-drinking-prevention squads will be formed in each police district to provide concentrated enforcement in major trouble areas.

The Commissioner noted, in announcing the program, that public drinking has become a major problem to the quality of community life in many city neighborhoods. The disruptive behavior associated with public drinking has resulted in harassment of citizens, neighborhood noise, vandalism, and the commission of major crime.

"As the warm weather approaches, these problems increase," the Commissioner said. "They cannot continue to exist. The department is committed to enforcing existing statutes prohibiting such drinking in public."

Persons found to be violating these ordinances will be warned that public drinking of alcoholic beverages must stop. If the violation continues, persons will be arrested and charged with violating city ordinances under authority of chapter 272, section 59.

Special teams of officers will be fielded in each district throughout the city to provide concentrated enforcement in those areas where citizen complaints of public drinking of alcoholic beverages are most common. These units, assigned on a daily basis, will supplement the increased enforcement to be undertaken by regular district officers.

Particular attention will be paid to violations occurring on street corners, and within public parks. It is expected that this enforcement campaign will continue throughout the summer months.

JOHN DREW MOVES TO BRANDEIS UNIVERSITY

John Drew, director of the Office of Federal Relations, has confirmed that he will leave the administration, June 2, to assume the directorship of the newly formed Center for Public Service at Brandeis University.

"After sixteen months of representing in Washington, one of this country's most dynamic and vibrant cities and watching, with pride, the growth of the Boston Plan from idea to reality, this decision to move to Brandeis is a most difficult one," Mr. Drew said.

"But the opportunity is exciting and offers a unique chance to apply skills acquired over twelve years in the public sector to a new arena. The challenge of developing a center for research, training, and implementation of public policy is one I cannot pass up.

"I respect and feel privileged to have worked with Mayor Kevin White. Without his support, neither the Boston Plan nor the Office of Federal Relations would have been so successful.

"Boston now enjoys an excellent reputation in Washington. Over the next few months, the city can expect continued federal support for the Boston Plan and for a variety of exciting projects throughout city neighborhoods.

"My personal commitment to the Boston Plan will continue. I will remain as chairman of the Boston Plan Executive Policy Committee. I welcome this chance to continue working with city officials and playing a role in the economic development of this great city," Mr. Drew concluded

CONSULTING ENGINEERS SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispose with public advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Schoenfeld Associates, Inc., consulting engineers, with offices at 210 South Street, Boston, Mass., as designers for the preparation of plans and specifications and for the supervision of improvements to the Public Garden, the Back Fens, and to Thomas Park in South Boston.

The improvements in the Public Garden consist of walkway restoration, pedestrian control, improvements to the maintenance facility, redesign of planting beds, and other miscellaneous improvements. At the Back Bay Fens pedestrian lighting will be installed by the Rose Garden and at Evans Park. The reconstruction at Thomas Park will consist of walks, benches, fencing, tree planting, and miscellaneous improvements. The improvements will be completed under two separate construction contracts.

The designers basic fee, taken from the "A" rate of the AIA 1967 Fee Schedule will be 7.18 percent of the estimated cost of construction of $350,000 ($25,130.00), plus an additional 50 percent of the supervision portion of the basic fee (for supervision of multiple sites) $3,769.50, the cost of the proposed services not to exceed $45,399.50 (including $16,500.00 for supplementary services).

In view of the professional and technical nature of the services to be performed, it is believed that a public advertising would serve no useful purpose. The contract will be charged to "Boston Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887," Code 3-31-13.

Very truly yours,

PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

SUPERVISION OF CONSTRUCTION

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

It is respectfully requested that your Honor approve my selection of the firm of Storch Associates, engineers, landscape architects, planners and environmental consultants, with offices at 824 Boylston Street, Chestnut Hill, Mass., as designers for the preparation of plans and for the supervision of construction of improvements to Boston Common and the Public Garden.

Also requested is your Honor's authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, in the award of this contract. The improvements consist of the reconstruction of the ball fields in the Common, tree planting, and maintenance in both the Common and the Garden, and miscellaneous improvements to the Common. The improvements will be completed under three separate construction contracts due to the nature of the work to be done.

The work to be designed in the Public Garden by Storch (tree planting and tree maintenance), was not included in Schoenfeld's design contract for the Public Garden as it is the intention of the department to award one construction contract for all tree work required in both the Common and the Garden thereby receiving a lower cost for the contract work and allowing better field inspection of the work with only one contractor involved.

The designer's basic fee, taken from the "A" rate of the AIA 1967 Fee Schedule will be 7.156 percent of the estimated cost of construction of $370,000 ($26,477.20), plus an additional 50 percent of the supervision portion of the basic fee (for the supervision of multiple contracts) $3,971.58, the cost of the proposed services not to exceed $51,048.78 (including $20,600 for supplementary services).

As the proposed contract is to be one for the performance of professional services, a public solicitation for bids would serve no useful purpose. The contract will be charged to "Boston Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887," Code 3-31-13.

Very truly yours,

PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

It is respectfully requested that your Honor approve my selection of Paul E. Pritzker Associates, Inc., with offices at 680 Hancock Street, Quincy, Mass., to furnish general engineering and surveying services for the preparation of plans and specifications and for the supervision of construction of improvements to pedestrian lighting and recreational floodlighting systems at various park facilities at a cost not to exceed $20,000, payable at the rate not greater than the rates set forth for office work and field work in the "1973 Eastern Massachusetts Association of Professional Engineers and Surveyors, Inc., Recommended Minimum Fee Schedule for Professional Services."

Also requested is your Honor's authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, in the award of this contract.

As the proposed contract is to be one for the performance of professional services, a public solicitation for bids therefore, would serve no useful purpose. The proposed contract will be charged to "Beautification and Improvement of Park Lands," 3-31-16.

Very truly yours,

PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The demised premises consist of the entire building located at 815 Albany Street, Boston, Mass.

The term of the lease will be twelve months beginning July 1, 1977, and terminating June 30, 1978. The lease contains a clause giving the city the option to extend the term of this lease for two additional twelve-month terms.

The rental for the term will be $33,250, payable in equal monthly payments.

Utilities and heat will be supplied by the lessee.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on June 15, 1977, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising, and to award a contract to James E. Langin, architect of 21 Daniels Terrace, Peabody, Mass.

Under the terms of the contract, James E. Langin will continue to provide project management services in connection with the design and construction of new public facilities required by the federal court-ordered desegregation plan, during the period July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978, at a cost for such services (payable at the rate of $13 per hour), not to exceed $25,500 (including $1,000 for directly related out-of-pocket expenses specifically authorized under the contract).

In view of the professional and technical nature of the services to be performed, as well as James E. Langin's considerable prior experience in the construction management and supervision field on City of Boston projects, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on June 15, 1977, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising, and to award a contract to Susan Child, landscape designer, of 11 Lime Street, Boston, Mass.

Under the terms of the contract, Susan Child will provide project management services for the REVIVAL (Revitalization of Vacant Land) and Birthday Book Programs of the City of Boston, during the period July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978, at a cost for such services (payable at the rate of $10.50 per hour), not to exceed $19,000.

In view of the professional and technical nature of the services to be performed, as well as Susan Child's complete familiarity with the work to be performed from her involvement under previous contracts on the REVIVAL program, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a recent vote of the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to award a contract, fully funded by the 302 (a) EDA grant, to Mr. Charles Atkins, 4 Strong Place, Boston, Mass.

The reason for awarding a nine month contract is that the mechanism for placing Mr. Atkins on the permanent EDA payroll was delayed and could not be implemented until July 20, 1977. Since it is not feasible, administratively, to put Mr. Atkins on retroactive salary, the U.S. Department of Commerce, Economic Development Administration, has approved payment to him for services rendered from April 1 through July 19, on a contractual basis, as outlined in their letter of July 21, 1977.

Under the contract, Mr. Atkins served as director of economic planning and managed the Mayor's Special Task Force on Federal Funding for Special Projects during the period April 1, 1977, through July 19, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $10,500 (payable at the rate of $673 per week).

Due to these unusual circumstances and the fact that the services have been performed, it is my judgment that public advertising is not necessary.

Respectfully,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

PARKMAN HOUSE SERVICES

YOUR HONOR:

Your permission is requested to award a contract, without advertising, to the Boston Foundation, Inc., for the care, cleaning, security, operation, provisions and expenses, relating to the function of the Parkman House, 33 Beacon Street, Boston.

Given to the city in 1903 by the Parkman family, and restored through a joint public and private effort, the Parkman House is now approaching its fourth year of operation. It is utilized by the city for the purposes of a conference center, a reception center, accommodation for overnight guests of the city and office seminar space for the Parkman Center for Urban Affairs.

This contract will provide for the services of two full-time employees; one as a security guard and the other as the resident housekeeper, which has proven to be more economical than hiring a three-shift, security force.

In view of the special nature of the building and its multipurpose use, I have determined that the Boston Foundation, Inc. is the most suitable entity to perform the services described above and that public advertising would not be useful in this instance.

The terms of this contract will be from July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978, and the total amount will not exceed $31,412.

Sincerely,

BERNARD W. CALLAHAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

The contractor will provide comprehensive career/vocational services to thirty Boston youths, through its Project SPACE program. These services will be located at three employer sites and will include accredited academic instruction, counseling, and paid work experiences for all participants.

The contractor, EdCo, Inc., is a private, nonprofit, educational corporation formed by eleven Greater Boston school systems as a multipurpose collaborative. Boston was a founding member of EdCo and has participated in a wide variety of EdCo activities over the past eight years. One of these activities has been Project SPACE which first went into operation in 1971 as a vanguard program in new forms of occupational education. The quality and validity of Project SPACE's education has been affirmed by numerous studies and evaluations over the past six years and it has proven itself a worthwhile program for many Boston youths.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 78-BC-0730.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

The Community Music Center of Boston shall conduct thirty weeks of music therapy sessions, for two days per week, by a registered music therapist to students of special needs at the Agassiz Community School.

The Community Music Center is located at the Boston Center for the Arts. Mr. Sallen, principal of the Agassiz School, upon examination of all possible resources has determined that, upon past programs with the Boston Public Schools the Community Music Center is the best qualified organization to conduct this program.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

The contractor shall provide placements and act as liaison for Roxbury High School students enrolled in Early Childhood Development Course in kindergartens and day care facilities throughout the community. The contractor will provide training and supervision for two graduate students working with Roxbury High School students at their kindergarten and day care placements. The contractor will be responsible for planning, coordinating, and implementing field trips and monthly activity workshops for Roxbury High School students enrolled in the Early Childhood Development Course.

Geraldine Robinson is a teacher responsible for developing early childhood services and materials at the Children's Museum. She holds a bachelor of science degree in Early Childhood Education from Wheelock College and has had additional training at the Elma Lewis School of Fine Arts and the Kodaly Music Training Institute. Ms. Robinson has extensive experience working with young people in the area of early childhood education and she will be the principal agent of the Children's Museum in fulfilling this contract.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 78-7S-0368.

Very truly yours,

V. LETTERS OF THANKS

"April 12, 1978.

Dear Commissioner Paul:

I wish to express my deep appreciation to the members of your fire companies in the South End of Boston for their excellent work in fighting a fire at our center on February 26, 1978. Our fire alarm was answered immediately and the fire was extinguished in a very professional and competent manner, resulting in no physical injury to our residents as well as a minimum of property damage.

I am always impressed by the speed and capability of the members of the Fire Department. You are to be congratulated for an excellent department. Please pass my thanks on to the fire fighters of the South End. Their competence and dedication mean safety and peace of mind for all of us in this area.

Sincerely,
Bastian Vandezalm, Director."

"April 24, 1978.

Dear Sir:

I would be most remiss if I did not at this time send a note to thank the Fire Department for its most-needed and appreciated help over the past few weeks.

On two separate occasions—March 6 and April 14—I had to summon help for my mother who was in the throes of heart failure. On each day the gentlemen who came to help were most courteous, reassuring, and helpful. They catered to my mother and helped to keep her as calm as possible through her breathing difficulties and until the ambulance arrived. Particularly on April 14 when the ambulances assigned to our area were busy and we had quite a long wait, the two EMTs who stayed with us until additional help arrived were marvelous. I cannot compliment them enough.

As you can imagine I was in an extremely nervous state myself and failed to get any of the names of these men. I would, therefore, appreciate it very much if you could look it up in the records as to which stations responded to my calls for help and commend the men who were on duty. They certainly deserve it.

Once again, my sincere thanks for the efforts of these men. It is most comforting and reassuring to know that people of this caliber are always on call to help. My mother, Sara Pearlstein, of course sends her most heartfelt thank you to these men.

Sincerely,
Harriet Abrams."

Jewish Philanthropies Receive CETA Funds

Mayor White Announces $511,000 CETA Grant for Combined Jewish Philanthropies Job Training

Mayor Kevin H. White, on May 5, announced the awarding of $511,000 in CETA funds to the Combined Jewish Philanthropies (CJP) for social services and job training, including $169,000 to prepare Russian-Jewish immigrants for employment.

The award signing took place May 5, at CJP headquarters at 72 Franklin Street. The program concept was developed by Boston's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA).

Brian Fallon, the city's director of the Public Service Employment Program, explained that through this award, over 200 immigrants will receive vocational evaluation, counseling, instruction in English, job placement, and supportive services. More than fifty public service employees, in turn, will receive job experience enhancing their ability to find long-term employment.

EEPA Administrator Charles M. Atkins depicted the grant as a response to the influx of Russian families since the Soviet Union eased its immigration laws in the 1970s. Mr. Atkins said approximately 600 Russians have settled in Boston at the rate of seventy-five families a year, and it is estimated that more than 125 such families would be settling here in the future.

Director Atkins said many of the immigrants are highly skilled professionals who are attracted to Boston because of the city's cultural and educational opportunities.

The Mayor said discussions between the city and CJP could eventually mean another $141,000 for CJP programs, raising CETA funding to $650,000.

Representing Combined Jewish Philanthropies at the ceremony were: Leonard Kaplan, president, CJP; Bernard Olshansky, executive director; David Rosen, director of Social Planning; and Ruth Fine, chairman of CJP's Social Planning Committee.

The Russian-Jewish immigrant program will be run by the Jewish Vocational Service. Eight other agencies funded through CJP will receive CETA funding, including programs for the elderly, single-parent families, and youth services.

FOR THE ELDERLY: INSTANT HAPPINESS!

Mayor White hosts Mother's Day at Public Garden for 400 Elderly as part of Great Grandmonth:

Mayor Kevin H. White and his wife, Kathryn, on May 14, hosted 400 elderly from nursing homes and elderly centers in Boston at a special Mother's Day Program at the Public Garden. The elderly were guests of the City of Boston as part of the city's "Great Grandmonth" celebration. The program included a picnic lunch, swan boat rides, a tour of the Public Garden, a band, mime troupe, magician, and other entertainment.

Those attending included nursing home residents, participants in elderly center programs of the Parks and Recreation Department, the Elderly Commission, and Community Schools, and more isolated elderly the city is making an effort to reach in Great Grandmonth.

Mayor White told the group he is intent on "improving the communication" of existing elderly services, expanding programs as necessary, and introducing programs such as a "Job Bank" to connect elderly seeking employment with willing employers.

The Mayor said that by involving more seniors in the specialized events of Great Grandmonth, more of Boston's elderly will become familiar with ongoing programs such as the Mobile Market, Senior Shuttle transportation services, and health care available at neighborhood health centers throughout the city.

MAYOR INAUGURATES TEAM POLICING IN MISSION HILL

Mayor Kevin H. White on May 15, inaugurated team police service for the Mission Hill neighborhood.

Flanked by Police Commissioner Joseph Jordan and State Representative Kevin Fitzgerald (D-Boston), Mayor White noted the success which the team police concept has enjoyed since its inception as a pilot project in Charlestown a year ago.

The team police concept is analogous to the traditional, "beat police system" in its continuity of personnel and coverage. However, it utilizes sophisticated, modern, police techniques to refine that basic "beat system" into a cohesive, preventative, policing approach which addresses not only neighborhood crime, but its roots.

Said Mayor White, "Team police have been well accepted in Charlestown, and here in Mission Hill in the projects. But it's time now to bring team policing to the broader Mission Hill neighborhood."

Mayor White added, "Team policing will do more than heighten the visibility of the police in this neighborhood. It will provide the people here with greater access to the police officers familiar with their particular problems, and specially trained to cope with those problems. We are in effect, trying to tailor the police service to the needs of this neighborhood."

Police Commissioner Jordan amplified upon Mayor White's statement.

"The men on this team are all handpicked volunteers who have exhibited a talent for dealing with people on a one-to-one basis. They are highly motivated officers, sophisticated, and specially trained and educated to relieve neighborhood crime problems and their causes."

Said Representative Fitzgerald, one of the prime sponsors of team police on Mission Hill, "Mission Hill has come full circle in its police coverage. Once, there was a district station here, then a substation, and then priority foot patrol. This new system will provide the Hill with two things: greater community communication with police, and greater police coverage by officers who know the problems of the neighborhood residents. We have worked hard to bring team policing to the Hill, and look forward to helping these officers reduce crime in our neighborhood."

The team police unit, led by Lt. Maurice Flaherty, will be headquartered at 80 Parker Hill Avenue in a cottage donated by the New England Baptist Hospital.

Presently, twenty-four officers in team police units are assigned to the Bromley-Heath and Mission Hill housing projects. The full complement for the entire Mission Hill area has been increased to forty-two officers and three sergeants. One communications person, funded by a grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, will staff the Parker Hill Avenue station.

A TIME FOR YOUNG AND OLD

Boston Community Schools Program announces Spring Celebration, May 28 on Boston Common.

Mayor White's Boston Community Schools Program, in cooperation with the New Games Foundation, is sponsoring a spring celebration for Boston on Sunday, May 28th, from 1-5 p.m., on the Boston Common.

The program's city-wide board conceived the idea for the Boston Community Schools Spring Festival. According to Peggy Walsh, Boston Community Schools Board Coordinator, "It will be a day for young and old from all of Boston's diverse neighborhoods to discover their similarities through creative play."

Much of the festivities will center around the playing of "New Games." "New Games" are an alternative form of recreation designed to encourage a freer, safer style of play with greater cooperation and less competition among players. Penny Sharp, a representative from the California-based, New Games Foundation, sees the event as "an opportunity to generate a greater bond of trust, communication, and cooperation among Boston's neighborhoods."

Representatives from Boston's eighteen Community Schools will be featuring crafts and educational displays; clowns; magicians; neighborhood entertainment, coordinated through the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs Art Councils; and ethnic food, reflecting the flavor of Boston's unique neighborhoods.

Currently the Boston Community Schools program serves some 30,000 persons weekly in year-around educational, recreational, social, and cultural programs for all ages. The programs are governed by and for Boston residents, as local representatives design and implement their own programs to meet the needs of their individual neighborhoods. Supported by a core city budget, Boston Community Schools solicits additional support from private foundations, state and federal grants, local businesses, and fund-raising activities.

NEW FACILITY DEDICATED AT LONG ISLAND HOSPITAL

Mayor Kevin H. White, on May 10, dedicated a $2 million, renovated facility for elderly, chronic care, arthritis and cancer patients at the city's Long Island Hospital.

The facility is part of a $8-million, ten-year renovation of the 360-bed hospital, which first operated in 1885 as an alms house for Boston's poor. It has served over the years as a facility for alcoholics and unwed mothers and evolved into a chronic illness center after being taken over by the city's Health and Hospitals Department in the mid 1950s.

The fifty-year-old Nichols Building was renovated to provide arthritis treatment programs for the elderly, including a new occupational therapy facility. It also houses a treatment center for cancer patients, featuring radiation treatment, chemotherapy, and staffed by nurses trained in dealing with the physical and emotional needs of cancer patients.

Mayor White said the Long Island renovation program, combined with chronic care services of Mattapan Hospital, "is a tremendous asset to elderly health care in Boston." He said the opening of the Nichols Building "coincides perfectly with the objectives we've set for communicating to the elderly the quality health care available to them from the City of Boston."

Also attending the dedication ceremony were Health and Hospitals Commissioner David Rosenbloom; Meribah Stanton, director of the city's Chronic Care Division, and Barry Birch, assistant director.

BOTTLE BILL "CAPPED"

Mayor White dismayed at defeat of Bottle Bill in State Senate.

Mayor Kevin H. White has expressed his displeasure at the failure of the Massachusetts State Senate, to pass the proposed bottle bill.

Said Mayor White, "It is inconceivable that the bottle bill was defeated on its merits.

"My Public Works Department sees the results of the defeat of bottle bills every day. The product of this failure is a redoubling of one of the city's most vexing problems—urban blight."

Mayor White added, "No one would suggest that urban blight is exclusively caused by careless disposal of bottles, but it is one of its roots. I am disappointed that the State Senate has not responded to the bottle bill in a fashion that would have benefited the city and its neighborhoods."

VII. HIGH COMMENDATION

At 0943 hours, April 17, 1978, Ladder Company 18 responded to Box 7236 (two alarms) at 17 Middle Street, South Boston.

Upon arrival, Ladder Company 18 found heavy fire and smoke showing at the rear of the building. Fire Lieut. Paschal, of Ladder Company 18, was informed by civilians at the scene that a small child had been left in a rear bedroom on the third floor. Lieut. Paschal, with Fire Lieut. Solletti of Engine Company 1 and Fire Fighter Neff gained access to the third floor but were driven down the stairs because of the intense heat and smoke. A second attempt was made immediately, but without success.

At this point, Fire Fighter Neff went to the rear of the building and as a line commenced operating in the rear stairway, he made his way ahead of the line into the third floor. At this time, the fire was in the walls of the stairway, the stairs were heavily charred, and fire was also in the ceiling and wall of the third floor. He made his way into the bedroom at the rear, right-hand side of the building, removed the child from the bed, made his way to the front of the building, down the stairs, and then to a waiting ambulance, giving mouth-to-mouth resuscitation on the way. There was intense heat and smoke on the third floor during this rescue.

The child was removed to the Boston City Hospital where she was admitted. Fire Fighter Neff was also removed to the Boston City Hospital where he was treated for heat exhaustion and later relieved from duty.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend Fire Fighter Neff for this rescue which was performed at extreme personal risk, and his case is referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

VIII. LETTERS OF THANKS

"May 8, 1978.

Dear Commissioner Paul:

On Thursday, April 20, 1978, there was an accident at the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Harvard Avenue. An eight-months pregnant woman fell on the street and apparently suffered a fractured ankle.

Fire Fighter James F. Mahoney, Fire Prevention Division, was of great assistance in giving aid to the injured woman. He alerted the Little City Hall at that location to call 911 and he stayed with her until the ambulance arrived.

We at the Little City Hall commend him for his kindness and for the comfort and assurance he offered the injured woman.

Yours truly,

Ann T. Muenster, Manager."

"May 3, 1978.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of our mother, Helen O'Donnell, my sister and I want to thank your department for such prompt, efficient, and most courteous assistance. We had just arrived in Boston, Sunday, April 30, and were staying at the Holiday Inn (Government Center) when our mother suffered a heart attack that evening. In just three minutes, your men were here helping both our mother and us.

Unfortunately, we didn't get the names of the firemen but we want you to know we appreciate the service and kindness they rendered us in this emergency. We don't know what department handles emergency ambulance service, but they, also, were very prompt and kind.

Most sincerely,
Melinda Rodriguez and JoAnn Marchbooks, Bakersfield, Calif."

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Boston Redevelopment Authority will receive sealed proposals for the enclosing of several City of Boston-owned tracts of vacant land with chain link fence and track welds throughout the City of Boston, "Fencing Contract No. 2," until 11 a.m., Boston time, on June 2, 1978, at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 910, Boston, Mass. (Attention: Engineering Department), at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

Proposed forms of contracts are on file at the office of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, City Hall, ninth floor, Room 910, Boston, Mass.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, with the Boston Redevelopment Authority, for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the contract documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after bid opening.

Bids shall be accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a bid bond or cash or a certified check or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority. A bid bond shall be (a) in a form satisfactory to the Awarding Authority; (b) with a surety company qualified to do business in the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority; (c) conditioned upon the faithful performance by principal of the agreements contained in the bid. Bid deposit shall be in the amount equal to at least 5 percent of the proposal for Fencing Contract No. 2.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price will be required of the successful bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment and to the Boston Redevelopment Authority's Equal Opportunity Compliance Policy, adopted February 20, 1969, revised June, 1975, and to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Supplemental Equal Employment Opportunity, Anti-Discrimination and Affirmative Action Program.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, without limitation, the notice to all bidders, (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs, as required by section 3, and a section 3 Affirmative Action Plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. These forms are AAP 1-AAP6 and AAP8 and can be found at pages ST1-ST10 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he/she is able to demonstrate to satisfaction to the Awarding Authority his/her ability to comply with these requirements.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract for CDBG-funded construction contracts, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent — (Note: 30 percent for Impact Areas) — of his/her bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set forth for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

Attention is called to all prospective bidders that they are required to attend a prebid conference to discuss the federal, state, and local compliance requirements regarding affirmative action with the Contract Compliance Section of the Boston Redevelopment Authority. Prebid conference will be held at Mr. Reggie Johnson's Office on May 25, 1978, at 11 a.m., Boston time, in Room 917.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding of the contract.

CITY OF BOSTON

Proceedings of City Council

Wednesday, December 7, 1977.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p.m., President TIERNEY in the chair and all the members present.

The Right Reverend Christopher P. Griffin, chaplain of the City Council, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY THE RIGHT REVEREND CHRISTOPHER P. GRIFFIN

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Eternal God, Thou knowest the duties that lie before us this day, the decisions we will be called upon to make, the dangers and the difficulties that confront us. Thus we commend and commit ourselves to Thy Divine Providence, beseeching Thee to lead us by Thy Spirit in the ways of wisdom and righteousness. We pray that our nation will remain united and free. We pray for the people of the Mid-East struggling with a complex problem. May they solve their difficulties without violence, avoiding extremism on both sides. Help them, Blessed Lord, for they need help greater than their own to solve the problem in a way that will be just, honorable, workable, and in keeping with the dignity, imperishable destiny, and the unfading immortality of the human soul.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the flag.

APPROVING PETITION FOR SPECIAL LAW
AMENDING SECTION 6A OF CHAPTER 39
OF GENERAL LAWS RE INCREASING SALARY OF MAYOR AND COUNCILLORS

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor,

December 1, 1977.

To the City Council.

Dear Councillors:

I transmit herewith and recommend that you adopt a home rule petition which would eliminate the prohibition now contained in section 6A of chapter 39 of the General Laws which prevents an increase in the salary of the Mayor or City Council from taking effect in the year in which it is voted.

This provision impairs the city's powers to make its own decisions in matters affecting only itself and is contrary to the basic principle of home rule.

I, therefore, recommend that you pass the attached home rule petition.

Yours respectfully,

Kevin H. White,
Mayor.

Ordered, That a petition to the General Court, accompanied by a bill for a special law relating to the City of Boston, to be filed with an attested copy of this order, be, and hereby is, approved under clause (1) of section 8 of Article 2, as amended, under the amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to the end that legislation be enacted providing substantially as follows:

Section 1. Section 6A of chapter 39 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking the second sentence thereof and inserting in its place the following two sentences:

Except in Boston, no increase or reduction in such salaries shall take effect during the year in which such increase or reduction is voted. No change in such ordinance shall be made between the election of a new council or other legislative body and the qualification of the new council or other legislative body.

Referred to the Committee on Laws and Ordinances.

ORDINANCE REGULATING CERTAIN RESIDENTIAL RENTS

Coun. KERRIGAN offered the following:

City of Boston,

In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-seven.

An Ordinance Regulating Certain
Residential Rents

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Whereas, A serious public emergency exists with respect to the housing of a substantial number of the elderly citizens of Boston; and

Whereas, The deterioration and demolition of existing housing and an insufficient supply of new housing have resulted in a substantial and critical shortage of safe, decent, and reasonably priced rental housing accommodations; and

Whereas, This emergency cannot be dealt with effectively by the ordinary operation of the private rental housing market, and unless certain residential rents are regulated so that rents will not be increased unreasonably and landlords will receive a fair return for their efforts and investment, such emergency and the inflationary pressures resulting therefrom will produce a serious threat to the public health, safety, and general welfare of the citizens of Boston;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in it by law, including, without limitation, Article 2, as amended, and Article 47, of the amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and chapter 797 of the Acts of 1969, be it declared by the City Council of the City of Boston that a substantial and critical shortage of safe, decent, and reasonably priced rental housing units exists because of (1) the deterioration and demolition of existing housing; (2) an insufficient supply of new housing; and (3) inadequate municipal tools presently available to regulate residential rents; and

Also pursuant to the authority vested in it by law, including, without limitation, Article 2, as amended, and Article 47, of the amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and chapter 797 of the Acts of 1969, be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Boston as follows:

Section 2. Voluntary Rent Grievance Board.

(a) Composition: There shall be in the city within the Housing Inspection Department a board, known as the Voluntary Rent Grievance Board, consisting of five residents of the city appointed by the mayor, including one tenant who owns no housing accommodations, one landlord who owns or manages at least twelve rental units in the city, and three members representing the public interest, who may own or manage no more than five rental units in the city, one of whom shall be chairman. In the event that a voluntary agreement is not reached within thirty days from the filing of the complaint, or in the event that the board determines that no good-faith negotiations are taking place, the board shall send its recommendation to the Housing Inspection Department of the City of Boston for action thereon, which action shall be taken in not more than thirty days from such transfer.

Section 3. Adjustment of Rents. The Housing Inspection Department shall have jurisdiction over any case referred to it by the Voluntary Rent Grievance Board of rent increase effective after the effective date of this ordinance. In any such case, the Housing Inspection Department shall have power to set the rent increase at a level in conformity with the provisions of this section.

(a) Increased Expense. For purposes of this subsection a cost increase shall be considered justifiable to the extent, and only to the extent, that it is attributable to:

(i) increases in operating expenses such as, but not limited to, insurance, fuel, water, sewer, taxes, gas, electricity, repairs and maintenance, labor, extermination.

Whereas, Recently, an outside cable television company by use of a satellite process was able to beam cable television programs into selected apartment houses on a pilot program; and

Whereas, There is a great demand for this service for cable television by the citizens of our city and in order to provide this service Boston could allow cable television to be provided to our citizens; and

Whereas, Several years ago, the Legislature, contrary to the home rule provisions of the Constitution, stripped the City Council of their licensing power over cable television and gave the power solely to the Mayor of the city who to date has refused to allow cable television to come into the city for various reasons; and

Whereas, This policy has not been beneficial to the welfare of our people; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council Committee on Transportation and Licenses be authorized to hold a public hearing on these matters of cable television; and further

Resolved, That legislation be filed at the state level returning the right to grant licenses on cable television to the Boston City Council as every other city now has that power; and further

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Merciful Father, help us to live during this day humbly and honestly, sincerely and serenely, never proving disloyal to any of our duties but discharging them faithfully.

In the approach to our problems we ask courage and confidence that we may solve our problems with firm reliance on Thy divine wisdom and strength.

Grant that we never be timid and cowardly in our convictions and principles even though they seem counter to popular practice and prejudice.

May we be true for so many trust us.

May we be good for those who care.

May we be strong for there is much to suffer.

May we be brave for there is much to dare.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOUSING

Coun. LANGONE, for the Committee on Housing, submitted the following:

The Committee on Housing made a thorough investigation of the conditions at the Warren Towers Housing Development concerning the lack of maintenance and improper management. The Committee on Housing made several on-site inspections at the Warren Towers at 280 Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard, Roxbury, and found that some of the allegations about improper maintenance were correct.

The heating system was faulty and the consistent maintenance in the building was less than desirable. There was evidence that the building was not properly heated and that the fumigation was not being properly adhered to. People were complaining of mice and cockroaches. In one apartment the tenant was there eight years since the building opened and had to pay $200 to have the apartment painted by an outside contractor. The local maintenance man was very frequently unavailable. He would leave the building for long periods of time. The security there was not as it should be. The back door was left open and unauthorized people were allowed into the building during the evening.

Bearing in mind that this building has only been recently constructed, about eight years ago, it is quite apparent that the maintenance is not as great as other comparable buildings.

Over fifty of the approximately 100 tenants there signed a petition calling for the removal of the local maintenance man and complaining about the failure of the manager to ever be at the development. About a dozen witnesses all substantiated the fact that the local resident maintenance man is not doing the full potential that the job calls for but this is not within the province of the City Council but within the province of the Boston Housing Authority.

The Committee on Housing is going to recommend that we review the policy established by the Housing Authority whereby the local maintenance man lives right in the development and is paid a substantial salary and that some of the time attributed to the job includes the time for sleeping and evening hours and that they are not actually performing maintenance.

Therefore, the Committee is going to recommend that the Housing Authority look into this particular situation in the Warren Towers Development to answer the complaints of the tenants about the conduct of the local resident maintenance man and his harassment of anybody that makes a complaint and the fact he has ignored many complaints and further allegations that in order to get things done, according to the testimony of several witnesses, they must give him a gift in one form or another. This is entirely improper. These allegations should be looked into and be investigated by the Boston Housing Authority.

Therefore, the Committee recommends that the maintenance practice of the people being compelled to call an outside number when they have a complaint and the failure to respond over a long period of time about these complaints causes the residents a great deal of harm, particularly when it involves the comfort of heat, should be changed so that the local maintenance man or manager be responsible for forwarding these complaints for compliance. Secondly, that the local resident manager be required to account more readily to the administration for the time actually devoted to maintenance of their projects and, further, that the Committee on Housing recommends to the Boston Housing Authority that a hearing be held on the complaints and petitions of the tenants on the conditions at the local Warren Towers.

In addition to our inspection and investigation of the Warren Towers, your Committee on Housing also inspected the Old Colony Housing Project in South Boston relative to the reopening of the Washington Village Library which was located there for many years. The library was forced to close because of sewerage problems, backups, and draining in the area of the project where the library was located.

The Council held two public hearings in South Boston and also made on-site inspections with the Housing Authority officials there. The Library Department was also involved in the discussions and meetings. The Committee found that they do have a sewerage problem which has existed for many years and that the solution is going to require a great amount of money which Authority to date has not made any definite steps to obtain specifically for the purpose of eliminating the serious problem there. In our conversations with the Library and the Public Facilities Department, we have learned that the Library Trustees have already proposed a temporary site immediately opposite the closed Washington Village location. They are now in the process of making arrangements of having Public Facilities to rent a temporary site for the use of the neighborhood to have a library while the sewerage problem is still under consideration.

In addition, the director of the Library informed the Chairman of the Committee that a bus mobile has been assigned regularly to the Old Colony Project and the area. The Committee will continue to explore the solution of this problem until its finality. In the meantime, we are in frequent contact with all officials with regard to a temporary site for the Washington Village Library.

In conclusion, the Committee recommends that the Boston Housing Authority make requisition for enough funds to rectify the sewerage problems at the Old Colony Project so that there can be a permanent solution of this matter. The Committee recommends also that the City of Boston make a survey by the Water and Sewer Divisions of the conditions on the public ways adjacent to the Old Colony Project.

The report was accepted.

On motion of Coun. LANGONE that a copy of this report be sent to the Boston Housing Authority, the Trustees of the Boston Public Library, the Public Facilities Department, and the new Sewer and Water Commission, and to the members of the Congressional delegation in Washington, the motion was carried.

CITY OF BOSTON

Proceedings of City Council

Wednesday, December 28, 1977.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p.m., President TIERNEY in the chair and all the members present.

The Right Reverend Christopher P. Griffin, chaplain of the City Council, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY THE RIGHT REVEREND CHRISTOPHER P. GRIFFIN

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Glory, praise, and thanksgiving be to Thee our God, now and forever.

By the favor and the grace of our God, the curtain opens once again and we are enjoined to return to our duties here in this Council where laws are enacted for the peace and prosperity of our community life.

There is nothing permanently noble and worthwhile in this life that is achieved without sacrifice, pain, and toil. Turn us now, O Lord, wholly and completely to our duties as Councillors. Make us aware of our solemn obligations to our city. Fashion our daily demeanor that from this chamber we may be helpful examples to all our citizens. Give hope and purpose to all our labors, lest through human weakness we sow but little and leave nothing for the harvest.

Do Thou, O Lord, inspire each of us with a life animated by kindly thoughts for all men—and with the courage to do what we in conscience feel must be done for the common good—and sometime, somewhere, in some way our fellow citizens will rise up and call our name blessed.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the flag.

Re: Park Plaza
Gentlemen:

We are aware that, since the March, 1974, decision by the Massachusetts Department of Community Affairs (the "Department") approving the Park Plaza Urban Renewal Plan (the "Plan"), the Boston Redevelopment Authority (the "Authority") has undertaken a building mass, use, and location study and a related environmental impact report with respect to Stage I (as described in the Plan) of the Park Plaza Urban Renewal Project (the "Project"). We are also aware that the Commonwealth has expressed its intention to acquire and develop a site within this portion of the Park Plaza Urban Renewal Project Area (the "Project Area") for a Department of Transportation Building in which various public agencies and authorities will be located.

In view of the foregoing, you have informed Boston Urban Associates ("Urban") that the Authority wishes to carry out the Plan for the Project but with certain changes in the previously proposed development contemplated under the Plan. In particular, the Authority has expressed its preference that the total development be reduced in overall density and height, that the development by Urban be lessened in size and within a smaller area, and that the new Department of Transportation Building be included in the Project. The Authority's proposed reductions in the overall density, height, and area of the private development will significantly decrease the role and participation of Urban as the redeveloper. The Authority has, therefore, proposed various modifications of the agreements between the Authority and Urban to recognize and effectuate these changes.

Urban has to the date hereof incurred substantial costs in connection with the Project and has furnished to the Authority a certified statement of such costs totaling in excess of $1,600,000, which costs may be subject to independent audit. Urban is willing, however, to proceed on the terms herein set forth with the development with certain changes and limitations as proposed by the Authority.

Accordingly, this letter, setting forth our agreement with respect to the Project, combines and restates Urban's previously restated and supplemented letter of intent with such modifications as are now appropriate in view of the changes required by the Authority in the previously proposed development. When this letter shall have been duly executed by both parties and shall have been approved by all requisite public agencies, and when the building study hereinafter described shall have been approved, as hereinafter defined, this letter shall be deemed to set forth the entire agreement between the Authority and Urban in place of any and all prior agreements which shall have no further effect and under which neither party shall make any claim.

This letter covers, and Urban's obligations shall be limited to, the portion of the Project Area located west of Charles Street and identified on the plan annexed to this letter and marked Exhibit I (the "BUA Development Site").

The Authority's right and power to undertake the Project are subject to the approval of the Plan under chapter 121B of the General Laws, as hereinafter defined for the purpose of this letter; and Urban's performance hereunder is subject to the Authority's obtaining such approvals within a reasonable time and to the performance by the Authority of its obligations hereunder, including the acquisition and disposition of land to Urban, pursuant to a schedule to be agreed and to be contained in the Land Disposition Agreement hereinafter described (the "Schedule").

The Authority and Urban agree to cooperate with each other to carry out the development contemplated by the Plan and this letter within the BUA development site. The Authority shall use its best efforts to carry out the remaining elements of the Project in accordance with the Plan, including making land within the Project Area in the vicinity of the BUA development site available for development in accordance with the Plan for a Department of Transportation Building.

Part I.

Introductions and Definitions

Urban has been designated as the redeveloper of the BUA development site subject to agreement between Urban and the Authority upon a satisfactory form of land disposition agreement or agreements (herein collectively, the "Land Disposition Agreement") and formal execution, delivery, and performance thereof. The development which Urban proposes consists of the following elements:

- (a) building areas intended for use as business offices ("Offices");
- (b) building areas intended for use as retail shopping and service facilities ("Retail");
- (c) a building area intended to be used as a hotel ("Hotel");
- (d) building areas to be used as garages ("Garages");
- (e) building areas to be used as apartments ("Apartments");
- and finally
- (f) pedestrian walkways between building areas.

In addition, open areas (the "Open Areas") in and about the BUA development site, and a part of the Project proper, retained by the Authority (or the city), shall be developed as a public plaza by the Authority (or the city) incident to and in coordination with Urban's construction of portions of the Project. Such Open Areas, including the public plaza, shall be improved by the Authority (or the city) by amenities such as landscaping, lighting, street furniture, and other items suitable and appropriate to the Project in accordance with the Plan. After the completion of the public plaza and the improvements thereof, Urban shall assume responsibility for the ordinary maintenance thereof, in consideration for which Urban shall be entitled to construct and use a parking facility under the public plaza or a portion thereof in which event (i) Urban, at its expense, shall design and construct the parking facility with a foundation and columns sufficient to support the public plaza and improvements thereof; and (ii) in addition to the surface costs, the Authority, at its expense, shall design and construct the building slab on which the public plaza and improvements will be constructed. The Authority and Urban will coordinate and cooperate in the design of Open Areas so that the public facilities constructed by the Authority (or city) and the private development constructed by Urban will be compatible as to functions and design.

The land within the BUA development site will be put to multiple uses. For example, certain of the Apartments will be constructed over retail stores, and certain offices will likewise be constructed over retail stores.

For convenience of reference, land within the BUA development site has been redivided, as shown on Exhibit I, into three portions, namely, the land located between Charles Street and Hadassah Way (the "Charles Street/Hadassah Way Subparcel"), the land located between Arlington Street and Hasassah Way (the "Arlington Street/Hadassah Way Subparcel") and the remaining land located in and around Park Square (the "Park Square Subparcel"). It is intended that the Hotel will be developed either on the Charles Street/Hadassah Way Subparcel or the Park Square Subparcel in accordance with the provisions of the Plan as in effect at the time; and for convenience of reference, the particular subparcel on which the Hotel is developed is sometimes referred to herein as the "Hotel Subparcel." The actual timing and program of Urban's development will be adjusted, as agreed, by the Authority and Urban, to reflect causes beyond Urban's reasonable control, future delays in public approvals, and undertakings of the Project, the availability of land for the various stages of development, and other factors. The term "causes beyond Urban's reasonable control" as used in this letter, shall not include interest rate levels or market conditions or Urban's inability to obtain financing, but if national fiscal policy or governmental restrictions as manifested, for example, by official operations by the Federal Reserve Bank of the United States, eliminate available credit on feasible terms for large-scale development, Urban shall be entitled to extensions of time by reason thereof up to twelve months based upon the revised time schedule. References hereinafter to any stage (which shall be more particularly described in the Land Disposition Agreement and which is hereinafter referred to as a "Stage") of the development described therein or to the timing of any Stage shall be deemed to include such agreed adjustments.

The designation of subparcels within the BUA development site, and the division lines among such subparcels, are diagrammatic only, and are not intended to indicate with precision property boundary lines, since the determination of such boundary lines cannot usefully be made until plans have reached a more definitive stage.

The Authority shall, incident to the development of the Project, be responsible for performing or causing to be performed (with state, city, or other funds) site work such as the rebuilding and resurfacing of existing streets and the construction of new streets in and adjacent to the BUA development site, including the relocation of public ways, easements, and utilities and the installation, alteration, or improvement of street lighting; high-service water systems; low-service water systems; high pressure fire systems; surface drainage systems; sanitary sewer systems; traffic control systems; street, traffic, and directional signs; and police signal and fire alarm systems. Without limitation to or of the foregoing, the Authority shall be responsible for the costs of all public facilities, whether or not located on the BUA development site, including streets and ways, the public plaza hereinbefore described, utilities, and items related thereto, such as public land, engineering, construction, and legal costs.

Part II.

First Phase Activities

Section 2.1. Building Study and Schematic Design.

A building mass, use, and location study (the "Building Study") and a supplemental environmental impact report related thereto has been prepared as a public responsibility by the Authority and has been submitted to the Department and to the Secretary of Environmental Affairs, together with a certification by the Director of the Authority (the "Director") that the work program for the Building Study and supplemental environmental impact report has been carried out in accordance with its terms in all material respects and with the letter of intent. It is understood that the Secretary shall review such Building Study and supplemental environmental impact report related thereto and issue a written statement indicating whether or not such report adequately and properly complies with the provisions of section 62 of chapter 30 of the Massachusetts General Laws. It is further understood that the Department will then make a further environmental finding as to whether all feasible measures have been taken to avoid or minimize environmental impact, which will include a review with the Secretary of Environmental Affairs and will incorporate therein the comments by the Secretary of Environmental Affairs.

Promptly after approval, as hereinafter defined, of the Building Study, Urban shall commence the preparation, in conformity with such approved Building Study, of the Schematic Design for the Hotel Subparcel in accordance with Stage I of the standard Authority review process known as "Schematic Design."

The Schematic Design for the Hotel Subparcel and for the remainder of the BUA development site and the construction of the improvements thereon shall also be in conformity with the applicable controls set forth in Exhibit II attached hereto. The Authority shall take such actions, including modification of the Plan, and obtain such approvals, if any, as may be required so that construction in conformity with such controls shall not be in violation of the Plan.

As soon as the Schematic Design for the Hotel Subparcel is available, Urban shall submit the same for the review and comment of the Director and, upon reaching an accord thereon, the Authority's approval thereof. Urban will submit such Schematic Design to the Authority not later than six months following approval, as hereinafter defined, of the Building Study, except as this period may be adjusted due to a delay in the execution of a Master Land Disposition Agreement (as hereinafter defined).

Promptly following approval of the Building Study, the Authority and Urban shall commence preparation of the Land Disposition Agreement and shall duly and diligently complete and execute the same. It is expected that Urban and the Authority will execute the Master Land Disposition Agreement within four months following such approval of the Building Study; but if the time required for execution is delayed beyond four months, then the time within which submission of such Schematic Design is due shall be postponed by the amount of time beyond four (4) months required for the execution of the Master Land Disposition Agreement.

Urban intends to retain, as the principal consulting architect (the "Architect") for its development of the BUA development site, the firm of Davis, Brody & Associates, of New York City. The Architect shall initially be responsible for the preparation of Schematic Design of Urban's development. Urban also intends, however, to retain the services of other architects to work in association with the Architect for various elements of its development. No substitution of another principal architect may be made without the consent of the Authority, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

The Authority shall promptly after approval of the Building Study initiate preliminary engineering services and other activities involved in the relocation and reconstruction of New Charles Street in order not to delay the performance of early development phases.

Section 2.2. Approval of the Plan and the Building Study and Rezonings,

The Authority shall use its best efforts to secure approval, as herein defined, of the Building Study.

Approval of the Plan under chapter 121B of the General Laws and approval of the Building Study, for all purposes of this letter, shall each include, as a part of the same, further favorable findings by the Department and the Secretary of Environmental Affairs to the extent required by the March, 1974, decision of the Department or by law as hereinbefore mentioned, favorable actions and approvals to the extent required with respect to the controls referred to in section 2.1 hereof, the favorable termination of any judicial review proceedings that might materially affect the carrying out of the Project, or any part thereof, other favorable court decisions with respect to the Project to the extent such decisions reasonably appear to the Authority or Urban to be necessary, and authorization for the acquisition of land for, and the construction and financing of, the BRA site work and the Department of Transportation Building.

As soon as practicable after approval of the Building Study, the Director shall initiate the steps requisite to any necessary or appropriate rezoning of the Project Area or at least that portion thereof as is located west of Charles Street. Such steps shall include, but without limitation, the scheduling of necessary public hearings and preparation of appropriate documents, all to the end that the Authority shall have made all necessary recommendations to the appropriate city authority to place the Project Area, or such portion, in a so-called planned development area, as that term is defined in the Zoning Ordinance for the City of Boston, with zoning controls consistent with this letter, the Plan, and the Land Disposition Agreement. Nothing in this section 2.2 shall obligate the city to effect the required zoning changes.

All such hearings and materials shall have been held and completed in sufficient time in advance of the estimated date when land acquisition for each Stage is to take place so that it will be feasible simultaneously with the Authority's acquisition of land for one Stage to cause (by the action of the appropriate City authority) acquired land to be rezoned. It is understood that Urban will not be required to go forward with land acquisition for any Stage unless the rezoning is accomplished not later than or concurrently with such acquisition (or there are absolute assurances that such rezoning will be accomplished), and the Authority agrees to use its best efforts to secure necessary rezoning action, all as aforesaid.

Since it is contemplated that acquisition of parts of the Project Area will occur at different times, necessary zoning action will be phased accordingly, so that the same is taken, with respect to each acquired portion, separately and only after acquisition occurs.

Section 2.3. Subsequent Action by the Authority in Respect of Project Design

Not later than fifteen working days after submission of the Schematic Design for Urban's development of the Hotel Subparcel, the Director shall on behalf of the Authority either approve such Schematic Design or notify Urban in writing of the specific respects in which it finds such Schematic Design to be unacceptable, it being understood that, if such Schematic Design is in conformity with the approved Building Study, the controls set forth in Exhibit II, the objectives of the Plan, and the provisions of this letter, approval of such Schematic Design will not be withheld.

If the Director does not so notify Urban within said fifteen-day period after submission of such Schematic Design of specific respects in which the same is unacceptable, the Schematic Design as submitted shall be treated as having been approved by the Authority. In respect to any specific matters in the Schematic Design which are unacceptable according to such notice, Urban shall, within fifteen working days (or such additional time as may be reasonably required in the circumstances) after Urban receives written notice, resubmit such Schematic Design, altered in an effort to remove the basis for disapproval. All resubmissions and subsequent approvals or disapprovals thereof shall be made and given in accordance with the procedure hereinabove provided for the original submission, until such Schematic Design shall be approved, or shall be treated as having been approved, by the Authority as set forth above. The preceding sentences shall govern the procedure applicable to resubmissions of later stages of the various design documents as well as submissions and resubmissions of designs and plans for other Stages of Urban's development. Subject to the foregoing, the "Standard BRA Design Review" procedures, including review by the DAC, shall govern and be applicable to resubmissions of later stages of the various design documents, except that the preliminary working drawings and outline specification stage shall be omitted. In connection with the foregoing, however, the parties contemplate that submission of design material and review of the same will be a continuous process, with the parties duly and diligently completing the same and working cooperatively in respect of all Project design matters. As work proceeds, Urban shall furnish progress prints of drawings, to assist in the efficient conduct of the review process.

Section 2.4. Subsequent Design Materials

Subsequent design materials for the Hotel Subparcel shall be furnished in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) Design development drawings (in which the various elements shall be identified and integrated, massing shall be shown, and preliminary functioning elements shall be laid out, together with outline specifications therefor, which shall include designations of materials proposed to be used) shall be submitted to the Authority not later than five months after approval of the Schematic Design; and

(b) Working drawings and specifications, defined to include detail relative to exterior treatment of the various building elements and exterior amenities, specifications for materials, and details relative to methods of construction, site work, streets, elevations and sections, pedestrian passage, and public pedestrian levels in interior building spaces, in sufficiently completed form that the same may be utilized for the construction contract working drawings and specifications, shall be submitted not later than five months after approval by the Authority of design development drawings.

The Director may not unreasonably withhold approval of design materials submitted subsequent to the Schematic Design which are consistent with and elaborations of previously approved materials. Materials for the other stages of Urban's development of a quality at least equal to the Schematic Design for the Hotel Subparcel shall be furnished to the Authority for its approval in like sequence; and approvals or disapprovals of the same, and the time periods within which the same are to be given, shall be governed by the procedure established in section 2.3.

It is understood that the Authority will designate a Design and Construction Phase Review Team, including a representative of Urban, which will act only in an advisory role to advise the Authority with respect to Project construction activities. It is understood, however, that after working drawings and specifications shall have been approved, Urban shall be entitled to proceed with construction in accordance therewith, subject only to further approvals by the Authority with respect to changes, if any, proposed by Urban affecting land use, the building design or facade, the areas around the building, and the relationship of the first floor internal uses to external areas.

Part III

Economic Feasibility

Not later than six months after the Authority shall have approved the Schematic Design for Urban's development of the Hotel Subparcel, Urban shall submit to the Director evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Director of the availability and commitment of financing for such development. The commitment for financing for such Subparcel can commence within two months after its receipt. However, it is understood that, until possession of the property is assured by the eviction of all occupants, and the city has provided satisfactory assurances as to the timing and completion of utilities' relocation, thereby making more certain the actual construction date, the availability of financing for construction (as distinguished from the commitment relative to financing of land acquisition, which shall be firm before land acquisition commences) will not be in the form typical of final letters of commitment, but such evidence of availability and commitment satisfactory to the Director shall be submitted within sixty days of such complete possession.

The Authority agrees to use its best efforts to complete property value appraisals (by qualified outside appraisers having at least ten years' experience) of property within such Subparcel, and such additional areas directly related thereto as to which Urban shall advise the Authority that appraisal work is reasonably needed in order to prepare its financing plans and including city-owned parcels directly related thereto and to be acquired by the Authority, within two months after approval of the Building Study as herein defined. In any event, Urban shall not be required to submit any Schematic Design or evidence of availability of financing until two months after such property value appraisal work is substantially completed. Like evidence of financing plans for other Subparcels within the BUA development site shall be furnished by Urban to the Authority no later than four months before proposed commencement of land acquisition of each such other Subparcel.

If requested by the Department, appraisal data will be furnished to the Department, to be held confidential until all of the land within the BUA development site shall have been acquired and the owners paid, except as otherwise required by law.

The Authority shall bear and be responsible for all of its administrative, staff, legal, and overhead costs; and Urban shall be responsible for payment to the Authority of only such costs as Urban expressly assumes herein. The costs of legal fees and expenses of outside counsel retained by the Authority in connection with any litigation with respect to the legality of either the Project or the undertaking of the proposed development as herein provided shall (except as provided in section 4.5) be paid as follows: up to $75,000 by the Authority; and any excess up to the next $75,000 equally by the Authority and Urban.

Part IV.

Land Disposition Agreement

Section 4.1. Scheduling of Land Acquisition

In recognition of the fact that separate financing may be appropriate for the various stages of the Project, and because it may be necessary to assure the various financing institutions which will be involved in providing financing therefor of independent security for financing so provided, the Authority shall, on the request of Urban, cause the BUA Development Site to be divided into areas according to the agreed-upon Stages of development thereof, and shall agree to separate land sales or leases with Urban for each of such separate areas. Such separation may occur after the execution of a "master" Land Disposition Agreement for the entire BUA development site, and the execution by Urban of such a master Land Disposition Agreement shall not preclude subsequent separation as may be mutually determined. References herein to the Land Disposition Agreement shall mean the master Land Disposition Agreement or individual Land Disposition Agreements, as the case may be.

In all events, the rights of the Authority with reference to each Stage of the development, and the obligations of Urban in respect to the same, shall be separate, so that any claim of default with reference to any one such Stage shall not give rise to any claim of default with reference to any other Stage of development; provided, however, that, should Urban be determined to be in default in any Stage of the development in accordance with the terms or conditions of applicable agreements between the parties respecting said Stage, Urban shall forfeit the right to commence work on any other Stage.

Section 4.2. Financing of Acquisition and Other Costs

Urban has advised the Authority that it is considering the feasibility of effecting financing of land acquisition costs, relocation costs, and demolition costs, if any, within the BUA development site by the use of bond issues (the "Bond Issue") in the name of the Authority, in suitable principal amounts, the proceeds of such Bond Issue to be limited to the financing of residential and parking facilities and ancillary uses, as more fully described in section 5.1 hereof.

The Authority shall not be required to commence the acquisition of land for any Stage of Urban's development until the Authority is provided with evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Authority that the total estimated acquisition, relocation, and demolition costs, where appropriate, for said Stage shall be available to the Authority; for example, if a national bank shall provide a commitment to make available, for such purposes, an amount equal to such estimated costs, the same shall be satisfactory assurance.

Section 4.3. Transfer to Urban

The Land Disposition Agreement shall provide for the assumption by Urban of the net carrying costs (after credit for income received or due) on land to be developed by Urban and acquired by the Authority in accordance with the schedule, from and after such acquisition, provided that the Authority shall duly and diligently perform each of the following undertakings: The Authority shall:

(a) if requested by Urban, defend any action brought challenging the Plan, or the validity of the adoption thereof, taking all reasonable steps necessary to expedite early and final disposition of any such claims; it being understood that the Plan shall not be deemed to be approved for the purposes of this letter until the final disposition of such claims and that such claims shall not include petitions for the assessment of damages on account of eminent domain takings;

(b) agree with Urban upon, and exercise its best efforts to carry out, a land acquisition and occupant relocation program consistent with the schedule of development contemplated herein for the BUA development site and to the end that land acquisition shall be simultaneous with Urban's furnishing of acquisition financing and that any further period prior to disposition of the land to Urban for development shall be made promptly in accordance with such schedule;

(c) carry out a suitable relocation program for all persons to be displaced after acquisition, and work with all relocatees well in advance of the actual date of acquisition, to the end that possession of the land, free of all occupants, can be delivered to Urban at the earliest possible date after acquisition; and

(d) exercise best efforts, including the diligent commencement and prosecution of legal proceedings and the exercise of other legally available remedies, to obtain possession of land clear of all occupants promptly and in the time contemplated by the program and development schedule, subject only to interference by causes beyond the Authority's legal control; it being understood that no occupant will be required to move until proper and required relocation services have been offered as provided in the Authority's Relocation Plan, and it being further understood that the Authority will offer and furnish such services promptly and diligently in the light of such objective.

Carrying costs shall include payments to be made by the Authority to the city in lieu of taxes for property which becomes exempt from taxation by reason of the Authority's ownership (which payments shall be equal to the amounts which would have been payable, in the aggregate, as real estate taxes if the property had not then been so exempt), shall include relocation payments to occupants (except for portions provided by the city as hereinafter stated or previously provided by Urban as a part of the Disposition Price (as hereinafter defined), and shall include interest at the legal rate on amounts paid, advanced, or guaranteed by Urban for the Authority's acquisition of such properties and for such relocation payments.

The Land Disposition Agreement shall provide a description and plan of the land within the BUA development site to be acquired by Urban and shall also provide for the purchase, or in each instance at Urban's option the lease, by Urban from the Authority of properties within each Stage acquired by the Authority, in accordance with the schedule.

The Land Disposition Agreement shall provide, in a fashion satisfactory to the Authority:

(a) that Urban and the Authority shall each waive any so-called, third-party, beneficiary defense to an action brought by the city to enforce any provision in such agreement;

(b) that Urban will diligently prosecute to completion each successive phase of its development consistent with the schedule, subject to causes beyond Urban's reasonable control;

(c) that if Urban shall fail to perform in accordance with any of its obligations under the Land Disposition Agreement and shall, upon the Authority's demand, fail to take action to remedy its nonperformance, (i) any Subparcel to which such failure to perform relates shall revert to the Authority, subject, however, to the rights of any mortgagee to proceed to perform Urban's obligations and avoid reversion or to preserve the mortgage lien as a prior claim on land which may so revert, and subject further to Urban's right to the net remaining value of any such Subparcel after the realization by the Authority therefrom of allocable costs and damages; (ii) that part of the deposit at the time made by Urban and applicable to such Land Disposition Agreement as shall be ascertained to be the actual damages of the Authority shall be retained by the Authority; and (iii) except as aforesaid, the Authority shall rescind Urban's designation as redeveloper of any Subparcel to which such failure to perform relates;

(d) that if the Authority shall issue bonds in order to assist in the financing of any part of the Project, neither the city nor the Authority shall have general liability to pay the indebtedness evidenced by the bonds, or any of them, under any circumstances; and

(e) that Urban shall require as to any parking facility operated within the Project that the rates charged to daily commuters who live and work outside the Project shall be, on an hourly basis, at least double the rates charged to persons parking there for four hours or less.

The Land Disposition Agreement shall also provide that Urban shall undertake to carry out the development of the following elements by establishing a chapter 121A limited dividend entity or entities (which may be a corporation, partnership, or other entity permitted under chapter 121A) and by applying to the Authority for approval thereof:

- (a) the hotel
- (b) the office tower
- (c) the principal department store retail space
- (d) the parking garage
- (e) the residential units

It is recognized that the orderly carrying out of the development may be substantially and adversely affected by delays in determinations and approvals as to the chapter 121A development entity and organization. Accordingly, if a final determination as to the approval of the chapter 121A application (including the expiration of any period for judicial review or the conclusion of such review) and the execution of a related chapter 121A contract with the city (which contract will be a public document available for public scrutiny) have not been achieved within six months after the filing of such application, Urban shall be entitled (upon notice thereof to the Authority) to proceed with the redevelopment of such elements without reference to such chapter 121A proposal but shall complete the development pursuant to the chapter 121A proposal if and when a favorable determination as to its legality and the execution of such contract are subsequently achieved, provided such completion pursuant to chapter 121A is legally feasible. Urban shall use its best efforts to achieve such favorable determination at the earliest possible time. Nothing herein shall be deemed to be a waiver of any of the rights of the Authority under chapter 121A.

It is also recognized that Urban's ability and willingness to have the development of the Hotel carried out by a limited dividend entity under chapter 121A is dependent upon the present federal income tax laws relating to real estate tax shelter remaining substantially as at present.

The disposition price (the "Disposition Price") to Urban of land within the BUA development site to be acquired by Urban shall be a pro rata share of the total cost to the Authority of the parcels constituting, in whole or in part, such land (including acquisition appraisal, acquisition, relocation, and demolition costs), such share bearing the same ratio to such total cost as the land area to be covered by Urban's building on such land bears to the land area of all said parcels, except that, to the extent that the perimeter of the building shall include arcade space, Urban shall not be responsible for the portion of the land cost attributable to the area of the arcade space, but only for the portion attributable to the air rights thereon, if any, actually used by the building. At the time of the acquisition by the Authority of any such parcel of land within the BUA development site, Urban shall cause the Disposition Price to be made available to the Authority, whether through the proceeds of the Bond Issue (as hereinafter defined) or otherwise.

As to land (including streets) in the BUA development site now owned by the city and to be conveyed to Urban for development, the same shall be conveyed to Urban on the basis of appraisals of the land at fair market value, fair market value being defined as determined with reference to zoning, and without regard to increments in value which are attributable to the approval or carrying out of the Project or to combination of such parcels with other parcels, i.e., valuing the land as individual, unassembled pieces, and based on similar appraisals for the valuation of similar city land (including streets).

For the areas Urban elects to purchase, with the acquisition price to be financed by the Bond Issue (as hereinafter described) as hereinbefore mentioned, the Land Disposition Agreement shall provide that the purchase price shall be equal to the principal amount (which shall include, without limitation, the aggregate amount of all of the items constituting the Disposition Price) of the Bond Issue allocable thereto, together with accrued interest thereon. Payment for purchased property shall be made by conveyance thereof as aforesaid subject to the obligations imposed on the properties transferred by the terms of the Bond Issue.

For the areas which Urban elects to lease from the Authority, the Authority shall enter into a completely net ground lease (the "Lease") with Urban, for a maximum term of two years, containing, but not limited to, the following terms and provisions:

(a) annual rent shall include an amount equal to interest and sinking fund payments due on the Bond Issue and any net carrying costs not paid, assumed or borne directly by Urban as herein provided;

(b) Urban shall be entirely responsible for the payment of real estate taxes assessed against the property and for payments in lieu of taxes on account of property which may be exempt from taxation by reason of the Authority's ownership, in amounts determined by the city, equal to the amount which would have been payable, in the aggregate, as real estate taxes if the property were not exempt from taxation and fee title thereto were held by Urban;

(c) any income earned by the Authority from properties covered by the lease shall, after deducting reasonable expenses fairly allocable thereto (but not any amounts determined by reference to the Authority's staff expenses, except property management fees), be treated as a credit to rent under the lease. Such income is herein referred to as the "Credits;"

(d) the term of the lease shall expire on the date when any applicable Bond Issue matures and all the unpaid principal thereof is due and payable. At that time, the Authority shall sell and Urban shall purchase the fee in the land covered by the lease for a disposition price equal to the then outstanding unpaid principal and interest on the Bond Issue, after taking account of amounts available for payment against principal from the sinking fund and credits, if any, not theretofore applied against rent; and appropriate adjustments such as those referenced in subparagraphs (a), (b), and (c).

Where Urban purchases portions of the BUA development site and leases other portions, separate bond issues, or separate series of the same bond issue, will be utilized for the financing of each portion, such separate issues or series being allocated in their entirety to a purchase portion and a leased portion.

In any case where payments are to be made in lieu of taxes, with reference to property exempt for taxation, the amount thereof per year shall in no event exceed the amount which would have been payable as real estate taxes if the property were not exempt from taxation. However, where payments to be made in lieu of taxes are not fixed by statute, Urban shall participate in all negotiations the Authority may have with the city relative to the amount to be paid in lieu of taxes, and settlement of such amounts shall be made only with Urban's approval. Nothing in this section shall bind the city to accept an amount therefor which may have been agreed upon by Urban and the Authority.

The Land Disposition Agreement shall further provide that in the event that the Motor Mart Garage located within the Project Area shall be acquired by the Authority or any other public agency, not less than 750 designated parking spaces within said garage shall be leased or otherwise made available for occupants and other users of the BUA development site on reasonable terms and conditions mutually acceptable to Urban and the Authority; provided, however, that if Urban shall provide parking through other means, the 750 minimum number shall be reduced accordingly. Urban shall also be entitled, at its option and at its expense, to cause the Authority to acquire the Motor Mart Garage and to transfer the same to Urban, in which event Urban agrees to make available to the public at commercial rates not less than 300 parking spaces within said garage for evening theater parking purposes.

Section 4.4 Private Acquisition; Cooperation in Eminent Domain Proceedings

Although it is contemplated that properties will be acquired by the exercise of the Authority's power to take by eminent domain, the Authority understands that Urban will negotiate with individual owners of individual parcels before any eminent domain action is instituted and, in some instances, after a taking. In the case of any settlement of an eminent domain proceeding which Urban negotiates after a taking by eminent domain, the Authority agrees to join in any reasonable settlement thereof, provided the Authority receives suitable assurances that the cost thereof shall be financed by Urban or will be satisfactorily funded by the Bond Issue.

In the case of individual parcels acquired by Urban by private negotiations, the Authority agrees, on Urban's request, to take the same by eminent domain, notwithstanding Urban's ownership of the same, and to make an eminent domain award on account thereof equal to Urban's cost of acquisition thereof, provided said cost is the result of a reasonable settlement. Urban agrees, however, that, in the case of such individual parcels acquired by Urban by private negotiations, Urban shall remain responsible for the payments to non-owner, individual occupants in the properties so acquired for the same relocation payments for which Urban would have been responsible had the property been taken by eminent domain.

Incident to the exercise of the Authority's power to take by eminent domain, the Authority shall consult with Urban relative to the method by which all appraisals for acquisition are to be made, and the appraisers selected to perform the appraisals in preparation for the exercise of such power, and no offer shall be made by the Authority to the owner of any property within the BUA development site as to the terms and conditions of any voluntary sale or settlement of any eminent domain proceeding without the prior approval of Urban. In accordance with the Authority's customary real estate acquisition procedures, it is intended that two independent appraisals be made prior to acquisition. The Authority shall consult with Urban in the selection of appraisers and counsel representing the Authority in the eminent domain proceedings. The foregoing will in no way affect the rights of existing property owners to receive the full and fair cash value for their property according to customary acquisition appraisal procedures as used in federally sponsored, urban renewal projects. It is simply intended to provide Urban with the opportunity to assure itself that the appraisals, on the basis of which it will be asked to provide acquisition funds, are provided by competent appraisers on a consistent, complete, and equitable basis.

It is hereby further agreed by the Authority and Urban that (subject always to the property owner's option to make his own settlement outside the appraisal process if he so desires) in the event that the higher appraisal of any parcel is not greater than 150 percent of the lower appraisal, the minimum compensation to be paid for the acquisition of such parcel shall be the average of such two appraisals. In the event that the higher appraisal is greater than 150 percent of the other appraisal, a third, independent appraisal of the acquisition value of the parcel shall be obtained; and if the first appraisal is higher than the second, the minimum compensation shall be the average of the second and third appraisals.

Section 4.5. Court Award

Urban recognizes that, in the event of an eminent domain taking, the Authority may, due to a court award, be required to pay a larger amount for land acquisition than was paid by the Authority in the initial damage award. To provide for this contingency, the Land Disposition Agreement shall provide that, in the event the Authority is required to pay such larger amount, Urban shall pay to the Authority, upon demand, an amount which shall be sufficient to reimburse the Authority for such additional amount, together with interest thereon and any court costs or attorneys' fees related thereto, and Urban shall, if requested by the Authority in writing, provide the Authority with adequate security to satisfy its obligations hereunder. If the Authority makes a payment in accordance with the preceding portion of this paragraph, and Urban does not forthwith reimburse the Authority therefor, then Urban will pay interest at the legal rate on any such delinquency.

The amount of security from time to time that the Authority may require relative to performance of Urban's obligations shall not exceed, in the aggregate, 30 percent of the approved prices made in eminent domain proceedings on properties, the awards for which are at the time in dispute, and the form of such security may be an unconditional irrevocable letter of credit in the form and from a bank acceptable to the Authority. The amount of said security shall in no way limit the obligation of Urban to pay the total and final award of land acquisition costs.

Section 4.6. Commencement of Construction

Subject to approval of the Building Study and receipt of necessary design approvals as herein provided, Urban shall commence construction:

(a) on the Hotel Subparcel within four months after demolition of the improvements thereon and clearance thereof and the conveyance of such Subparcel to Urban;

(b) on the Arlington/Hadassah Subparcel within five years after the commencement or two years after the completion of the construction by Urban on the Hotel Subparcel, whichever occurs first; and

(c) on the remaining Subparcel within six years after the commencement or three years after the completion of the construction by Urban on the Hotel Subparcel, whichever occurs first.

Part V Bond Issue

Section 5.1. Acquisition or Development Bonds

Urban has advised the Authority that it is considering the feasibility of effecting financing of improvements to land within the BUA development site, as well as land acquisition, by the use of bond issues (the "Bond Issue") in the name of the Authority, in suitable principal amounts, the proceeds of such bond issue to be limited to the financing of residential and parking facilities and ancillary uses.

Any such Bond Issues shall contain provisions to the effect that the holders of the bonds will look only to the properties, the acquisition or development of which is to be financed by such Bond Issues, and not to the general credit of the Authority, or the city which shall have no obligation to pay the indebtedness evidenced thereby.

The Authority agrees to cooperate (but without out-of-pocket expense to the Authority) with Urban in Urban's consideration of such financing route and the Authority agrees to utilize such a financing vehicle to assist Urban in its financing of acquisition or development within the BUA development site from time to time, provided that Urban furnishes assurances reasonably satisfactory to the Authority that Urban has arranged for the marketing of the same and that the prospective lender or investment banking house responsible for such marketing is satisfied with the legality of the Bond Issue on the basis of the opinion of counsel to such lender or investment banker, which opinion shall be submitted to the Authority. The opinion of a recognized bond counsel as to the legality of this financing which is acceptable to such prospective lender or investment banking house, upon which opinion the prospective lender or investment banking house commits to rely in proceeding to close the proposed financing, shall constitute assurances reasonably satisfactory to the Authority.

Part VI Miscellaneous

Section 6.1. Preference in Leasing of Space

Urban agrees, to the extent practicable, to give preference to former occupants of space in the Project Area in the leasing of space in the BUA development site. First preference shall be given to former occupants therefore displaced incident to acquisition of properties by the Authority; and second preference shall be given to then present occupants of properties remaining in the Project Area not yet acquired by the Authority or in buildings in areas where demolition has not yet taken place.

The obligation of Urban to give preference shall not be construed as imposing upon Urban any legal obligation to accept as a tenant of space a person, firm, or corporation which it considers, in good faith, to be an unacceptable tenant by reason of credit, reputation, or other relevant consideration, such as the use to which such tenant proposes to put space which might otherwise be made available to such tenant. Likewise, such obligation to give preference shall not be treated as imposing a legal obligation upon Urban to accept a tenant, the credit and reputation of which, or the amount which such tenant is prepared to pay for space which might otherwise be made available to it, is of lesser quality or lesser amount than that of another proposed user which wishes to make use of such space.

Section 6.2. Relocation

Urban recognizes that it is the Authority's policy to make payments in accordance with the highest federal payments available to residents and businesses being relocated in urban renewal projects which are in effect at the time of relocation, but in no case will such payments be less than the federal relocation payments to residents and businesses in effect on the date the Plan was approved by the City Council.

Urban will, with respect to properties acquired by Urban within the BUA development site, provide such funds as are required to defray the costs established by federal relocation rules prevailing at the time the Authority first sought bids for the Project, plus 50 percent of any sums in addition thereto resulting from payment of benefits under federal regulations in effect when such relocation occurs. The city will provide the other 50 percent of such additional sums. Unless otherwise required by state law or regulations, the procedures and timetables for business and family relocation required by the federal government shall govern. The parties recognize that the state rules and regulations promulgated under chapter 79A of the General Laws apply to the Project and that the rules and regulations governing state-aided, urban renewal projects do not apply.

The Land Disposition Agreement shall provide that Urban shall employ the Authority to relocate all tenants within the BUA development site and shall advance and provide operating capital to the Authority for business and residential relocation costs which are to be reimbursable in accordance with the standards referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Section 6.3. Assignment

Urban intends to cause to be formed a joint venture in which the two individuals signing this letter on behalf of Urban, namely, Zuckerman and Linde, or Zuckerman alone, will be the managing joint venturers or managing joint venturer, and Urban intends that the Land Disposition Agreement will be entered into by such joint venture, as the redeveloper in lieu of Urban. If Urban's intentions in this respect are carried out, and a joint venture is formed for purposes of acting as the redeveloper, the Authority agrees to recognize such joint venture as Urban's successor, provided that it is satisfied that the managing joint venturers or joint venturer are, in fact, Zuckerman and Linde, or Zuckerman alone.

Prior to acquisition, Urban, however, agrees to notify the Authority of the identity of any person which proposes to acquire a beneficial interest in the joint venture. The Authority, at any time within fifteen days after receiving notice of the identity of such person, shall have the right to notify Urban that it objects to the admission of such person in the joint venture if the Authority shall, in such notice, specify reasonable grounds for such objection. If such notice shall be given by the Authority, such person shall not be admitted to such an interest in the joint venture without the consent of the Authority, but the Authority agrees to consult further with Urban, if Urban continues to desire to admit such person to the joint venture, and not unreasonably to withhold consent to such admission.

Section 6.4. Changes in the Plan

Urban's approval will be required only with respect to modifications or amendments of the Plan applicable to parcels which have been conveyed to or financed by Urban, or its permitted successor, or other parcels within the BUA development site as to which Urban's designation as the redeveloper as contemplated herein has not been rescinded by reason of Urban's default.

Section 6.5. Additional Payment to the Authority

In addition to all other amounts to be paid by Urban on account of acquisition of land within the BUA development site, Urban further agrees to pay to the Authority the following amounts:

(a) $50,000 upon completion of Urban's development of the Charles Street/Hadassah Way Subparcel, and $50,000 upon completion of Urban's development of the Arlington Street/Hadassah Way Subparcel, such amounts to be used and applied for the improvement and beautification of the Boston Public Garden; and

(b) Annually for a period of twenty years commencing upon the first to occur of the completion of the payments under the preceding subparagraph (a) or the expiration of thirteen years after Urban's commencement of construction on the BUA development site, $12,000 for each Subparcel on which development by Urban is commenced.

The obligation on the part of Urban to make such payments shall be an obligation as to which recourse may be had only against the Subparcel to which such payment relates, and shall be subject to the availability of funds to make such payments after all operating costs, debt service, or other payments to outside lenders and to investors, other than Urban, have been made, but before any return to Urban on its investment, it being understood that a more detailed subordination agreement will be developed in the Land Disposition Agreement.

Section 6.6. Deposit and Other Security

Urban has deposited with the Authority the sum of $100,000 (the "Deposit"). Any interest accruing on the Deposit, or other sums delivered to the Authority hereunder, shall inure to the benefit of Urban and periodically be paid by the Authority to Urban.

When (i) the Land Disposition Agreement for the BUA development site has been executed by the Authority and Urban; (ii) the Schematic Design for the Hotel Subparcel has been approved by the Authority; and (iii) chapter 121A determinations and approvals have been favorably obtained and are legally effective and the related chapter 121A contract with the city has been duly executed, with respect to all appropriate elements to be developed on said Subparcel under chapter 121A in accordance with this letter, Urban shall deliver to the Authority a letter or letters of credit in the total sum of $400,000 (to be added to and be part of the Deposit then held by the Authority). The Deposit shall secure the acquisition by Urban of the Hotel Subparcel, and $450,000 thereof may be applied by Urban toward the purchase price of such Subparcel. The balance thereof may be applied toward the purchase price of the Arlington Street/Hadassah Way Subparcel.

Any letter of credit delivered under this section shall be in a form, on conditions and from a bank acceptable to the Director.

Section 6.7. Default by Urban

In the event of a default by Urban hereunder, the Authority may retain the Deposit as hereinafter provided and rescind Urban's designation as redeveloper of the BUA development site. Any such default and rescission shall be subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction, which shall ascertain the actual damages suffered, if any, and the rights of the parties. In such event, the Authority shall retain only that part of the Deposit at the time made by Urban as shall have been ascertained to be the actual damages. The foregoing shall be the Authority's sole remedy for any such default and Urban's maximum liability therefor.

Urban shall not be deemed to be in default hereunder if the Plan or the Building Study has not been approved (as herein defined) or if, Urban having acted in good faith, it is unable to proceed due to causes beyond Urban's reasonable control, such as, but without limitation, governmental regulation of construction or credit which would impede Urban's development, national emergency, or natural catastrophe. In any case where the Authority is not entitled to retain such Deposit under the terms of this letter, and where Urban's further obligations shall have ended, the Authority shall return such Deposit to Urban after deducting any unpaid expenses that are the responsibility of Urban.

It is recognized that Urban's obligations are premised upon approval of the Plan, the Building Study, the development of the BUA development site as herein contemplated, and the particular terms and provisions herein indicated, and without any further conditions. In the event that additional requirements or conditions that materially affect Urban are at any time imposed by the Department or any public agency or body, as part of its approval, by rule or regulation or otherwise, Urban shall be entitled, at its election, to terminate its obligations hereunder and to recover its Deposit in full without being deemed to be in default, and in such event, the Authority may rescind Urban's designation as redeveloper of the BUA development site.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, upon the rescission of Urban's designation as redeveloper of any Subparcel in accordance with this section 6.7, the Authority may designate a substitute redeveloper for any such Subparcel.

Section 6.8. Works of Art

The Land Disposition Agreement shall provide for the expenditure of funds by Urban in the cause of development for works of art. Payments made to the Authority under section 6.5(a) of this letter shall be considered as part performance of the 1 percent art requirement of the Plan and the Land Disposition Agreement.

If the foregoing accurately states our agreement and the basis upon which the Authority and Urban agree to proceed, would you please so indicate by accepting this letter by appropriate acknowledgment thereof.

Very truly yours,
Boston Urban Associates,

By Edward H. Linde.

STATEMENT BY COUNCILLOR ALBERT L. O'NEIL

Having received unanimous consent to make a statement, Coun. O'NEIL stated that a monster had been created by the Council's approval of the Sewer and Water Commission. He stated further that the creation of 149 new jobs, including a $40,000 Executive Secretary from Detroit, which will cost the overburdened taxpayer $40 additional on his water bill. He stated that there are further abuses including, the $55 million bond issue; the take-over of $1.5 billion worth of property, and the dangers of eminent domain. SUPPORTING REQUEST OF MASSACHUSETTS STATE POLICE FOR PAY RAISE

Coun. O'NEIL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston City Council go on record to give full support to the request of the Massachusetts State Police for a fair and equitable pay raise. They are simply asking to be in the same category as other police officers' salaries in the city, state, and the country.

Fifty-three percent of the entire state budget is being paid out in welfare payments, and this comes to exactly $1,600,000 of the taxpayers' money. It has been noted that the Governor of the Commonwealth is now asking the Legislature for another $14,000,000 for the Welfare Department, and he can't see the reasons for giving the Massachusetts State Police a decent living wage. They are out there day and night protecting the lives of all citizens, never knowing who they will come in contact with—especially in this sick society.

Therefore, It is the duty of the Boston City Council to support these men and their families for a decent living wage.

The order was passed under suspension of the rules, yeas 9.

Since the day this center opened they have not paid one single dime in rents or other charges.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

INFORMATION RE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HOSPITALS BUDGET

Coun. O'NEIL offered the following:

Ordered, That in the passage of the 1977 Budget for the Health and Hospitals Department the following monies were approved by the Boston City Council and have not been spent as specified. For example, the following monies were not used for vital necessities, such as the purchase of an electro-myograph machine in the Neurosurgical Operating Room; the amount of $30,000 to Dr. Vernon Mark, director of Neurological Surgery at the Boston City Hospital for the following: $6,000 for medical malpractice liability; $5,000 for Dr. Nicholas Papadakis for staff coverage at night; $19,000 to be paid to Mr. Forrest Eastman for neurosurgical service; $10,000 for Mr. Forrest Eastman; $9,000 for Miss Kathy Cakalis for service as a medical secretary.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

On motion of Councillor LANGONE Rule 10 of the Rules of the City Council was suspended in order to introduce the following:

BOSTON TO BE "DUAL-DESIGNATED CITY" FOR INTERNATIONAL AIR CARRIERS TO LONDON

Coun. LANGONE offered the following:

Whereas, The Department of State of the United States has entered into an international agreement

(so-called "Bermuda 2") with the United Kingdom, under the terms of which only two cities in the United States may be the origin of flights of more than one United States flag carrier to London; and

Whereas, The said department has designated the City of Boston as one of the two cities on an interim basis, by a diplomatic note dated October 31, 1977; and

Whereas, There appears to be some question as to whether Boston will be permanently designated as the so-called "dual-designated city;" and

Whereas, In the event that Boston is not afforded the so-called dual-designated city status, there will be a necessity of selecting between the two United States flag international carriers presently serving Boston; and

Whereas, Pan American World Airways has no economic reason to continue its operations in Boston without its present Boston-to-London route, putting into jeopardy 113 existing jobs and an economic contribution to the city of approximately $12,000,000 per year; and

Whereas, Pan American World Airways has committed itself to a program of substantially expanding its Boston operations in the event that it is selected as the Boston-to-London carrier, If Boston is not afforded dual-designated status; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of Boston hereby resolves and memorializes the President, the Congress, the Department of State, the Civil Aeronautics Board, and all other agents and agencies of the United States of America responsible for such a decision, to designate the City of Boston as one of the two cities in the United States as a city qualified to have two United States flag international air carriers to London; and be it further

Resolved, That in the event it is not possible to so designate the City of Boston, that Pan American World Airways be selected to be the carrier serving this said route; and be it further

Resolved, That notice of this resolution be presented to the Mayor, the Governor of the Commonwealth, each of the members of Congress from Massachusetts, the President of the United States, the Department of State, the Civil Aeronautics Board, the members of the Massachusetts Joint Committee on Transportation, the Speaker of the Massachusetts House, the President of the Massachusetts Senate and the Director of the Massachusetts Port Authority, all by the City Clerk.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

SYMPATHY ON DEATH OF HENRY "CHIP" WHITMORE AND RICHARD "RED" BANK

Coun. TIERNEY offered the following:

Whereas, A tragedy engulfed the news media Tuesday morning with the tragic death of WEEI reporter Henry "Chip" Whitmore and helicopter pilot Richard "Red" Bank; and

Whereas, The loss of two human beings is indeed tragic, their deaths in their roles of providing a public service unfortunate; and

Whereas, The role of a journalist is sometimes trying; the perceived glories and adulation of the job always overshadowed by the tedium, thanklessness, and responsibilities of reporting; and

Whereas, The tragedy is compounded by the senselessness of the deaths, two men, in their roles as public servants, providing a much-needed, public service to a community and its peoples; and

Whereas, No amount of sorrow can rectify what has been wrought; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, pauses for one minute of public silence in memory of Chip Whitmore and Red Bank; and be it further

Resolved, That the Boston City Council offers its heartfelt condolences to the families, friends, and associates of these two men, offering its prayers for an end to such senseless tragedies.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

Adjourned sine die, at 5:15 p.m., on motion of Councillor McDONOUGH.

Note: All debate of City Council eliminated from proceedings in accordance with Chapter 447, Acts of 1947.

MAYOR OF BOSTON

PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 70

NO. 22

BRA Projects: Changes Proposed

The Boston Redevelopment Authority recently held a public hearing to consider important changes in the rules and regulations governing chapter 121A development projects in the City of Boston.

The new rules and regulations, proposed by BRA Director Robert F. Walsh, are part of the city's ongoing effort to update the conditions under which 121A status is granted and to provide the city increased revenue from projects allowed to proceed under chapter 121A.

Chapter 121A projects are developments which are exempt from taxation, but the developer agrees instead to pay the city a percentage of the gross income generated by the project each year.

In introducing the proposed changes, Director Walsh said, "Acting at the request of Mayor White, we have come up with rules and regulations which can encourage development, but at the same time provide a greater return to the city from these projects than has been the case in the past.

"In arriving at the proposed regulations we have made an effort to obtain advice and suggestions from a group that went beyond the BRA staff and city officials. We have consulted with members of Fair Share, attorneys, developers, and members of the financial community."

A committee, which helped establish guidelines on the tax agreement portion of the new regulations consisted of William E. Leary, senior vice-president, John Hancock Insurance Company; Charles B. Akerson, president, Akerson Valuation Company; William F. McCall, Jr., vice-president, Leggatt, McCall & Warner; Edwin B. Morris III, senior vice-president, First National Bank of Boston; David Morse, Hemway and Barnes, representing Massachusetts Fair Share; Scott Herbert, Massachusetts Fair Share; Edward T. Sullivan, vice-mayor, City of Boston; James V. Young, deputy mayor, City of Boston; and Mr. Walsh.

The new regulations, affecting virtually every area of the 121A process, were described by Director Walsh as a "tightening up of the whole application and approval process, from beginning to end, and including a means of monitoring the projects once they are completed."

The new regulations address the following areas:

More detailed information will be required concerning the applicants.

More detailed documentation and evidence that the proposed area is blighted and decadent and that the project will, in fact, be in the best interest of the city.

More detailed financial information about the proposed project and the applicants must also be included in the application. In addition, the applicants will need to provide a letter of firm commitment for the project's financing before the 121A application can be filed.

The Mayor's Tax Committee and the applicant will have to have arrived at a tax agreement on the project before a public hearing can be held on the 121A application.

The BRA will monitor the project to ensure that the city is receiving payments as outlined in the tax agreement and an audit may be ordered of the project.

A provision whereby the developer will abide by an affirmative action program and will also, where practical, give preference in hiring to City of Boston residents both during construction and management of the project.

The BRA has the opportunity to inspect the construction of the project and determine whether a certification of completion should be issued.

Chapter 121A was established by the Massachusetts Legislature in 1960 and is sometimes referred to as the Prudential formula. The purpose of the legislation was to encourage new development in Boston by providing developers to make payments in lieu of the assessed property taxes on the development. Under the terms of the legislation, the Boston Redevelopment Authority is the agency empowered to grant 121A status. The BRA's approval of a 121A project also requires the approval of the Mayor.

MEMORIAL DAY

Each year every state in the Union sets aside a day to commemorate the services of the soldiers and sailors in the Civil War and, since 1898, of those in the Spanish-American and other wars.

The custom arose from the practice in the south of decorating the graves of the Confederate dead; this is the derivative of the Name "Decoration Day."

It is observed in all northern and southern states alike, and in most of the states on the same day, May 30. In many localities the day has come to be a commemoration for all dead, and graves, even those of nonsoldiers, are decorated with flowers and wreaths. Let us not forget to honor and pray for our own dead on that day.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM AT UMASS

Some 1,156 degrees will be conferred by UMass-Boston upon the Class of 1978 during commencement exercises scheduled for the Harbor Campus in Dorchester on Thursday, June 1, at 2 p.m.

The College of Arts and Sciences will confer 962 bachelor's degrees and twenty-seven master's; the College of Public and Community Service, seventy-five bachelor's degrees; and the College of Professional Studies, ninety-two bachelor's degrees.

President Franklin Patterson will deliver the greetings of the university; Chancellor Claire Van Ummersen will be the principal speaker; and Ms. Judy Baker will speak on behalf of the Class of '78. She is a former university trustee.

The exercises will mark the tenth annual commencement for UMass-Boston which was founded by the Massachusetts Legislature in 1964. Classes initially were held in the Park Square area in 1965, and the Colleges of Arts and Sciences and Professional Studies transferred to the New Harbor Campus in January, 1974.

"T" PLANS REEXAMINATION OF COLUMBIA STATION

The MBTA Board of Directors has authorized a reexamination of the possibility of providing a Columbia Station stop for South Shore rapid transit trains as requested by the Joint Legislative Committee on Transportation.

Under a $17,900, supplemental agreement to its existing design engineering contract for the Red Line's Braintree Extension, Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Quade & Douglas will prepare conceptual designs and construction cost estimates for two schemes that could provide South Shore passengers with improved access to the University of Massachusetts/Boston campus, the Kennedy Library, and the Columbia Point area which has been proposed for revitalization.

(At present, South Shore passengers heading for the university campus must now go to Andrew Station, pay another fare, and transfer to the Dorchester Line to return to Columbia Station or travel to Broadway Station, cross over the platform, and board a Dorchester train to Columbia.)

Under one scheme to be examined, a second platform would be provided east of the existing Columbia Station platform. Pedestrian connections would be from the north end of the station to the Columbia Road bridge and from the south end to the bus loop. The bus loop would be rebuilt at a higher elevation. A new pedestrian bridge, with facilities to provide the elderly and handicapped with access to the Red Line, would be built in this area. The track alignment and its relationship to the signal bungalows alongside will be considered to determine whether or not the bungalows would have to be relocated.

Under the second scheme, the Dorchester and South Shore trains would utilize the existing Columbia Station platform, requiring trackwork and signalization changes at the existing major interchange north of the station. Also required would be a new interchange south of Savin Hill Station and a new "flyover" to bridge a freight track and to grade separate the Dorchester and South Shore lines. The bus loop would be raised and access for the elderly and handicapped to the south lobby of the existing platform would be built.

When the results of the study become available, they will be submitted to the legislative committee.

HUB CLEAN-UP PROGRAM CONTINUES

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that the second phase of the city-wide cleanup, "Be a City Slicker," will sweep through South Boston the week of May 30.

The clean-up task force includes more than 350 public works employees manning eighty trucks and fifty sweepers. They will be joined by 150 CETA workers assigned through the Mayor's Office of Public Service for the cleanup.

Said Mayor White, "During this phase of the cleanup, public works crews will concentrate for one week in each section of the city. The cooperation of all neighborhood residents is vital to our efforts. Litter bags will be available at the local Little City Halls. Public works employees will be cleaning residential streets as well as major thoroughfares. Vacant lots and alleys will be cleared of accumulated winter debris."

In addition, city crews will be completing the general sprucing up of street lights, poles, and traffic meters, as well as readying other city properties for spring.

To facilitate the city, street-cleaning efforts, the Public Works, Traffic and Parking Departments and the Police will cooperate to enforce the street-cleaning ordinances.

The evening prior to the street cleaning of each neighborhood, police will issue "facsimile tickets" to cars parked along roadways targeted for cleaning. The tickets will warn residents of the imminent cleaning, and advise them to park their cars elsewhere that day or face a fine.

An additional warning will be issued by patrolling police car loudspeakers, urging residents to move their cars for the impending street cleaning.

Community trash dumpsters will be temporarily stationed in each neighborhood during each clean-up week for residents to dispose of accumulated winter trash.

The initial phase of the "Be a City Slicker" campaign was a one-day blitz of the community on April 14, when the city cleaned major South Boston arteries curb-to-curb.

Swimmers of every age, shape, and size will plunge into the Boston YWCA swimming pool for fifteen consecutive hours on Tuesday, June 13, in a fund-raising effort to rejuvenate the YW's aging facility in Copley Square. Several hundred women, men, and teenagers are expected to take part in the Swim-a-Long starting at 7 a.m. at the YW's Melnea A. Cass Branch, 140 Clarendon Street, next to the John Hancock Tower.

Prizes will be awarded throughout the day with special awards to the swimmer who completes the most laps and the swimmer with the largest number of sponsors. Poolside commentary will be provided at intervals by Anne-Marie Rowan, WHDH radio personality.

Proposed forms of contract documents, including drawings and technical specifications, are on file at the office of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, Room 910, ninth floor, City Hall, Boston, Mass.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, with the Boston Redevelopment Authority, for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the drawings and contract documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after bid opening.

Bids shall be accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a bid bond, or cash, or a certified check, or a treasurer's or a cashier's check issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority. A bid bond shall be (a) in a form satisfactory to the Awarding Authority; (b) with a surety company qualified to do business in the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority; and (c) conditioned upon the faithful performance by the principal of the agreements contained in the subbid or general bid. Bid deposit shall be in the amount equal to at least 5 percent of each proposal for the Site Preparation Contract Z.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth satisfactory to the Authority, and each in the sum of at least 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of successful bidder.

Attention is also directed to the Instructions to Bidders — Award of Contract: Rejection of Bids and the prohibition of abnormally high and abnormally low prices for any class or item of work.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment and to the Boston

Redevelopment Authority's Equal Opportunity Compliance Policy, adopted February 20, 1969, revised June 12, 1975, and to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Supplemental Equal Employment Opportunity, Anti-Discrimination and Affirmative Action Program and City of Boston E.E. A statement of workforce needs, as required by section 3, and a section 3 Affirmative Action Plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. These are forms AAP1-AAP6 and AAP8, and can be found at pages ST1-ST10 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he/she is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Awarding Authority his/her ability to comply with these requirements.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract for CDBG-funded construction contracts the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent (note 30 percent for impact areas), of his/her bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the Minority Business Enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

Attention is called to all prospective bidders that they are required to attend a prebid conference to discuss the federal, state, and local compliance requirements regarding affirmative action with the Contract Compliance Section of the Boston Redevelopment Authority. Prebid conference will be held at Mr. Reggie Johnson's office on June 15, 1978, at 11 A.M., Boston time, in Room 917.

BIDDERS ON THIS WORK WILL BE REQUIRED TO COMPLY WITH THE PRESIDENT'S EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 11246 AND AMENDMENTS OR SUPPLEMENTS TO THAT EXECUTIVE ORDER. THE REQUIREMENTS FOR BIDDERS AND CONTRACTORS UNDER THIS ORDER ARE EXPLAINED IN THE INFORMATION FOR BIDDERS.

THIS PROCUREMENT WILL BE SUBJECT TO REGULATIONS CONTAINED IN 40 CFR 35.936, 35.938 and 35.939. NEITHER THE UNITED STATES NOR ANY OF ITS DEPARTMENTS, AGENCIES, OR EMPLOYEES IS OR WILL BE A PARTY TO THE INVITATION FOR BIDS OR ANY RESULTING CONTRACT.

THE ATTENTION OF ALL BIDDERS IS SPECIFICALLY DIRECTED TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE CONTRACT DOCUMENTS, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE NOTICE TO ALL BIDDERS (INCLUDING SUBBIDDERS) AND THE PROVISIONS WITH RESPECT TO BONDS, INSURANCE, EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY, MINIMUM WAGES, TIME OF PERFORMANCE, LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND THE REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH IN THE SPECIFICATIONS ON SUPPLEMENTAL EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY, ANTI-DISCRIMINATION AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAM CONTRACT PROVISIONS.

ALL PROSPECTIVE BIDDERS WILL BE REQUIRED TO ATTEND A PREBID CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS THE FEDERAL, STATE, AND LOCAL COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENTS CITED ABOVE WITH THE CONTRACT COMPLIANCE OFFICER.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest to do so.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding of the contract.

Science Museum Attendance: Best Ever

Like last winter's big blizzard, attendance and income for the fiscal year, 1977-78 at Boston's Museum of Science were record-breakers.

The Museum's Annual Meeting, held on May 22, was told by Director Bradford Washburn that the year's 976,000 visitors were a greater number than ever before — 12.3 percent above last year. The Museum is surpassed only by the Red Sox as a local recreational attraction. Income from admissions fees passed the $1-million mark for the first time.

Highlight of the meeting was the award of the Walker Prize for meritorious, published, scientific investigation to Sherwood L. Washburn, physical anthropologist and university professor at the University of California at Berkeley. The prize was presented by Museum Corporation Member Irven DeVore, professor of anthropology at Harvard University.

The 1978 recipient was cited for having "profoundly affected the direction of anthropology in this century."

Fund-Raising Progress

Mark C. Wheeler, reelected president of the Board of Trustees for another term, announced $3 million remains to be raised by 1980 for the $10-million, one-hundred-fiftieth anniversary campaign. More than $2.5 million was raised during the '77-'78 fiscal year.

The Museum was the only science museum in the country to receive grants from both the National Endowment for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Humanities. Both require a three-to-one match from new donors and increased giving from existing donors.

In his assessment of the Museum's progress, Director Washburn reported improvement in the quality of the School Visits Program, which brought 197,000 children from Massachusetts and other states to the Museum. In-depth training for volunteer visitor guides, and volunteer leaders of the Project Eye-Opener for inner-city children, as well as free weekly planning sessions for teachers, were among the activities noted.

A Museum first was a collaborative program with the Museum of Fine Arts' Pompeii AD79, which included an exchange of members' admission privileges, and an exhibit on the geological aspects of Vesuvius. Mr. Washburn said he believed this program was the first such cooperation between any art and science museums.

Major Undertaking

A major undertaking during the year was the building of a multi-unit exhibit, "Energy: Crisis and Challenge," expected to open in the fall. Urging the need for compromise among the national interests involved in the energy question, the exhibit will describe important forms of energy and present alternative solutions that the public may study, Director Washburn said.

Among the outstanding records of the year, the director observed, were the monthly attendance in April, '78, of 115,476, and that same month's Planetarium attendance of 48,000. Including the evening laser shows, the Planetarium had an increase of 28 percent attendance. Individual, family, and business memberships rose during the year to produce nearly 14 percent of the Museum's operating costs.

CARE TO VOLUNTEER?

Boston's Museum of Science seeks adult volunteers to act as visitor guides this summer.

Circulating through the exhibit halls, guides talk informally to Museum visitors about exhibits, but do not conduct tours. Their purpose is helping visitors understand exhibits so as to make the Museum experience as valuable as possible.

Prospective guides are expected to have a background in science, either through formal education or development of a hobby. Training sessions, starting at the end of June, provide information about the Museum and its educational goals.

Guides are asked to volunteer one afternoon a week from 12:30 to 4 p.m. In the last fiscal year, 119 visitor guides contributed 6,223 hours to this assignment.

To arrange an interview, call the Museum's Volunteer Office at 723-2500.

MAYOR LAUDS NEW FEDERAL RESERVE BANK BUILDING

Mayor Kevin H. White, on May 23, praised the construction of the new Federal Reserve Bank Building in dedication ceremonies at 600 Atlantic Avenue.

Sharing the platform with Federal Reserve Chairman G. William Miller, Mayor White called the building, which represents a $30-million investment, a "catalyst for development in the entire South Station area." The building is estimated to have generated an additional $100 million worth of private investment in the immediate area."

Said Mayor White, "We are obviously pleased to dedicate this building today. Not only is it a striking piece of architecture, but it symbolizes a new, brighter future for development in the South Station area. We look forward to this building anchoring the development of a new financial district in an area which was virtually given up for lost ten years ago."

Approximately 400 persons attended the dedication ceremonies including: Frank Morris, president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston; Herbert Wass, vice-president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston; Louis Cabot, chairman of the FRB's Governors; Hugh Stebbins, architect; and David Perini, contractor.

As part of a continuing program to make MBTA system route and travel information more easily available to the public, the T has delivered a supply of system route maps to seventy-five collectors' booths at rapid transit and streetcar stations.

Passengers on the Red, Blue, Orange, and Green Lines may obtain a free, system route map showing all MBTA rapid transit, streetcar, bus, and trackless trolley lines as well as all MBTA-subsidized, commuter rail lines.

In addition to schematic maps of the system, there is also information about the approximate frequency of service on all lines; information on regular fares and special fares for senior citizens, school children, and handicapped people; a description of the MBTA's popular Pass Program; and many useful telephone numbers providing a variety of informational aids.

Collectors' booths where the maps are available are marked with a highly visible decal announcing the fact with dark-blue letters on a vivid yellow background. System maps may also be obtained at the Park Street Station information booth and by writing the Customer Service Center at 50 High Street, Boston 02110, or by calling 722-3200.

DON'T DRINK IN PUBLIC!

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan has reaffirmed the department's commitment to strictly enforce the city's ordinance which prohibits the drinking of alcoholic beverages in public.

In this effort, special teams of police officers have been fielded in each district throughout the city, and have concentrated their activities in areas where citizen complaints of public drinking and its associated gang activity (such as citizen harassment, neighborhood noise, vandalism, or the commission of crimes) have been most prevalent, namely on street corners and public parks.

Since the campaign was initiated on May 1, 1978, the following actions have been taken.

Arrests (drinking alcoholic beverages in public streets and parks), 500; Field Interrogation and/or Observation Reports, 618; Groups Dispersed, 1,508; Motor Vehicle Citations, 244; Calls Answered, 823.

MAYOR FILES DEER ISLAND TRANSFER PETITION

Mayor Kevin H. White, on May 24, filed with the City Council a home rule petition which would transfer the site of the Deer Island House of Correction to the state in return for state-owned property on Nashua Street.

The Nashua Street site is favored by the White administration for construction of a combined $27-million jail and corrections facility to replace both Deer Island and the Charles Street Jail.

The home rule petition must be approved by the Council and the state Legislature before the transfer is effected.

The petition will also be filed directly with the Legislature by Governor Dukakis in the event the Council does not take action on it.

Mayor White said the Council has "dallied too long with what should be a relatively basic process" — finding a replacement site for the jail.

He pointed out that the Council could not muster the necessary six votes for its own proposal, which is a $14-million appropriation to renovate the 128-year-old jail. Mayor White urged the Council to support the administration's Nashua Street proposal.

Under the proposed transfer, the city would receive $15 million from the federal government in return for the Deer Island land. This would reduce the estimated cost of a new jail and corrections facility to below the cost of the City Council's proposed renovation.

The state would receive about 62 acres of land for construction of a secondary sewage treatment plant to meet federal Clean Water Act standards.

Mayor White said he instructed that the transfer petition be filed to show the Circuit Court of Appeals that the city is taking action to replace the Charles Street jail, which United States District Judge Arthur Garrity, in 1973, declared below minimum constitutional standards for prisoners.

The Mayor said the action "is a demonstration to the Council that the administration stands firm on the need for a new jail and a new corrections facility" to replace Deer Island, which he said may be as vulnerable to an inmates suit as Charles Street Jail was five years ago.

BOSTON'S LANDMARKS

Armory of the First Corps of Cadets 105 Arlington Street, Boston

The designation category of Landmark was given to the Armory of the First Corps of Cadets on May 10, 1977.

The owner is William J. Fitzgerald, 215 Tremont Street, Boston.

The Armory of the First Corps of Cadets, completed in 1897, is the only remaining High Victorian Gothic armory in the City of Boston. Additionally, the Armory is significant for its association with the First Corps of Cadets, chartered in 1741 as bodyguard to the colonial governors; for its architect, William G. Preston; and its prominence in the streetscape at Arlington Street and Columbus Avenue.

In the nineteenth century, many local militias constructed armories with designs inspired by medieval fortresses. The Armory is successful both with its exterior imagery and with its response to complex functional needs, including storage for arms and equipment, a drill hall, rifle range, gymnasium, officers' quarters, locker rooms, and communications to the State House via the tower.

The service of the First Corps of Cadets exemplifies the varied roles of local militias during various stages of the nation's development. Following the evacuation of Boston in 1776, the Corps was reorganized as the Boston Independent Company and participated in battles at West Point and Yorktown. The Corps also served with distinction in the Civil War and both World Wars, and was finally reorganized as First Battalion of the 220th Infantry in 1962. Especially in the nineteenth century, membership of the Corps and its Veterans' Association reveals its secondary function as a social fraternity for Boston's elite.

The Armory is an outstanding achievement of architect William G. Preston, whose work demonstrates facile control of the eclectic architectural tastes of the nineteenth century. Besides residences in Back Bay, Preston also designed the Museum of Natural History (now Bonwit Teller), the older portion of the Hotel Vendome, and the International Trust Company at 45 Milk Street.

The Armory's imagery reinforces its commanding position over the major intersection at Arlington Street and Columbus Avenue. The tower dominates and creates a dramatic skyline; all other elements of the building's mass are organized to support the tower's vivid statement.

In addition to its new status as Landmark, the Armory is listed on the National Register of Historic Places, an action that took effect May 22, 1973.

ANOTHER GRANT FOR BOSTON

Mayor White announces funding for Private Sector Initiatives Program.

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that Boston has been selected by the United States Department of Labor as one of thirty-four communities across the nation for funding of a program designed to increase private sector participation in employment and training opportunities for Boston's economically disadvantaged residents.

The initial grant is expected to total $25,000 to $30,000 for Boston. Beginning October 1, some $400 million will be available nationwide for this program.

Said Mayor White, "This grant will enable us to place Boston CETA workers in jobs for which there is a market in private enterprise."

Boston has been in the forefront of linking job training to industrial expansion through its Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA).

According to EEPA Administrator Charles M. Atkins, EEPA's Skills Training Improvement Program has been training people to meet the needs of industry moving into the Boston Marine Industrial Park as part of the Boston Plan. The On-the-Job-Training Program (OJT) has developed over 200 jobs in private industry already, most notably forty enrollees who will be employed by Honeywell Computer Company at the conclusion of their training period.

Plans for future development of private business and training opportunities will focus on working with small and minority businesses. Presently, 67 percent of Boston training program enrollees are placed into private sector jobs.

MAYOR AND MRS. WHITE PRESIDE OVER GREAT GRANDMONTH

Boston's Great Grandmonth concluded this week with a flurry of activities as Mayor Kevin White and his wife, Kathryn, presided over a Senior Crafts Fair at Quincy Market, a Medical Fair at Boston City Hospital, and "Nostalgia Day" at the Prudential Center.

Mayor White said the Great Grandmonth theme, which will evolve each year into a monthlong tribute to Boston's elderly, has "proved very effective in closing the gap between municipal government and Boston's elderly population."

The Mayor said that by involving the city's elderly in the specialized events of Great Grandmonth, more elderly became aware of Elderly Commission programs such as the Senior Shuttle and the Mobile Market, and of the wide range of health care services provided by the city's Health and Hospitals facilities and neighborhood health centers.

Special events during Great Grandmonth included:

— The official opening, May 1, at City Hall with the "Shades of Gray" exhibit of photos of the elderly at City Hall.

— A "Mothers Day at the Public Garden," May 14, at which many of the city's more isolated elderly were among 400 hosted by the Mayor and Mrs. White for a day of entertainment as guests of the city.

— A Senior Crafts and Information Fair May 25 at the Quincy Market, at which about 400 elderly exhibited and sold handcrafted goods such as macrame, quilting, woodworking, and other items. Every city department involved in services to the elderly ran a booth with informational services.

— A Medical Fair, May 26, at the new Ambulatory Care Center at Boston City Hospital, where more than 300 seniors discussed problems involving cardiology, arthritis, nutrition, and other areas of health care with medical personnel from the hospital.

— Nostalgia Day, May 31, at the Pru Center, at which 1,000 Boston elderly gathered at the Pru Center Pavilion for a day of music and discount shopping provided by local merchants.

The Mayor said the city is making a further effort to apprise the elderly of health services through a series of brochures and pamphlets targeted to the elderly to be available at neighborhood health centers, Little City Halls, and drug retail outlets throughout the city.

The city is also making a major effort to increase senior volunteerism in Boston, and is planning a job bank program to connect elderly seeking employment in the city with willing employers.

Mayor White said his administration's goal, now that Great Grandmonth is concluded, is "to maintain throughout the year the momentum that we established in communicating to the elderly the extent of city services available to them through Great Grandmonth."

POLICE DEPARTMENT INTENSIFIES TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan has announced a new stage in the department's intensified, traffic-enforcement program. With the acquisition of sixteen, hand-held, radar units from the Governor's Highway Safety Bureau, Boston will focus greater attention on reducing the number of speeding violations within the city.

This sophisticated radar unit allows for greater versatility in traffic enforcement. One of the unique features of this radar unit is its adaptability for use by a single police officer on foot or motorcycle, as well as its ability to be mounted easily on any patrol vehicle.

The unit's narrower beam allows targeting of a single speeding vehicle from among many others being lawfully operated. This is an important innovation in the necessarily short distances and narrow streets of our city.

The sixteen units were employed throughout the city commencing May 12. Emphasis will begin with those neighborhood streets where speed violations most frequently occur.

According to Captain Robert H. Bradley, coordinator of the multi-agency Traffic Enforcement Program, the radar unit will prove to be a new and valuable tool in the city's effort to reduce traffic injuries and deaths.

Since the traffic enforcement campaign was launched on September 6, 1977, Boston Police officers, with Registry of Motor Vehicle inspectors, have issued more than 80,000 citations for traffic violations.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOY-

MENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246)

1. The Offerer's or Bidder's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and the "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth herein.

2. The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered area, are as follows: (See Appendix 1 to Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Specifications).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered area.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required by the specifications set forth in 41 CFR 60-4.3(a), and its efforts to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract resulting from this solicitation is to be performed. The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract, and in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects. The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

3. The contractor shall provide written notification to the Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs within ten (10) working days of award of any construction subcontract in excess of $10,000 at any tier for construction work under the contract resulting from this solicitation. 4. As used in this notice, and in the contract resulting from this solicitation, the "covered area" is Cambridge, Middlesex County, Massachusetts.

The Authority reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, to waive informalities, to advertise for new proposals or proceed to do the work otherwise, as may be deemed to be for the best interests of the Authority.

The successful bidder shall be required to furnish a performance bond and a labor and materials payment bond, each for the full amount of the contract price. The surety shall be a surety company or securities satisfactory to the Authority.

DISPLAY OUR FLAG PROUDLY

Traditions and Code of the U. S. Flag

Many traditions have grown up regarding the display and use of the United States flag. These traditions are intended as marks of respect and are widely observed. The Army and the Navy have their own regulations, but these do not apply outside the armed services. To supply a guide to civilians for the proper use and display of the flag, a code was drawn up at a National Flag Conference held in Washington on June 11-15, 1923. This was revised by the Second National Flag Conference, May 15, 1924. Finally, in June 1942, Congress adopted a resolution (amended December 1942) which made the flag code into a law.

The code, as set forth below, embodies the provisions of the congressional resolution.

1. The Flag should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours as may be designated by proper authority. It should be displayed on national and state holidays, and on historic and special occasions. The Flag should always be hoisted briskly and lowered slowly and ceremoniously.

2. When carried in a procession with another flag or flags, the Flag of the United States of America should be either on the marching right, that is, the Flag's own right, or, when there is a line of other flags, the Flag of the United States of America may be in front of the center of that line.

3. When displayed with another flag against a wall from crossed staffs, the Flag of the United States of America should be on the right, the Flag's own right, and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.

4. When a number of flags are grouped and displayed from staffs, the Flag of the United States of America should be at the center or at the highest point of the group.

5. When flags of states or of cities or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the Flag of the United States of America, the National Flag should always be at the peak. When flown from adjacent staffs, the Flag of the United States of America should be hoisted first and lowered last. No flag or pennant should be placed above or to the right of the Flag of the United States of America.

6. When flags of two or more nations are displayed they should be flown from separate staffs of the same height and the flags should be of approximately equal size. (International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of another nation in time of peace.)

7. When the Flag is displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from the window sill, balcony, or front of building, the union of the Flag should go clear to the peak of the staff unless the Flag is at half-staff.

8. When the Flag is displayed in a manner other than by being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the union should be uppermost and to the Flag's own right, i.e., to the observer's left. When displayed in a window it should be displayed the same way, that is, with the union or blue field to the left of the observer in the street. When festoons, rosettes or drapings of blue, white, and red are desired, bunting should be used, but never the Flag.

9. When displayed over the middle of the street, as between buildings, the Flag should be suspended vertically with the union to the north, in an east and west street, or to the east in a north and south street.

10. On a speaker's platform the Flag, if used flat, should be placed above and behind the speaker. It should never be used to cover the speaker's desk, nor to drape over the front of the platform. If flown from a staff it should be on the speaker's right.

11. When used in connection with the unveiling of a statue or monument, the Flag should form a distinctive feature during the ceremony, but the Flag itself should never be used as the covering for the statue. Bunting may be used for this purpose.

12. When flown at half-staff, the Flag is hoisted to the peak for an instant, then lowered to the half-staff position; but before lowering the Flag for the day it is raised again to the peak. By half-staff is meant hauling down the Flag to one-half the distance between the top and bottom of the staff. If local conditions require, divergence from this position is permissible. On Memorial Day, May 30th, the Flag is displayed at half-staff from sunrise until noon and at full staff from noon until sunset; for the Nation lives and the Flag is the symbol of the living Nation.

13. Flags flown from fixed staffs are placed at half-staff to indicate mourning. When the Flag is displayed on a small staff, as when carried in parade, mourning is indicated by attaching two streamers of black crepe to the spear head, allowing the streamers to fall naturally. Crepe is used on the flag-staff only by order of the President.

14. When used to cover a casket, the Flag should be placed so that the union is at the head and over the left shoulder. The Flag should not be lowered into the grave nor allowed to touch the ground. The casket should be carried foot first.

15. When the Flag is displayed in the body of the church it should be from a staff placed on the congregation's right as they face the clergyman. The service flag, the State flag, or other flag should be at the left of the congregation. If in the chancel or on the platform, the Flag of the United States of America should be placed on the clergyman's right as he faces the congregation and the other flags on his left.

16. When the Flag is in such a condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, it should not be cast aside or used in any way that might be viewed as disrespectful to the National colors, but should be destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning or by some other method in harmony with the reverence and respect we owe to the emblem representing our Country.

Cautions

1. Do not permit disrespect to be shown to the Flag of the United States of America.

2. Do not dip the Flag of the United States of America to any person or anything. The regimental color, State flag, organization flag, or institutional flag will render this honor.

3. Do not display the Flag with the union down except as a signal of distress.

4. Do not place any other flag or pennant above or to the right of the Flag of the United States of America.

5. Do not let the Flag touch the ground or the floor, or trail in the water.

6. Do not place any object or emblem of any kind on or above the Flag of the United States of America.

7. Do not use the Flag as drapery in any form whatever. Use bunting of blue, white, and red.

8. Do not fasten the Flag in such a manner as will permit it to be easily torn.

9. Do not drape the Flag over the hood, top, sides, or back of a vehicle, or of a railroad train or boat. When the Flag is displayed on a motor car, the staff should be affixed firmly to the chassis, or clamped to the radiator cap.

10. Do not display the Flag on a float in a parade except from a staff.

11. Do not use the Flag as a covering for a ceiling.

12. Do not carry the Flag flat or horizontally, but always as in a parade, aloft and free.

13. Do not use the Flag as a portion of a costume or of an athletic uniform. Do not embroider it upon cushions or handkerchiefs nor print it on paper napkins or boxes.

14. Do not put lettering of any kind upon the Flag.

15. Do not use the Flag in any form of advertising nor fasten an advertising sign to the pole from which the Flag is flying.

16. Do not display, use, or store the Flag in such a manner as will permit it to be easily soiled or damaged.

Proper Use of Bunting

Bunting of the National colors should be used for covering a speaker's desk, draping over the front of a platform, and for decoration in general. Bunting should be arranged with the blue above, the white in the middle, and the red below.

Salute to the Flag

When the Flag is passing in parade or in a review, all persons present should face the Flag, stand at attention, and salute. Those present in uniform should render the right-hand salute. When not in uniform, men should remove the headdress with the right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart. Women should salute by placing the right hand over the heart. The salute to the Flag in the moving column is rendered at the moment the Flag passes.

Salute When Giving the Pledge to the Flag

In pledging allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, the approved practice in schools, which is suitable also for civilian adults, is as follows:

Standing with the right hand over the heart, all repeat together the following pledge:

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands.

"One Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

The President of the United States is empowered to alter, modify, or repeal by proclamation any rule or custom pertaining to the use and display of the Flag whenever he deems it to be desirable.

Hats Off!

*Along the street there comes
A blare of bugles, a ruffle of drums,
Hats Off!*

The flag is passing by!

Over the steel-tipped, ordered lines.
Hats Off!
The colours before us fly;
But more than the flag is passing by.*

*Sea-fights and land-fights grim and great,
Fought to make and to save the State;
Weary marches and sinking Ships;
Cheers of victory on dying lips.*

*Days of plenty and years of peace;
March of a strong Land's swift increase;
Equal justice, right and law,
Stately honour and reverend awe.*

*Sign of a nation great and strong
To ward her people from foreign wrong;
Pride and glory and honour, — all
Live in the colours to stand or fall.*

Hats Off!

*Along the street there comes
A blare of bugles, a ruffle of drums;
And loyal hearts are beating high;
Hats Off!
The flag is passing by!*

— HENRY HOLCOMB BENNETT.

Our Flag, May It Ever Wave

I swing before your eyes as a bright gleam of color, a symbol of yourself, the pictured suggestion of that which makes this Nation. My stars and my stripes are your dream and your labors. They are bright with cheer, brilliant with courage, firm with faith, because you have made them so out of your hearts. This is the real meaning of old glory, the banner of the United States; for the flag is but a symbol of the Nation. Whatever the flag to which you give allegiance, you are, in a very real sense, one of its makers, as you are of the Nation for which it stands.

Mayor Forms Classification Committee

Mayor Kevin H. White, on May 30, announced the formation of a city-wide neighborhood committee whose aim is to generate support for the passage of the Classification Amendment to the State Constitution on the November ballot.

The new group, the Boston Neighborhood Committee for Classification, is composed of more than a dozen civic leaders from Boston's residential districts who have endorsed the Classification Amendment as vital to the future of the city's neighborhoods. The committee members also support the expenditure of public funds to ensure the amendment's passage.

Said Mayor White, "Classification is crucial to the future of Boston as a place to live. Without classification, 100 percent valuation will devastate our neighborhoods, making them too expensive for the average homeowner and tenant to afford. I am pleased that these civic leaders share my view that this issue is of paramount importance to the city."

The Boston Neighborhood Committee for Classification, chaired by Stuart Rosenberg, chairman of the Mattapan Board of Trade, will hold neighborhood meetings, explaining to residents the potential impact of 100 percent valuation, and the importance of the Classification Amendment to homeowners and renters in the city.

Said Mayor White, "The group represents all parts of the city, and its diverse political, social, and ethnic makeup. The one thing which binds these people together, besides their concern for the future of Boston, is their conviction that failure to pass a Classification Amendment in November will have grave consequences for Boston's neighborhoods."

The Classification Amendment, Proposition 1 on the November 7 ballot, would amend the State Constitution to allow Massachusetts cities and towns to assess real property at specific percentages of real market value in up to four categories.

As is currently the case in most cities and towns, business properties under classification would pay a larger proportion of taxes than residential properties.

Under 100 percent valuation, without classification, all properties would be taxed at 100 percent of

UNITED WAY AUGMENTS SERVICES

The ability to meet challenging needs in the community is one of the most important characteristics of the United Way and its member agencies. In 1977, many member agencies instituted new programs and services to help meet unfilled needs in their service areas.

Some programs are still continuing, others were onetime, pilot projects which may or may not continue, depending on several factors. Funding came from various sources, including the United Way.

The following list includes some examples of new services and programs which member agencies provided in 1977.

Jewish Big Brother Association started a Big Sister Program.

Big Sister Association of Greater Boston began a Sisterhood in the Schools Program at the Cleveland Junior High School in Dorchester. Two little sisters are matched to one big sister. One little sister lives in the school's immediate area; the other is bussed into the area. The agency also has a Chinese Big Sister Program.

Associated Day Care Services of Metropolitan Boston took over management of the Gilday Day Care Center in Roxbury for battered children up to three years old. The center has a capacity for twelve children.

Family Counseling and Guidance Centers, with its Adopt a Grandparent Program, matched 276 elderly people with families. The program operates primarily on the South Shore, but may be expanded.

Family Service of Dedham offered an alcoholism counseling program for alcoholics and their families. Program was funded through the state Division of Alcoholism. The agency also ran a counseling program for children under twelve who are potential delinquents.

Jewish Family Service of the North Shore has a Kosher Meals on Wheels Program for the elderly at the Barrett Housing Project in Lynn. Funded through the federal Nutrition Program for the Elderly, the program serves 300 meals a week.

Needham Visiting Nurse Association has nurses on call and available for services on weekends and holidays. The agency received a onetime grant from the United Way for the program; ongoing costs are built into the rates of third-party payers.

Boston YMCA developed and distributed "Fortune Telling," a programmed package of instruction to interest girls in higher-paying, non-traditional careers. the Y's Non-Traditional Occupations Project for Women placed eighty-five women in jobs like carpentry, plumbing, etc.

Lena Park Community Services Center reached out to the Wellington Hill section of Mattapan to provide services to area youth. Funding came from two foundations and the United Way.

Greater Boston YMCA began a health program at its Cardiovascular Health Center to combat heart disease. In cooperation with the Harvard School of Public Health, the Y administered, under the supervision of a doctor and a physiologist, comprehensive cardiovascular examinations at seven locations in eastern Massachusetts. This year, the Y will reach many more people with tests at its suburban locations.

PICARDI SINGS: NEED WE SAY MORE!

Boston Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that the Commission on Affairs of the Elderly will sponsor a spectacular, two-hour, variety show for Boston's senior citizens next Wednesday, June 14, at 1 p.m., at the North End Skating Rink on Commercial Street. The show, which salutes the senior clubs of Boston, stars one of the areas top musical attractions, Angelo Picardi.

Included in the sparkling variety review will be top nightclub comic, Joe Haller, ventriloquist Vicki Taylor, "Mr., Versatility" Jerry Coyle, the Angelo Picardi Singers, and a large studio orchestra.

Mr. Picardi, who has a large and loyal following of fans throughout the New England area, has been one of the top drawing singers in nightclubs and dinner theaters in the area. He has drawn as many as 18,000 persons to outdoor concerts on City Hall Plaza in recent years. The show is being sponsored by Mayor White to provide an afternoon of enjoyable entertainment for more than 2,000 Boston senior citizens.

"Angelo Picardi," said Mayor White, "is one of the most dynamic entertainers in show business today. He has a tremendous capacity to hold an audience in the palm of his hand and bring them to their feet cheering and applauding. He is a remarkable talent and I invite all of Boston's seniors to come to this free afternoon variety show."

OUR FLAG

On June 14, 1777, two hundred years ago, the Congress of the United States enacted a resolution:

" . . . that the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, that the Union be thirteen stars, white on blue field representing a new constellation."

In 1795, eighteen years later, June 14 was designated officially in the United States as Flag Day.

The flag of the United States is a symbol of freedom and justice.

It is a symbol of home to the millions of people who live in fear, in poverty, and in slavery. To millions of people throughout the world it is a symbol of rich material blessing and a land of opportunity.

In the hearts and minds of these millions of people is a deep yearning that some day, somehow, they may have the opportunity of making their homes in this great land of ours.

In these days of doubt, fear, and uncertainty, when freedom and justice are so seriously threatened, it is fitting that we should pause to rededicate ourselves to the basic principles symbolized by our flag.

These principles have sustained us throughout our history.

They have enabled us to triumph when our freedom and our security were threatened.

They have made it possible for us to grow in power and in prosperity.

They have strengthened us when we faltered; given us courage when we were afraid; united us when we were divided.

In the principles of freedom and justice which our flag symbolizes lie our strength and our hope for the future.

For our own sake, and for the welfare of those who follow us, we should make sure that these principles do not perish in our time.

Love, honor, and respect your American Flag: it is the greatest and most comforting symbol you will ever have in your lifetime.

A BIT OF HUMOR

The 1971 issue of the Farm and Home Almanac was a popular number, especially the article which featured newspaper headlines "inverted by misplaced words or an omitted letter in a word, resulting in comic interpretations. Readers asked for more and after a little research and with special thanks to Simon and Schuster's Treasury of Laughter (Edited by Louis Untermeyer back in 1946) we are pleased to offer a few more bunglers and howlers, twisted words, faulty punctuation, and mixed metaphors which have become comic classics:

"Most people know the position assumed by the present recumbent. But where will he stand when he takes his seat?"

"It is with real regret that we learn of Mr. Wayne's recovery from an automobile accident."

"At the Ladies' Aid Society Meeting many interesting articles were raffled off. Every member had brought something they no longer needed. Many members brought their husbands."

"Frank Cope is at the Massachusetts General Hospital. He is suffering from head injuries and shock caused by coming into contact with a live wife."

BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL JUNE 17, 1775

When George Washington was told that there had been a battle at Bunker Hill he asked: "Did the militia fight?" On being told that they fought he remarked: "Then the liberties of the country are safe." By that one sentence Washington showed that he realized the importance of the Battle of Bunker Hill, the first real battle of the American Revolution. This famous battle was fought on June 17, 1775, before Washington took command of the Army.

The colonial forces had been holding the British at bay in Boston, and heard that the enemy was planning to occupy some of the hills about the city. On the night of June 16, Colonel Prescott and his men started out to prevent this by occupying Bunker Hill, but they changed their plans and fortified Breed's Hill instead. On the morning of June 17, the British were amazed to see trenches crowning the hill. The vessels in the harbor immediately began bombarding the fortification, and later in the day the British troops attacked it. Twice they advanced to the attack. All was silent as they marched up the hill, for General Putnam had given the command: "Don't fire until you see the whites of their eyes!" When they were within a few yards of the fortifications, a sheet of flame swept down the hill. The men in the front ranks were mowed down and the others beat a hasty retreat. A third time the British charged. This time nothing happened for the powder of the colonial forces was exhausted. The patriots fought with clubbed muskets, but were forced to retreat to Bunker Hill, leaving the battlefield in the hands of the British.

It was a victory which was dearly bought, however, for the British had lost 226 men killed and 828 wounded, while the loss of the Americans had been 145 killed and 304 wounded. Nathaniel Greene said, "I wish we could sell them another hill at the same price." Today a granite shaft 221 feet high stands near the spot where the gallant General Warren fell just as the retreat began. The cornerstone of this "Bunker Hill monument" was laid by Lafayette in 1825, the 50th anniversary of the battle. The monument was dedicated in 1843, with an oration by Daniel Webster.

NEW APPOINTMENT

Mayor White appoints Robert Young as manager of Mattapan/Franklin Field Little City Halls.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on June 1, appointed Robert Young as manager of the Mattapan/Franklin Field Little City Halls.

Prior to his appointment, Mr. Young had served as the director of the Community Organization Department of Lena Park Community Development Corporation in Dorchester. Active in police-community relations, Mr. Young, a former vice-chairman of the District Three Advisory Council, still serves as a member.

Manager Young has worked as a special assistant at Boston State Hospital. He has also worked as a consultant to Boston College and the Boston Public Schools, District III, during various phases of school desegregation. He was actively involved in parent training and community outreach, working closely with the city administration.

Said Mayor White, "Bob's efforts and commitment to the neighborhood significantly affected the city's efforts during this period. Over the years that I have known him, Young's experience and initiatives in the neighborhood have impressed me."

Mr. Young, thirty-two, holds an education and management degree from Boston State College and is now working on a master's degree in management from Boston State.

A lifelong resident of Boston, Mr. Young said, "I look forward to working for the City of Boston in the neighborhoods. Working together, the city and the neighborhoods of Mattapan and Franklin Field can improve the delivery of services and bolster the residents' confidence."

The new manager lives on Selden Street in Mattapan with his wife, Gwendolyn.

WHAT AM I BID?

A public auction of unclaimed and damaged merchandise will be conducted by the Boston Post Office on Thursday, June 15, 1978, at 9 a.m., South Postal Annex, 45 Dorchester Avenue, Boston. Postmaster Philip L. Sullivan has announced.

Items for sale will include books, appliances, jewelry, tools, clothing, household accessories, and numerous other items. This merchandise may be inspected the day before the sale, Wednesday, June 14, 1978, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sales on auction day will be by lot number only, and no examination of merchandise will be permitted.

All articles will be sold on an "as is" basis and no refunds will be made. Payment must be made in cash, and merchandise must be removed either during the sale or immediately after the sale.

The Postmaster advises customers mailing packages to use fiberboard containers strong enough to withstand the weight of the contents, and to cushion the contents to make sure they do not move in transit. Package closures should be reinforced with a pressure-sensitive, filament tape, and a return address should be enclosed in the parcel, in accordance with the Postal Service's new packaging recommendations.

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM STARTS TRAINING PROGRAM

The Children's Museum's annual series of training workshops for staff of summer camps and programs begins June 27.

The workshops offer a wide range of activities for leaders of programs for six to fourteen-year-old children. Particular attention will be given to inexperienced staff members.

Workshop topics include wind machines, multicultural games, Japanese and Chinese arts and crafts, quickies for rainy days, and the natural environment. All the workshops provide participants with guidelines for setting up and conducting the activities, and all the activities use inexpensive materials that are easily obtained.

Each workshop costs $5; all six workshops, $25. To register or for more information, call the Children's Museum at (1)522-4800, extension 49.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Care Center Equipment

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On August 9, 1977, your Honor approved a permission to award contracts to several companies for furnishing Ambulatory Care Center equipment. The total amount of contract for one of the companies, American Sterilizer Company, was $11,125.52.

Since that time, the City Hospital has recommended that Item XII-1 be awarded to this company. Permission is requested to amend my letter of August 5, 1977, approved by your Honor on August 9, 1977, to include the award of Item XII-1 to American Sterilizer Company by changing the approximate total amount of contract to read $40,795.52, net 30.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Film Processor

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On February 13, 1978, your Honor approved a letter to award contracts to several companies for furnishing film processor to the Public Facilities Department as a result of publicly opened and read bids of January 9, 1978.

The amount of the contract for United X Ray Corp. of Mass., inadvertently read $218,985. Permission is requested to amend the original letter dated February 2, 1978, to have the amount of the contract for this company read $437,970, less 2 percent discount time of payment which is the correct amount.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

AUDITING DEPARTMENT

Auditing Services

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to amend contract No. 9093 to Paul J. Gerry, C.P.A., P.C. Professional Corporation, with offices at 1162A Blue Hill Avenue, Dorchester, Mass., from an amount not to exceed $5,000, to an amount not to exceed $55,000. Payment for this amendment shall be made from Community Development Block Grant.

Under the terms of the original contract Mr. Gerry was to consult with the personnel of the CDBG Accounting Department in establishing procedures to be followed in a reconciliation of CDBG records and Auditing Department records. In addition, he was to assist in the resolution of technical and financial questions arising during the course of the reconciliation.

Because of the time demands on the CDBG Internal Audit staff we have had neither the man-hours or expertise necessary to perform this reconciliation and, under the terms of this amendment, the actual reconciliation will be performed by Mr. Gerry and his staff. In addition, because of the audit and ever-increasing work load our accounting department has fallen behind and Mr. Gerry will provide consulting services to develop procedures to eliminate the back load and maintain the work load on a current basis.

In view of the specialized and professional nature of the services proposed and Mr. Gerry's knowledge in this area, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Hawes, Controller.

DEVELOPMENT AND CONSTRUCTION

Industrial Development Services

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your written authority to dispense with public bidding and amend a contract, in the amount of $41,000, and effective from June 1, 1977, to October 5, 1977, with the Community Development Corporation of Boston, Inc. for professional services.

Under the terms of the amended contract, the new contract amount will be $64,814, and the contract will be extended to December 16, 1977. All costs charged to this contract will be paid from Years II and III of the Community Development Block Grant.

The purpose of this amendment is to extend the contract to reimburse Community Development Corporation of Boston, Inc. for continuing their negotiations with Digital Equipment Corporation and other necessary activities as may be required for the industrial development of Parcels 1-5 in the South West Corridor Study Area.

In view of the unique nature of the tasks performed, the legal status of Community Development Corporation of Boston, Inc. to carry out these functions and the fact that a contract already exists between the city and Community Development Corporation of Boston, Inc. for similar functions, no useful purpose would be served by public advertising and bidding.

Sincerely,

Andrew M. Olins,
Special Assistant.

CETA Programs Evaluation

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with advertising for bids in the City Record and to amend a contract with Edward P. Feinman, 44 Icaloo Street, Somerville, Mass., for consultant services to the Research, Planning, and Evaluation Unit relating to Boston's CETA, Title I, II, and VI programs.

Under the terms of the amended contract, Mr. Feinman will be engaged from February 1, 1978, through April 30, 1978, in supervising staff and activities involved in evaluating the city's CETA programs; in addition he will be responsible for insuring that these evaluations impact EEPA policy and allocation decision-making. Funds for this contract will be provided from a federal government grant to the city under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contractor will be paid at a rate of $96 per diem, increasing the contract by $6,400 to a cost not to exceed $15,100. The contract will then be effective for the period, September 19, 1977, through April 30, 1978.

Owing to Mr. Feinman's exemplary performance in the design and implementation of the Research, Planning, and Evaluation Unit, the EEPA wishes to retain his services and expand his duties to insure that the unit performs as expected. The additional expenditure is a reasonable cost to insure this performance. Therefore, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,

Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

MIS Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting bids by advertising in the City Record, and to amend a contract with Key Entry, Inc., 11 Bullfinch Place, Boston, MA 02114. Approval of the contract amendment for $8,000 will raise the total contract to an amount not to exceed $15,500. There will be no change in the period of the contract. This contract amendment is necessary in order to accommodate the increased keypunch demand that resulted from President Carter's economic stimulus package which increased the total number of Public Service enrollees. As a result the contractor's budget was exhausted prior to the end of the contract period. Under the terms of the amended contract, Key Entry will continue to operate and maintain the CETA Public Service Employment management information system. The period of performance will be April 15, 1977, through April 14, 1978. Funds for the contract will be provided through a federal government grant to the City of Boston under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203.

Because of the extreme importance of a properly maintained management information system and the experience of the contractor, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,

Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Employment Services, etc.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record and amend a contract with Opportunities Industrialization Center, Inc., 184 Dudley Street, Roxbury, Mass., for economically disadvantaged Boston residents by increasing the contract amount from $850,000 to $851,000. Funds for this contract will be provided from a federal government grant to the City of Boston through the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L.203. The effective dates of operation of this contract were October 1, 1976, through September 30, 1977, and will be extended by this amendment through March 31, 1978.

Under the terms of the proposed amendments, OIC will offer additional services to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration in the employment and training field.

Due to the proven success of this agency in the operation of employment programs, the reasonable cost for the service to be provided, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Project Report Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with formal advertising procedures and to approve an amendment to a contract with Paula M. Vosburgh, 363 Corey Street, West Roxbury, MA 02132. Approval of the amendment for $1,400 will raise the contract amount to an amount not to exceed $10,200. The period of performance will be extended one month and will make the new effective dates of the contract from June 13, 1977, through January 31, 1978.

Under the terms of the proposed amendment, Ms. Vosburgh will prepare a final report on the WIN-CETA Demonstration Project, as required by the Department of Labor. The WIN-CETA grant will be extended through January 31, 1978, to cover Ms. Vosburgh's salary.

Under these circumstances, it is my opinion that no purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Planning Services, etc.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with formal advertising procedures and to approve an amendment to a contract with Paula M. Vosburgh, 363 Corey Street, West Roxbury, MA 02132. Approval of the amendment for $1,500 will raise the contract amount to an amount not to exceed $11,700. The original effective dates of the contract were from June 13, 1977, through January 31, 1978. The proposed amendment will extend the period of performance through February 28, 1978.

Under the terms of this amendment, Ms. Vosburgh will work as a planner and develop proposals to be submitted to the Department of Labor by March 1, 1978. She will also assist other members of the staff as needed. The full cost of Ms. Vosburgh's salary is to be provided through a federal grant to the City of Boston made under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973 (P.L. 93-203). No City of Boston funds will be involved.

Due to Ms. Vosburgh's extensive experience in manpower planning, her knowledge of the Boston Prime Sponsor's delivery system, and the reasonable cost of her services, it is my opinion that no purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT

Personnel Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend without advertising, the city's contract with Medical Personnel Pool, 73 Tremont Street, Suite 720, Boston, Mass., and Bergall Corporation, d/b/a Staff Builders Medical Services, 18 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass., under which said corporations have agreed to furnish skilled nurses for the Boston City Hospital, whenever an emergency situation, created by a shortage of nursing personnel, necessitates such supplementation of the Boston City Hospital's regular nursing staff, for the period August 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $100,000.

This amendment shall substitute Medox, Inc., 636 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., and Health-Way Medical Bureau, 520 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Mass., for the aforementioned corporations when it is indicated according to and consistent with Article IV of the agreement which provides that:

"All services shall be of the best professional quality and to the satisfaction of the official and the city shall have the right to solicit these services from other sources in the event that the contractor cannot provide these services as required," and at an additional cost to the city not to exceed $10,000 and in accordance with the following rates:

Medox, Inc.—Floor Duty: Monday — Friday, 7 to 3, $68.80; 3 to 11, $75; 11 to 7, $75; Saturday and Sunday, 7 to 3, $82; 3 to 11, $85.20; 11 to 7, $85.20; Holidays, time and one-half.

Intensive Care: Monday — Friday, 7 to 3, $72; 3 to 11, $78.40; 11 to 7, $78.40; Saturday and Sunday, 7 to 3, $85.20; 3 to 11, $88.40; 11 to 7, $88.40; Holidays, time and one-half.

Private Duty: $74, all shifts.

Health-Way Medical Bureau — Staff Position: Sunday — Saturday, 7 to 3, $73; 3 to 11, $73; 11 to 7, $73; Holidays, time and one-half.

Charge or ICU Position: Sunday — Saturday, 7 to 3, $79; 3 to 11, 79; 11 to 7, $79; Holidays, time and one-half.

Inasmuch as it is more probable than not that these additional services must be provided and because the two, last-mentioned corporations have expressed their willingness to provide these services under the terms of the agreement, and the cost to the city, in my opinion, is reasonable, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award this amendment at the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend without advertising, the city's contract with Medical Personnel Pool, 73 Tremont Street, Suite 720, Boston, Mass., and Bergall Corporation, d/b/a Staff Builders Medical Services, 18 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass., under which said corporations have agreed to furnish skilled nurses for the Boston City Hospital, whenever an emergency situation, created by a shortage of nursing personnel, necessitates such supplementation of the Boston City Hospital's regular nursing staff, for the period August 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $100,000.

This proposed amendment increases the total contract sum by $47,000, and is occasioned by the unexpected demand for the requested services which, notwithstanding our original estimates, continues to grow rather than decrease.

This amendment shall further correct a clerical omission by adding to the basic fee schedules the fees for overtime, holiday work, and work on special care units in the following manner:

Medical Personnel Pool—General Ward Coverage: Monday — Friday, $75.20 per day, R.N.; Saturday and Sunday, $77.52 per day, R.N.; Holidays and Overtime, $116.28 per day, R.N.

Critical Care Areas: Monday — Friday, $82.80 per day, R.N.; Saturday and Sunday, $85.12 per day, R.N.; Holidays and Overtime, $127.69 per day, R.N.

Staff Builders Medical Services — Monday — Friday, 7 to 3, $66; 3 to 11, $66; 11 to 7, $72 per day; Saturday and Sunday, 7 to 3, $72; 3 to 11, $72; 11 to 7, $72 per day; Holidays, 7 to 3, $72; 3 to 11, $72; 11 to 7, $72 per day, Overtime, over forty hours per week is time and one-half. No difference between General Ward Coverage and Critical Care and Critical Care.

The total cost to the city for this amendment shall be a sum not to exceed $47,000, and will result in increasing the total amount of this contract, as amended to a sum not to exceed $147,000.

In view of the above and because the cost to the city is reasonable, your Honor's permission is respectfully requested to amend this contract, without advertising, under the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

EXTRAORDINARY STEP-RATE ADVANCE
UNDER COMPENSATION PLAN FOR EM-PLOYEES OF SUFFOLK COUNTY.

DISTRICT COURT OF CHELSEA

Mr. John E. Murphy, Jr.,
Supervisor of Personnel.

Dear Mr. Murphy:

On December 24, 1975, I appointed Francis D'Ippolito, 189 Webster Street, East Boston, Mass., chief court officer, Grade R-18. Prior to his appointment he had been, for more than two years, a probation officer in this court and before that he worked extensively as a private investigator in criminal matters attached to the office of Matthew McGrath, Esquire, of Boston. Mr. D'Ippolito is twenty-nine years old and during the time that he has performed the duties of chief court officer he has demonstrated a keen awareness of things about him and the court and has evidenced an unusual grasp and understanding of criminal procedure. His youth and excellent physical condition have combined to give him excellent coordination of his senses and immediate physical reaction to incidents that have and might occur in connection with unruly or disruptive persons who often find themselves in a courtroom.

In view of his prior experience and demonstrated ability in the position of chief court officer it is respectfully requested that his third, fourth, fifth, and sixth-year increments be determined under Rule 15F of the County Compensation Plan.

Very truly yours,

Salvatore E. Aloisi,
Justice.

New Location for "Where's Boston"

MBTA Pass Saves $1.50 a Couple at Where's Boston.

"Where's Boston" is offering a one-third discount, to the more than 26,000 MBTA pass holders. The offer began June 6.

The phenomenally popular multimedia show about Boston, past and present, has recently moved next door to Faneuil Hall at the plaza level of the new 60 State Street building.

The new location is close to three major MBTA stations: State Street (Orange and Blue Lines), Government Center (Green and Blue Lines), and Haymarket (Green and Orange Lines).

The Where's Boston price for MBTA pass holders will be $3 a couple instead of the usual $4.50 for two ($2.25 single ticket). The $1.50 a couple savings is available to MBTA pass holders who show a valid pass on admission. A single ticket for pass holders is $1.50.

The special promotion was formally announced June 6 at a 5:30 p.m. private viewing of the fifty-minute show for administrators of the Pass Program from the 650 employers now participating in the Pass Program. Following the show a reception was held by Where's Boston in the Great Dome of the Quincy Market.

The MBTA pass, which offers savings for regular commuters, also earns a discount on admission to the New England Aquarium, the Institute for Contemporary Art, and the John Hancock Observatory.

Peter Chermayeff, executive producer for Where's Boston commented, "The T will be a great factor in the success of our show. All lines lead to Where's Boston and we expect thousands of residents and tourists alike to come to our exhibit via mass transit."

Cathy Kelly, marketing director for Where's Boston, added: "We are pleased to participate in the pass holders program. The discount we are offering to pass holders is better than any of our other discounts since we not only want to get people to see Where's Boston, but also to support the T's pass holder concept."

The Pass Program has grown to more than 26,000 committed public transit users from at least 155 cities and towns, including all seventy-nine communities in the MBTA district.

Ernest S. Deeb, MBTA pass program manager, explained the pass gives unlimited riding each month on public transit within the MBTA fare structure of the individual's regular commuting route. Although there are twenty to twenty-three business days in each month, the cost of the pass is based on only eighteen round trips. The Pass Program is organized through employers, who collect the cost from employees and then forward a check each month to the MBTA.

MBTA Chairman Robert R. Kiley noted, "The pass was a significant reason that our weekday riding in 1977 was up by 3.7 percent, and we are delighted to offer pass holders this additional benefit."

Where's Boston, already seen by one million people since its opening in June, 1975, has reopened at 60 State Street, fronting on historic Faneuil Hall and adjacent to the Quincy Market. The exhibition is housed in a permanent 200-seat theater, instead of in the inflated pavilion at the Prudential Center.

The show is a multi-image, quadraphonic portrait of America's most understated city. Thirty-two still projectors hurl 3,100 images at eight large screens. The fifty-minute presentation speaks of Boston today, aiming to capture the diverse character, traditions, and attitudes that make a city a fascinating experience. It explores the Hub from the North End to South Boston and looks at the remarkable people of all races and nationalities that compose this unique city.

The voices of the show are the voices of Bostonians. They include the distinguished poet, David McCord, describing what he personally sees in this "wise old village"; Julia Child discussing a nineteenth-century recipe for baked beans; along with the anonymous voices of kids playing in the parks, hockey fans screaming in Boston Garden, Bostonians from every walk of life arguing about politics, complaining about the weather, and gossiping about "the neighborhood."

The lobby of the theater includes an exhibit of thirty-six artifacts, communicating the diverse character of Bostonians through tools, creations, and inventions; twenty-two photomurals of local people and places; and four window displays of Boston localisms.

Where's Boston is on the Freedom Trail. It is presented daily every hour from 10 a.m. through the last show at 10 p.m.

Cambridge Seven Associates, Inc. of Cambridge, Mass., is the producer, owner, and operator of the show.

BOSTON'S LANDMARKS

ADAMS NERVINE ASYLUM

990 Centre Street, Jamaica Plain

The designation category of Landmark was given on May 10, 1977, to Adams Nervine Asylum.

Adams Nervine Asylum is in the process of sale.

Located adjacent to Arnold Arboretum, the Adams Nervine Asylum is the last remaining country estate within the boundaries of the City of Boston still in its original setting. Its three major and four minor, wood-framed structures are excellent examples of late nineteenth century, architectural styles; additionally, the asylum was the location of nineteenth century efforts in humane treatment of minor psychiatric illnesses.

Seth Adams, a wealthy manufacturer and sugar refiner, bequeathed $600,000 to establish a trust for treating indigent, non-insane patients with nervous conditions. In 1879, the trust purchased the Weld estate on Centre Street, plus the adjoining Lewis and Glover properties. The buildings erected on this land were used in the "moral treatment" advocated for minor disorders by Philadelphia psychiatrist Thomas Kirkbride. This system made the houses a hostel for temporary removal of the patients from daily life.

The architecture of the buildings of the asylum reflects the characteristic picturesque Victorian styles. The Weld House, oldest on the land (1875), was designed in the French Mansard or Second Empire style, with a five-story tower.

The sprawling Adams House (1880) is a two-story, irregularly massed, Queen Anne style structure. Porches, verandas, roof dormers, and other projections add to the ornate design of the house.

The Director's House (1895), the last major structure, is a two-story house exhibiting symmetry and proportions of the Colonial Revival style.

Other buildings on the landscaped asylum plot are a greenhouse, a boiler and laundry, a nurses' cottage, and a carriage house for the Weld Estate.

MULTIMILLION GRANT FOR YOUTHS JOBS

EEPA's Atkins says Fair Share raises "false hopes" by promising youths jobs in Project YES.

Charles M. Atkins, head of Boston's Employment and Economic Policy Administration, said recently, Boston's Project YES youth jobs program is "as comprehensive as the city could possibly make it" under the terms of a $23-million grant from the United States Department of Labor.

Mr. Atkins said that of the 5,000 to 6,000 youths that can be hired under the grant, 2,000 have their work assignments, 2,000 more are being processed, and 1,000 to 2,000 youths are still to be hired.

Under the program, youths are being hired from more than a dozen neighborhoods, areas in which youth unemployment is highest, including school Districts 4, 5, 6, and 7 (Hyde Park, Mattapan, sections of Roxbury and Dorchester, Charlestown, South Boston, North End, Columbia Point, Back Bay, Beacon Hill, and Chinatown).

Mr. Atkins said that Fair Share had "falsely recruited" a number of youths who did not live in those areas for a rally and that Fair Share representatives "had misrepresented themselves by giving the impression they could help these kids get jobs."

"Fair Share has exploited these kids in trying to get across one simple point — that every neighborhood should have been part of the grant proposal," he said. "They have merely confused the public and caused a lot of unnecessary friction."

"Unfortunately, including every neighborhood is not possible. The administration would love to be in the position of being able to hire every youth who wanted to work, but we cannot possibly fulfill that ideal."

He said, however, that the $23-million grant, which provides part-time jobs during the school year for youths who agree to stay in school, and full-time jobs during the summer, "will go a long way toward reducing youth unemployment in Boston — but it will not stretch all the way. It would be naive to think otherwise."

Boston received the $23-million grant from the United States Department of Labor in mid-January. It was one of only five cities nationwide selected for the pilot, youth jobs program, largely on the strength of its application, which was prepared by EEPA and Mayor White's Office of Federal Relations.

To the extent possible, individual work programs have been developed for many youths in the year-long program. Youths, ages sixteen to nineteen living in the designated areas are eligible for employment.

MAYOR SEES JARVIS AMENDMENT AS WARNING FROM TAXPAYERS

Mayor Kevin H. White, on June 7, characterized the passage of the so-called "Jarvis Amendment" referendum in California as "indicative of the unrest and frustration felt by taxpayers nationwide."

Mayor White said, "But the solution to the ever-increasing tax burden is not gutting important programs by reducing the revenue for cities and towns as the Jarvis Amendment will in California."

Mayor White, chairman of the Massachusetts Mayors' Association's Statewide Committee on Classification, a coalition formed to stave off the crippling effects of 100 percent valuation, related the California taxpayer revolt to Massachusetts' current property tax situation.

"Massachusetts has faced the same frustration as California in that the state Legislature has failed year after year to enact property tax relief while approving spending increases which exceed inflation. We are in a slightly different situation in Massachusetts because we rely on the property tax more heavily than any other state in the nation."

Mayor White added, "We have not yet reached the impasse that California has. We are at the crossroads now. Two critical steps must be taken if we are to avoid the Jarvis-type amendment in Massachusetts. First the voters must pass the classification amendment on this November's ballot which will hold the line on property taxes and stop 100 percent valuation. Second, there must be a unified effort by the taxpayers, elected officials, and the business community to lobby the Legislature for meaningful property tax relief to solve the problems caused by our heavy reliance on the property tax."

MODERNIZATION PLANNED FOR BCH

The Boston City Council has approved Boston City Hospital's $12-million, loan application to completely renovate and modernize the forty-four-year-old Dowling Surgical Building and the Emergency Floor area, according to Boston Health and Hospitals (DHH) Commissioner David L. Rosenbloom.

The Council's approval came one day after the state Public Health Council gave its approval to BCH's Certificate of Need (DON) request, submitted last January. Federal approval is expected in September with actual construction beginning as early as next February.

According to Commissioner Rosenbloom, plans call for the renovation of Dowling's 178, surgical beds and eight, intensive care beds on three floors, the operating rooms, and the emergency floor and offices.

"We propose to renovate floors one through five to create an attractive, code-complying, bed complement of 200, to create a 12-bed surgical intensive care unit on the sixth floor, and to totally renovate the emergency floor," he said.

"We will also construct connectors to the Ambulatory Care Center and improve the building's exterior and electrical and mechanical systems throughout the Dowling Building.

Mr. Rosenbloom said the hospital is planning some expansion of its trauma and cardiac capability in Emergency Services, reflecting the hospital's intent to expand the department's ambulance system by establishing paramedic teams and installing telemetry.

He said the total cost of the modernization is roughly $14 million and the federal government has provided additional funds.

RED CROSS NEEDS BLOOD: CAN YOU HELP?

Every seventeen seconds, someone needs blood. It has been estimated that 60 percent of our country's population will need a transfusion at some point in their lives.

At the Red Cross, they have a commitment to the patients in the over 200 Maine and Massachusetts hospitals they serve — a commitment to provide blood to anyone who needs it. During the summer, that commitment can get pretty hard to meet. Unlike other times of the year, summer presents such problems as fewer donors, interrupted bloodmobile schedules, and increased accidents. Thus, Red Cross blood services is faced with the dilemma of meeting increased patient needs while coping with decreased blood donations. In an attempt to offset these circumstances and avert summer shortages, they plead for blood donations as soon as possible. The Red Cross would be ever grateful for any donation.

NEW ARENA FOR HUB?

BRA's Walsh tells Legislative Committee "All of New England" needs new arena.

Boston Redevelopment Authority Director Robert Walsh, on June 2, at a State House hearing, told a legislative committee that a proposed 18,000-seat arena "would benefit not only the City of Boston, but the state and New England region as well."

Mr. Walsh told members of the Committee on State Administration that the Boston Garden is an antiquated facility and that the region must have a new facility for its professional sports teams.

He reminded legislators that the proposed facility already has commitments from the Boston Bruins and Celtics, and the Boston Lobsters.

The proposed facility would cost an estimated $35 million and have a seating capacity of 18,000. The proposed legislation would replace the Boston Garden by creating a new Boston Garden Authority to acquire land for, construct, operate, and maintain a new arena.

Director Walsh told legislators that the region's economy stands to benefit from construction of a new arena and that the facility "would in no way be a financial burden on taxpayers." The state would receive more than $1 million from sales and meals concessions, and the arena would make payments of $450,000 to $750,000 annually to the city in lieu of taxes.

BOSTON'S LANDMARKS

Brook Farm

670 Baker Street, West Roxbury

The designation category of Landmark was given on October 25, 1977, to Brook Farm.

A 185-acre plot of highlands, wetlands, and cemetery, Brook Farm is the site of one of the most famous early nineteenth century utopian communities.

In 1841, George Ripley, a Unitarian minister turned Transcendentalist, organized a corporation to purchase and establish a "community of property" for the betterment of its members, with agriculture and education as its principal operations. The Brook Farm School, which eschewed needless discipline for a less structured mode of education, had many famous students.

In 1844, the farm became one of the centers of the theories of French social critic Charles Fourier. Fears of socialism among parents caused them to remove many students from the Brook Farm School, but the major blow that precipitated the end of the farm was a fire that destroyed a nearly completed Phalanstery building in 1846, a project that cost the farm nearly all its capital. The land was sold at auction to the Town of Roxbury in 1849. The farm was used during the Civil War as a military training field for the Second Massachusetts Infantry, which dubbed the land "Camp Andrew." A storage vault for arms still exists in a hillside.

In 1870, German immigrant Gottlieb F. Burkhardt purchased the farm and established the Association of the Evangelical Lutheran Church for Works of Mercy, an organization that laid out Gethsemane Cemetery, and used several buildings of Brook Farm for the Martin Luther Orphans Home that operated from 1871 to 1974.

The only buildings dating back to the original Brook Farm still on the property are a print shop and the Margaret Fuller Cottage, a private residence. The Metropolitan District Commission, authorized to acquire the land (except for 30 cemetery acres) by state law, is negotiating for purchase of the property.

Brook Farm is listed on the National Register of Historic Places as a National Historic Landmark, an action that took effect October 15, 1966. It is presently owned by the Association of the Evangelical Lutheran Church for Works of Mercy.

MAYOR RESUBMITS REQUEST FOR FEDERAL FUNDING FOR BLUE HILL AVENUE

Mayor Kevin H. White announced June 6, that the city has resubmitted its application for $7.6 million to the Department of Housing and Urban Development for funds to revitalize Blue Hill Avenue.

The Mayor said the revised proposal, which now features increased commitment from the private sector and greater involvement of the Blue Hill Avenue Commission, "stands an excellent chance of bringing in vital funds for Blue Hill Avenue, possibly by the end of this month."

The city's original Boston Plan application for Urban Development Action Grant funds for Blue Hill Avenue was rejected by HUD in early April.

The administration has since obtained $6 million in loan commitments from Boston banks for commercial development in the Blue Hill Avenue corridor.

John Drew, head of the Office of Federal Relations, said the increased commitment from banks, as well as support from merchants and citizens association, other banks, and major corporations with holdings in the area, "should satisfy the objections that HUD raised with the initial application." The plan also proposes a new shopping mall for merchants in Grove Hall.

Mr. Drew said, "the increased involvement of the Blue Hill Avenue Commission, headed by cochairmen Patrick Jones and Rollins Ross, also increases the extent of community input and expertise in the revitalization" of Blue Hill Avenue and increases the likelihood of approval by HUD, which is expected to act on the proposal by June 30.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

May 24.

General Order No. 32 BOARD OF MERIT

The Board of Merit, consisting of the chief of department and the deputy fire chiefs, has considered all meritorious acts referred to it for the year 1977. After careful consideration and study, the Board submitted the following recommendations which are hereby approved by the Fire Commissioner.

1. Cases of Fire Fighter Thomas Whalen, Fire Prevention Division; Fire Fighter John J. Harrison, Engine Company 21; Fire Fighter Thomas F. Myers, Engine Company 21.

At 1440 hours, January 7, 1977, Engine Company 21 responded to Box 1823 for a fire at 34 Edison Green Street, Dorchester. On arrival heavy fire was showing on the second floor, and they were informed children trapped in the attic.

Fire Fighter Thomas Whalen, of the Arson Squad, was at the scene, and he went to the third floor by the front stairs and found one of the boys in the hallway whom he removed to the street.

Fire Fighters John J. Harrison and Thomas F. Myers of Engine Company 21 entered the building from the rear and were carrying a line up the rear stairs when they learned about the children. They had to back down the stairs because of the heavy smoke and rapidly spreading fire. They then went to the front of the house to the third floor and started the search. Fire Fighter Harrison removed his air mask to listen for cries. He heard a moan, traced it, and found a child whom he passed to Fire Fighter Myers. He continued into another room and found a second child. They carried the unconscious children to the street.

These rescues were performed without masks and under very difficult conditions caused by limited fire fighting operations due to the severe weather and traffic conditions.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend these members in General Order 5 of 1977 for these rescues which were performed under great personal risk.

The Board recommends that the names of Fire Fighter Thomas Whalen, Fire Prevention; Fire Fighter John J. Harrison, Engine Company 21; Fire Fighter Thomas F. Myers, Engine Company 21, be placed on the Roll of Merit.

2. Case of Fire Fighter Paul R. Moore, Ladder Company 30.

Ladder Company 30 responded to Box 2386 for a fire at 154 Heath Street, Roxbury, on February 17, 1977. Upon arrival heavy smoke was showing from the second floor, and they were informed a child was trapped in the building. Lines operating in the building could not penetrate the room where the child was trapped.

Fire Fighter Paul R. Moore, of Ladder Company 30, went over a ladder, entered the building, searched the room on his hands and knees, and finally located the child whom he passed through a window to a fire fighter who removed the child to the street. He returned for further search, and finding no one, he returned to the ladder, and while descending the ladder the room fully ignited.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend him in General Orders 13 of 1977, for this rescue was performed at extreme personal risk.

The Board recommends that the name of Fire Fighter Paul R. Moore, of Ladder Company 30, be placed on the Roll of Merit.

3. Case of Fire Fighter James W. Ranahan, Ladder Company 14.

Ladder Company 14 responded to Box 5282 for a fire at 12-14 Portsmouth Street, Brighton at 0400 hours, February 14, 1977. Upon arriving they were notified two people were at a window on the third floor and ready to jump.

Ladder Company 14 immediately raised a ladder to the window. Fire Fighters James W. Ranahan and Leo G. Bowen of Ladder Company 14 quickly climbed the ladder and assisted both persons to safety. They were then told another person was in the building.

Fire Fighter Ranahan entered the window despite the heavy smoke and fire, and without breathing equipment, he conducted an exhausting search. He located an unconscious man and managed to carry him to the window where other fire fighters removed him to safety.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend him to General Order 13 of 1977, for this rescue made under such hazardous conditions and requiring so much effort that he collapsed at the window and was taken to the hospital.

The Board recommends that Fire Fighter James W. Ranahan, of Ladder Company 14, be awarded the Patrick J. Kennedy Medal.

4. Case of Fire Fighter Peter F. Nee, Ladder Company 20.

District 6 arrived at Box 7217 on February 28, 1977, to find the first and second floors of a three-family, duplex house at 157-159 West Sixth Street, South Boston, fully involved in fire. They were informed a woman and child were trapped on the second floor.

Fire Fighter Peter F. Nee of Ladder Company 20 (detailed to District 6) immediately entered the building to look for them. He found the woman screaming and disoriented from the heat and smoke. As he was about to remove her to safety she told him where the child was. Taking the woman with him to prevent losing her, he found the child and attempted to evacuate via the rear fire escape, but it was blocked by fire. He retraced his way back through the intense heat and smoke and brought them to safety.

This rescue was performed under extremely hazardous conditions and without the aid of breathing apparatus, and before the arrival of apparatus.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend him in General Order 15 of 1977, for this rescue which saved the mother and child. His swift and efficient performance reflected great credit on the department.

The Board recommends that the name of Fire Fighter Peter F. Nee, of Ladder Company 20, be placed on the Roll of Merit.

5. Case of Fire Fighter Robert T. Kilduff, Ladder Company 29.

Ladder Company 29 responded to Box 3364 on March 26, 1977, for a fire at 124 Glenway Street, Dorchester. On arrival heavy smoke was issuing from the third floor.

Fire Fighter Robert T. Kilduff, of Ladder Company 29, made his way up the stairs to the third floor through the heat, heavy smoke, and toxic gases before fire fighting operations had begun. He crawled through a long hallway and found an unconscious man in an adjoining room and dragged him back to the front of the building, where he was removed to the outside, where his breathing was restored, and he was removed to the hospital.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend him in General Order 17, 1977, for duty under adverse conditions and at extreme personal risk. He undoubtedly saved the man's life.

The Board recommends that the name of Fire Fighter Robert T. Kilduff, of Ladder Company 29, be placed on the Roll of Merit.

6. Case of Fire Fighter Daniel C. Patterson, Engine Company 11.

On May 21, 1977, at 2041 hours, Fire Fighter Daniel C. Patterson, of Engine Company 11, while driving home on the Southeast Expressway, came upon the scene of a serious motor vehicle accident.

He stopped and discovered four people trapped inside an overturned vehicle which was teetering at the edge of a 30-foot drop off the side of the X-way. He entered the overturned car and removed three of the victims whom he passed to an off-duty police officer. With the arrival of Engine 43, he assisted in removing one victim who was pinned inside.

The Fire Commissioner highly commended him in General Order 29 of 1977, for this rescue which was made at great personal risk, while off duty, before the arrival of apparatus, in the high speed lane of the Expressway and with the danger of the vehicle falling.

The Board of Merit recommends that the name of Fire Fighter Daniel C. Patterson, of Engine Company 11, be placed on the Roll of Merit.

7. Case of Fire Fighter James B. Stack, Engine Company 20.

At 1700 hours, May 25, 1977, Engine Company 20 responded to the rear of 775 Gallivan Boulevard and were notified a boy had fallen into the water. They were shown the approximate location where the victim went under.

Fire Fighter James B. Stack, of Engine Company 20, began an immediate search for the boy. He dove repeatedly beneath the surface of the muddy water, unmindful of branches, debris, limited vision, and various depths. Through his persistent efforts, the boy's body was found.

The Fire Commissioner highly commended him in General Order 29, 1977, for this recovery which was made at great personal risk. Although he did not save the boy, he saved the family many hours of anguish and false hope.

The Board recommends that the name of Fire Fighter James B. Stack, of Engine Company 20, be placed on the Roll of Merit.

8. Case of Fire Fighter Robert F. Mackey, Rescue Company 1.

On June 17, 1977, the department responded to 115 Chauncy Street, Boston, on report of a person threatening to jump. On arrival, a woman was observed on the fourth-floor ledge, 50 feet above the ground. A life net was set up immediately and members of the Rescue Company went to her assistance.

Fire Fighter Robert F. Mackey, of Rescue Company 1, entered the room adjacent to the one where the woman was standing, as her door was locked. He climbed onto a narrow ledge only 12-inches wide, observed she had covered her face with her hands and rapidly made his way 25 feet to a position where he could place his arms around her waist and carried her another 15 feet to an open window where other members assisted them into the room.

The Fire Commissioner highly commended him to General Order 33, 1977, for this outstanding rescue which was made at great personal risk.

The Board recommends that Fire Fighter Robert F. Mackey, of Rescue Company 1, be awarded the Walter Scott Medal for Valor.

9. Case of Fire Fighter Paul H. King, Engine Company 12.

The department responded to an alarm at 1641 hours, June 26, 1977, to the Garvey Playground, Dorchester, for a person struck by lightning. On arrival, Fire Fighter Paul H. King, E.M.T., of Engine Company 12, was applying CPR to the victim, aided by a young lady. Fire Fighter James B. Stack, E.M.T., of Engine Company 20, relieved her until Ladder 27 started the Flynn ventilator. A-19 arrived and both fire fighters accompanied the victim applying CPR until relieved by personnel of the Carney Hospital.

Fire Fighter King acted very promptly and with professional skill to keep the victim alive. He was off duty at the time and put to good use the training he received as an emergency medical technician.

The Commissioner highly commended him in General Order 34, 1977, for saving the man's life.

The Board recommends that Fire Fighter Paul H. King, of Engine Company 12, be awarded the Distinguished Service Award.

10. Case of Fire Lieutenant James J. Famolare, Engine Company 22; Fire Fighter John D. Sheehan, Engine Company 26; Acting Fire Lieut. Dennis G. Callanan, Engine Company 37; Fire Fighter Patrick A. Munroe, Engine Company 22; Fire Fighter Robert F. Bowen, Aerial Tower 1.

The department responded to Box 1662 for a fire at 562 Massachusetts Avenue, on June 22, 1977, at 1733 hours. On arrival fire was showing in the basement, accompanied by heavy smoke, and fire involved the front room and hall.

While fire fighting operations were being put into effect, Fire Lieut. James J. Famolare, of Engine Company 22, and Fire Fighter John D. Sheehan, of Engine Company 26, heard a moan from an interior room and quickly sought out the source of the moan. They found an unconscious woman on the bedroom floor and carried her outside. They shouted to other members that another person could be in the rear.

Acting Fire Lieut. Dennis G. Callanan, of Engine Company 37 (detailed to Ladder Company 13), Fire Fighter Patrick A. Munroe, of Engine Company 22, and Fire Fighter Robert F. Bowen, of Aerial Tower 1, searched a rear room and found an unconscious man and brought him to the street where both victims were removed to the Boston City Hospital.

The Fire Commissioner highly commended these five members for rescuing the victims at great personal risk.

The Board recommends that the names of Fire Lieut. James J. Famolare, Engine Company 22, Fire Fighter John D. Sheehan, Engine Company 26, Acting Fire Lieut. Dennis G. Callanan, Engine Company 37, Fire Fighter Patrick A. Munroe, Engine Company 22, Fire

Fighter Robert F. Bowen, Aerial Tower 1 be placed on the Roll of Merit.

11. Case of Lieut. William W. Hayhurst, Headquarters.

At 2312 hours, June 8, 1977, Box 2448 was struck for a fire at 17 Dixwell Street, Roxbury. Upon arrival of Ladder Company 30, fire was issuing from the third-floor front, and heavy smoke and intense heat had filled the apartment. Tenants were reported to be trapped inside. Ascending to the third-floor level with a member of his command, Lieut. Hayhurst ordered the man to remain at the head of the stairs to maintain watch until arrival of other department members while he searched the apartment.

Lieut. Hayhurst passed fire in his search and found a female tenant overcome by smoke on the floor at the end of the corridor. He removed her to the landing and there received help in taking her to the street where she was transported to the hospital.

The Fire Commissioner highly commended him in General Order 35 of 1977, for this rescue which was effected before ventilation had been accomplished, at great effort and at great personal risk.

The Board recommends that the name of Fire Lieut. William W. Hayhurst, of Headquarters, be placed on the Roll of Merit.

12. Case of Fire Fighter Robert T. Gorman, Engine Company 29.

At 0505 hours, December 2, 1977, Box 5332 (four alarms), District 11, Ladder Company 11, and Engine Company 29 had been dispatched to investigate a report of an odor of gas in the vicinity of Mt. Hood Road and Commonwealth Avenue.

Upon arrival, it was discovered that 592 gallons of gasoline had been discharged from a filling station pump and had run into the sewer system. Shortly after operations had commenced to flush the system and to continue the investigation in adjacent buildings, a series of explosions occurred down the street from the filling station. One of the explosions was in the basement of the building located at 1706 Commonwealth Avenue, where some of the basement windows had been blown out and heavy smoke was issuing from the windows. Occupants who had vacated the other apartments informed the district chief that a woman was trapped in the basement.

Fire Fighter (Aide to the District Fire Chief) Robert T. Gorman, of Engine Company 29, without hesitation or regard for his own safety, entered the basement area. Tracing her screams, Fire Fighter Gorman was successful in locating the woman. An unknown civilian outside the building assisted him in removing her from the basement apartment through the rear window. Shortly after he climbed out the window, the entire basement erupted into fire.

This rescue was made under extremely dangerous conditions due to the possibility of more explosions. Fire fighter Gorman made a search of the basement at extreme personal risk in a building heavily charged with smoke and heat before ventilation had been accomplished.

The Fire Commissioner highly commended him in General Order 62, 1977, for this rescue.

The Board recommends that Fire Fighter Robert T. Gorman, of Engine Company 29, be awarded the John E. Fitzgerald Medal for the Most Meritorious Act.

13. Case of Fire Lieutenant William Ahern, Fire Prevention; Fire Fighter Lawrence P. Kelley, Fire Prevention.

At 1300 hours on December 22, 1977, the K-4 Arson inspectors Lieut. William P. Ahern and Inspector Lawrence P. Kelley were on arson patrol in the Jackson Square area of Roxbury. While proceeding on Centre Street towards Columbus Avenue, they observed a person running out from between two buildings and involved in fire. These two men immediately chased the victim with the car and simultaneously called in a still alarm to the fire alarm office and also for an ambulance. They both jumped out of the car and with their outer garments wrapped the victim and tried to get him to the ground. This was done with great difficulty due to the fact that the victim had been sprayed with gasoline and kept reigniting. They finally managed to put out the flames and due to the seriousness of the burns to the victim, they immediately placed him in the Arson Alert car and drove him to the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital.

Lieut. Ahern and Inspector Kelley both received first degree burns on their hands, arms, and face, plus the fact that their coats were badly burned in the extinguishing process. The victim was transferred to the Shriners Burn Center and has third-degree burns covering 60 percent of his body. The fast action of these two men and their utter disregard for their own safety resulted in the saving of this victim's life.

The Fire Commissioner highly commended these members in General Order 62, 1977.

The Board recommends that the names of Fire Lieut. William P. Ahern, Fire Prevention Division, and Fire Fighter Lawrence P. Kelley, Fire Prevention Division, be placed on the Roll of Merit.

14. Case of District Fire Chief John P. Vahey.

Vahey of District 8.

15. Case of Fire Lieutenant Michael J. Bruno, Ladder Company 10.

At 0540 hours on December 25, 1977, Ladder Company 10 responded to Box 2538 (working fire) location — South Street and Asticou Road.

Upon arrival, Ladder Company 10 found heavy smoke and fire coming from the first floor of the house on the corner of South Street and Asticou Road. Fire Lieut. Michael J. Bruno, of Ladder Company 10, was informed by occupants that had left the fire building that children were trapped in the bedroom on the first floor, South Street side. The entrance on South Street led directly to the second floor and the entrance on Asticou Road was locked by fire so entry could not be made. Lieut. Bruno then had the members of Ladder Company 10 place a baby Bangor ladder to the first-floor bedroom window. Without hesitation or regard for his own safety, he ascended the ladder into the bedroom. Searching the room in the heavy smoke and heat he located a baby in a crib and removed Edward Huber, a one-year-old, by passing the boy out from the front window to an unknown person. Lieutenant Bruno then searched the room again and finding no one, he returned to the outside.

The baby, Edward Huber, was taken to the Faulkner Hospital with burns on his body and smoke damage to his lungs, then transferred to the New England Medical Center.

The rescue was made at extreme personal risk to Lieut. Bruno with no thought of his own safety.

The Fire Commissioner highly commended him in General Order 8, 1978, for this rescue.

The Board recommends that the name of Fire Lieut. Michael J. Bruno be placed on the Roll of Merit.

16. Case of Fire Fighter Robert Brady (Retired).

By his tenacious and investigative ability in the investigation of an arson fire at 15 Hill Top Street on October 12, 1974, this case was brought to a successful conclusion by the conviction and incarceration of the perpetrators of this crime. His investigation, in cooperation with the District Attorney's office resulted in the uncovering of the existence of one of the largest burn-for-profit arson rings in the state's history.

This work was done both as an inspector on the Arson Squad and after his return to a fire company. The greater majority of this work was done in his off-time and even after his retirement from the Boston Fire Department. This achievement reflects great credit on the caliber of men who have been charged with the investigation of fire by this department. Therefore, the Distinguished Service Award is hereby awarded to Fire Fighter Robert Brady (Retired).

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT Purchasing Division Furniture Items

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under state law, any Massachusetts municipality may make purchases on state contracts through the Collective Purchasing Bureau. Prices were obtained by publicly advertising for bids and awards were made to the lowest bidders meeting specifications. The City of Boston Law Department has ruled that, to take advantage of the state contracts, the city must award its own contracts. This can only be accomplished with an award without advertising.

This office has received several requisitions from various city departments for furniture items which are available on the state contract.

Permission is requested to dispense with advertising and award contracts, without advertising, to the following companies which were the lowest acceptable bidders on publicly advertised bids for the State of Massachusetts and have existing contracts with the state Collective Purchasing Bureau. Amounts of contracts will not exceed those indicated below and will be for furnishing and delivering various items of office furniture to various city departments from January 25, to June 30, 1978, inclusive.

The following companies for which awards are requested are responsible establishments qualified to perform the requirements of the contracts and all prices are reasonable. State contract numbers are indicated before each company name:

(1107), Business Equipment Corporation, $8,000, net; (1108), Edward V. McCarthy, d/b/a McCarthy Bros., $10,000, net; (1109), GF Business Equipment, Inc., $5,000, net.

It is my opinion that the best interests of the city would be served by award the contracts in this manner.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

CLAIMS APPROVED

The Mayor, on recommendation of the Corporation Counsel, has approved the following votes of the City Council Committee on Claims:

To settle for $350 the claim of Arthur Garvey, to be indemnified against the result of an accident on May 18, 1977, when, while in the performance of his duty as an employee of the Public Works Department, Highway Division, he was operating a city-owned vehicle which struck a parked motor vehicle owned by Ernest D'Ambrosio causing damage to the latter.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price will be required of the successful bidder.

Attention is also directed to the Instruction to Bidders — Award of Contract: Rejection of Bids due to abnormally high and abnormally low prices for any class or item of work.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment and to the Boston Redevelopment Authority's Equal Opportunity Compliance Policy, adopted February 20, 1969, revised September 7, 1972, and to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Supplemental Equal Employment Opportunity, Anti-Discrim-

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract for CDBG-funded construction contracts, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his/her bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set forth for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set forth for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

KEVIN H. WHITE

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

LAWRENCE S. DICARA
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 70

MONDAY, JUNE 26, 1978

NO. 26

MAYOR'S GOAL: JOBS FOR HUB RESIDENTS

Mayor White Announces EEPA to Merge with NAB to Push for Jobs for Residents with Private Industry.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on June 16, announced that the city's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) is merging its On-the-Job Training program with the National Alliance of Business (NAB) to spur private sector involvement in employment of Boston residents.

The Mayor said "increased involvement of business and industry in employing more Boston residents in meaningful jobs is one of the goals of the Boston Plan and the national urban policy — and the only way to significantly reduce urban unemployment."

EEPA's On-the-Job Training program has placed 200 Boston residents in private industry including 50 working in electronics assembly at the Honeywell plant in Brighton.

EEPA Administrator Charles Atkins said the involvement of NAB in job training and placement will give Boston an advantage in pursuing funds from the Carter Administration, which has pledged $400 million in 1979 for the "Private Sector Initiatives" program.

Boston was granted $25,000 in planning funds last month from the U. S. Department of Labor to demonstrate how the city intended to increase the involvement of the private sector in job development.

The merger of NAB — which has ten years experience in providing support for government employment and training programs — with EEPA's On-the-Job Training program, is aimed at:

- decreasing unemployment by linking public and private sector resources and

- increasing Boston's prospects for federal funding for the job training program.

Atkins said EEPA will also establish a Private Industry Council (PIC) by early this fall to work with EEPA in establishing unsubsidized jobs in private industry for Boston's hard-core unemployed.

Atkins said that the city's unemployment rate has dropped from nearly 13 percent during the 1975 recession to eight percent in the first quarter of 1978. He said however, that "there is still room for growth in our relationships with private industry — and in our joint capability to work together to develop more jobs for the people of Boston."

Boston will be the third city nationwide to merge its On-the-Job Training component with NAB in an attempt to intensify private sector involvement.

The Chicago Alliance for Jobs and Louisville's "Action Now" were the first programs to formally link NAB with municipal governments. NAB's concentration has been in two areas, employment of disadvantaged adults such as Vietnam veterans and ex-offenders; and in reducing unemployment of poorly-prepared high school youths from disadvantaged families.

Attending the ceremony announcing the merger were Vice-Mayor Edward Sullivan; EEPA Administrator Charles M. Atkins; Doby Flowers, director of EEPA's Employment and Training Division; Frederick Wentzell, executive vice-president of NAB; Leroy Cragwell, Boston metro director for NAB; and Dick Wells, EEPA's On-the-Job Training director, who will administer the new program.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Mr. Sullivan awarded Wells a Presidential citation for his work in developing relationships between government employment programs and private industry. Wells is a former NAB Region I executive director on loan from Honeywell Information Systems from 1970 to 1977. At NAB, he also served as director of youth employment and headed the ex-offenders program.

BOSTON'S LANDMARKS

*William Monroe Trotter House
97 Sawyer Avenue, Dorchester*

The designation category of Landmark was given on October 25, 1977, to the William Monroe Trotter House. The owners are John W. and Irene N. Prantis.

A three-story house in the Jones Hill district of Dorchester, the William Monroe Trotter House is significant as the home of an early twentieth century black civil rights leader.

An 1895 graduate of Harvard College (and its first black Phi Beta Kappa), Trotter saw conditions deteriorating for blacks at the turn of the century. In response, he founded the Boston Literary and Historical Association and, with his friend George Forbes, The Guardian, a weekly newspaper, both in 1901. Also, he was president of the New England Suffrage League. An avowed opponent of Booker T. Washington's strategy of foregoing political involvement, Trotter lived in this house from 1899 to 1909.

The house itself is a rectangular plan balloon-frame structure with details from both Queen Anne and shingle styles; this mixture of details is typical of late nineteenth century vernacular architecture.

This building is listed as a National Historic Landmark on the National Register of Historic Places, an action that took effect May 11, 1976.

"MR. POPS," WE THANK YOU!

Metropolitan District Commissioner John F. Snedeker has announced plans to implement a massive campaign to collect hundreds of thousands of signatures to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of Arthur Fiedler's founding of the Esplanade concerts.

The Commissioner said, "The idea for this effort came from David G. Mugar, who has been the executive producer of the July 4th concerts and fireworks for the past four years, and is a close personal friend of Mr. Fiedler. The goal is to obtain as many signatures as 10,000 sheets of parchment will hold. These sheets will then be bound into a series of leather books and presented to Mr. Fiedler on the evening of the July 4th concert."

Commissioner Snedeker continued, "Many groups and organizations have already volunteered their time and energy for this drive. Included among the many are professional Firefighters, the Department of Elder Affairs, Metropolitan Police, Brighams, Camp Fire Girls, Symphony Hall, Fayva Shoes, local schools, churches, and many more."

"The purpose of this effort is to give the citizens of Massachusetts the opportunity to thank Mr. Fiedler for providing thousands of free concert hours to the general public over the past 50 years. It was Arthur Fiedler who brought classical music to the shores of the Charles River. In this unique way, music lovers can express their appreciation and honor him for both his time and talent," the Commissioner concluded.

The Metropolitan District Commission invites the participation of all statewide and local community groups. The main headquarters for the signature drive will be the Public Information Office, Metropolitan District Commission, 20 Somerset Street, Boston, 02108, telephone number, 727-5215.

The project coordinator is Michael Goldman, director of Public Information. The volunteer effort will be directed by Ruth Hendrickson and Patricia Sykes. All phone calls and inquiries should be addressed to them.

"T" RESTORING BLUE LINE TRAIN SERVICE

Near-normal train service on the Blue Line is expected to be restored by mid-July, when track-smoothing operations between Wonderland and Orient Heights are scheduled to be completed.

At that time, the substitute bus service will be discontinued and trains will be run at normal speeds between Wonderland and Orient Heights. But the 20 m.p.h. restriction will still apply to the track between Orient Heights and Airport Stations. The Orient Heights-Airport repairs will be done during off-peak hours for about two months after the current work is completed. These off-peak repairs generally will not require the use of substitute buses.

The rough track conditions, aggravated by the flooding, freezing and frost heaves of the winter, are being smoothed by leveling and tamping down the roadbed, aligning the track and adding new stone ballast to the roadbed.

Once the track work is completed, Blue Line passengers will enjoy a noticeably smoother and more comfortable ride.

In the Fall, Blue Line riders can look forward to riding in the first of 70 new Blue Line cars, which will provide a much quieter and more comfortable ride. The first train of four cars is due to arrive in September for testing and will be put into passenger service as soon as possible thereafter. Hawker-Siddeley, the builder of the cars, reports that the delivery date (originally in June) has been delayed because of a seven-week strike at the plant which supplies the wheel systems. Their production line also was shut down during the February blizzard because of power shortages caused by the coal strike.

The kingpin repairs on the Blue Line 1952 fleet of cars are progressing. The number of vehicles operating on the Blue Line is 80 percent of normal, but breakdowns are more frequent because of the greater-than-usual reliance on the 1924 fleet of trains. We anticipate we will have sufficient trains to meet the normal schedule by the start of the Summer timetable on June 17, and possibly earlier.

The present weekday service — by bus between Wonderland and Orient Heights, and by train between Orient Heights and Bowdoin — will continue until the mid-July completion of the Wonderland-Orient Heights track repairs. Normal train service is operated before 6:40 a.m. and after 5:40 p.m. on weekdays, and throughout weekends.

The MBTA thanks its customers for their patience and understanding while we make some long-overdue progress towards providing better service.

BETTER STREET LIGHTING FOR SOUTH END

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has awarded a $229,000 public improvement contract for new street lighting in the South End Urban Renewal Project.

The work will consist of the installation of a new street lighting system for Wareham Street, Plympton Street, East Dedham Street and the northerly side of East Canton Street, all between Harrison Avenue and Albany Street.

BRA Director Robert F. Walsh said, "This contract is particularly important to the South End business community. Local merchants have told us that new and better street lighting is a priority for this area of the South End and we are pleased that we could respond to their concerns."

The contract was awarded to the John McCourt Company, which was the low bidder for the job.

Work should begin by the end of June and be completed by late fall.

DONATIONS COVER THE "OVERHEAD"

Governor Michael S. Dukakis, Metropolitan District Commissioner John F. Snedeker and the Boston Pops Conductor Arthur Fiedler have accepted a $20,000 donation from the Boston Life Underwriters Association for the repair of the Hatch Shell roof on the Esplanade in Boston.

The Boston Life Underwriters Association is a 94-year-old trade and professional organization which represents 1,600 career field agents and managers in the greater Boston area. This group has donated $4,500 for a new speaker system which was installed at the Shell.

In appreciation for their efforts, a plaque was unveiled on which the names of 126 persons was inscribed, representing benefactors who contributed in excess of $100 aid in the repair of the roof.

MBTA SELLS ARBORWAY BUILDING

The 500 Arborway building in Jamaica Plain, built in 1962 as headquarters for the former Metropolitan Transit Authority, has been sold to Phipps Products Corp., of Boston.

The $525,000 sale by the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority Board of Directors puts the two-story brick office building on the City of Boston's property tax rolls for the first time.

"The City of Boston is delighted to have returned to the tax rolls some of its tax-exempt property, which has been such a heavy burden to Boston taxpayers," commented Mayor Kevin H. White. "Boston bears a greater proportion of tax-exempt property than any other city in the Commonwealth, simply because it is the location in the state for the headquarters of governmental, health and educational facilities," the Mayor said.

Richard Snider, vice-president of Phipps Products Corp., said the building would be used for currently-zoned purpose, and not for a chemical plant. Phipps is a Boston-based chemical manufacturer and distributor doing business on a national basis.

The building formerly was office quarters for about 380 MBTA administrative employees. The MBTA administrative offices were consolidated in May, 1977, at 50 High Street, across the street from the MBTA's Control Center at 45 High Street near South Station.

COUNCIL VOTES FUNDS FOR TAX AMENDMENT

John Weis, director of the city's Office of Public Information on Classification said recently, a City Council vote approving $975,000 in public funds to fight for passage of a classification amendment on the November ballot "greatly increases our capacity to help the public understand an extremely vital and complicated issue."

Weis said the funds "will enable us to communicate to the voters the importance of the classification amendment in the public's fight against increased property taxes."

He cautioned that the level of funding "still will not put us on equal footing with business interests, but it's a good start." Under 100 percent valuation, more than $250 million in property tax obligation would shift from business to homeowners, unless a classification amendment is passed. Classification would allow different assessment ratios for various types of property.

Weis and other officials involved in seeking passage of the amendment estimate business will spend millions to try to defeat it.

"This is a fight we must win," Weis said. "If we do not, many homeowners in Boston and across the state face massive property tax increases."

Weis has estimated at least $1.8 million would be necessary to sufficiently inform the public on the merits of classification and the original request to the council was for that amount. He said the funds approved by the council "will allow us to get the movement organized and geared up," but that additional funds will be requested in September for the crucial months to the November 7 election.

Ford Motor Company's assets are valued at nearly $11 billion, with nearly 335,000 stockholders around the world.

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department will operate a sailing program at Jamaica Pond beginning July 5, 1978, through August 29, 1978.

Included in this activity will be instructional sailing classes for novices. Sailing school registration will be held from Wednesday, July 5, at 9:00 a.m., to Sunday July 9, at twelve noon.

A swimming competency test will be required of those persons under 18 years of age. (Minimum age is 9.) Tests will be given at the following locations: Curtis Hall, 20 South Street, Jamaica Plain; Draper Pool, Washington and Stimson Streets, West Roxbury; Healy Pool, Washington Street and Firth Road, Roslindale; Mason Pool, Norfolk Avenue, Roxbury; Paris Street Pool, 112 Paris Street, East Boston. Test times will be arranged.

Instructional periods will be conducted in two-week increments from July 10, 1978.

There will be open sailing times for adults and family groups. Days of the weeks and times for open sailing will be announced.

THE CITY SEAL

As it appeared prior to 1827

The City Seal was adopted by "An Ordinance to Establish the City Seal," passed January 2, 1823, which provides "That the design hereto annexed, as sketched by John R. Penniman, giving a view of the City, be the City Seal; that the motto be as follows, to wit: 'Sicut patribus sit Deus nobis'; and that the inscription be as follows:—'Bostonia Condita, A.D. 1630. Civitatis regimine donata, A.D. 1822.'" The motto is taken from 1 Kings, viii, 57: "God be with us as He was with our fathers."

The seal as it was afterwards changed, and has ever since continued to be used, was first shown on page 221 of the volume of laws and ordinances commonly known as the "First Revision," published in 1827, and is established as the City Seal at the present time by Revised Ordinances of 1914, Chapter 1, Section 5, which provides that "The seal of the City shall be circular in form; the motto 'Sicut Patribus Sit Deus Nobis,' and the inscription, 'Bostonia Condita, A.D. 1630. Civitati; Regimine Donata A.D. 1822.'"

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT Purchasing Division Furniture Items

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This office is in receipt of requisitions from the Employment and Economic Policy Administration for immediate delivery of office furniture to 15 Beacon Street, Boston. The Employment and Economic Policy Administration will be moving into the building starting February 1, 1978, and requires the furniture for that date.

No useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising since there was insufficient time to advertise in the "City Record" for bids and receive deliveries on time. Formal written bids requested from several companies were publicly opened and read in this office on January 26, 1978. Business Equipment Corporation was the lowest bidder.

Permission is requested to dispense with advertising and award a contract, without advertising, to the lowest bidder, Business Equipment Corporation, 100 Shawmut Avenue, Boston, Mass., in an amount not to exceed $28,539.95, net, for furnishing, delivering, and setting in place where requested at 15 Beacon Street, various items of office furniture. Deliveries are to start the week of January 30, and be completed the week of February 6, 1978.

Business Equipment Corporation is a responsible corporation qualified to perform this type of contract and the price is reasonable.

It is my opinion that the best interests of the city would be served by awarding the contract in this manner.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

Coin Counting Machine

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 14, 1977, a bid for furnishing a coin counting machine to the Traffic and Parking Department was publicly opened and read in this office. The only bidder, Brandt, Inc., the sole manufacturer, submitted a bid which was not entirely acceptable to the city by reason of exceptions taken to the city's form of contract.

The city and Brandt, Inc. have agreed on the type of equipment required and the price.

Since Brandt, Inc. is the sole manufacturer of the equipment, the item has been previously advertised and the city and Brandt, Inc. are in agreement on the price and type of equipment to be furnished, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly readvertising for bids.

Permission is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Brandt, Inc. for furnishing one Brandt Model 930 coin sorter and counter with five bagging attachments; two double capacity coin drawers; on metal inspection pan; and one Brandt Model 752 stand. The amount of the contract is not to exceed $2,900 net.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

Vehicle Immobilizers

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On June 30, 1977, your Honor approved a letter to award a contract to Dorothy Davies Associates (DDA) for furnishing vehicle immobilizers (boots) for the Police Department. DDA was the only bidder on a publicly opened bid of June 3, 1977. However, in addition to being delivered late, the immobilizers provided by this company did not meet the advertised specifications and were therefore rejected.

During the lengthy delay in delivery, another vendor, Oceanic International, 2020 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. 20008, offered to supply immobilizers that met our specifications for $50 less per immobilizer. Tests of the Oceanic International product indicated that they did indeed meet the city's specifications and delivery may be made upon receipt of a purchase order.

Oceanic International, to the best of our knowledge, is the only vendor able to supply immobilizers which meet our specifications. They are immediately available to the city and they cost $50 less per unit than the original bid of $300 per unit.

Permission is therefore requested to dispense with further public advertising and award a contract to Oceanic International, 2020 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. 20008, to provide fifty-three vehicle immobilizers at $250 each. The amount of the contract is not to exceed $13,250, net.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

Perishable Foods, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

It is the practice of the City of Boston to purchase perishable foods and other edible commodities on the basis of bids submitted weekly or monthly because of the perishable nature of these goods and the fluctuation in their prices and the quantities required.

It is required by law that contracts be executed with various companies covering said purchases for one year beginning July 1, 1978. Because these purchasing procedures, which accrue considerable savings to the city, do not lend themselves to formal public advertising, authority is requested to award contracts, without public advertisement, to the companies listed below for the period from July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979, inclusive. The prices however are based on formal quotation prices received from several suppliers:

Armour Food Service, division of Armour & Company, 100 Harris Avenue, Providence, R.I.; Bornstein & Pearl Provision Co., Inc., 196 Quincy Street, Roxbury; Central Beef Company, 52 Sharon Street, Malden; Colonial Provision Company, Inc., 1110 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston; Commonwealth Fruit & Produce Co., Inc., 475 C Street, South Boston; Consolidated Foods Corporation, 201 Beacham Street, Everett; Costa Fruit & Produce Co., 321 Congress Street, Boston; Davey Bros., Inc., Littlefield Street, Avon; Dietary Products division of American Hospital Supply Corporation, 22 Wiggins Avenue, Bedford, Mass.

Doe Dullivan & Co., 85 Newmarket Square, Boston; John G. Dobbins, d/b/a John G. Dobbins Co., 61 Shurtleff Street, Chelsea; Dole & Bailey, Inc., 10 Newmarket Square, Boston; J. Fleishman & Co., Inc., 38 New Heath Street, Boston; Foster Beef Company, Foster Road, Bedford, New Hampshire; Flagstaff Food Service, N. E. Division, One Venus Way, S. Attleboro; The Great Atlantic Fish Corp., 41 Fish Pier, Boston; Hubco Packing Corp., 81 Newmarket Square, Boston; T. F. Kinnealey & Company, Inc., 20 Newmarket Square, Boston.

Irving Levitt Company, Inc., 34-36 Newmarket Square, Boston; John Mantia & Sons, 277 Northern Avenue, Boston; Paul W. Marks Co., Inc., 7-41 Charlton Street, Everett; Medford Packing Co., 192 Kennedy Drive, Malden; K. Monkiewicz, Inc., 50 Winnisisimmet Street, Chelsea; Mutual Packing Corp., 81 Newmarket Square, Boston; Native Poultry Company, Inc., 215 Williams Street, Chelsea; North Coast Sea Foods, Inc., 12-14 Fargo Street, Boston; Northern Fruit Company, Inc., 50 N. E. Produce Center, Boston.

Northern Meat Sales Co., Inc., 48 Newmarket Square, Boston; S. S. Pierce Company, 10 Wildwood Street, Woburn; Radlo Brothers, Inc., 211 Corporation Way, Medford; Red Bird Farm, 521 Taunton Street, Wrentham; The House of Rothmund, 21 South Street, Somerville; Shapiro Beef Co., Inc., 139 Newmarket Square, Boston; Siegel Egg Co., 143 Shirley Street, Roxbury; Spinelli Ravioli Mfg. Co., 282 Bennington Street, East Boston; Merchants Poultry & Provisions Co., Inc., 11 Foodmart Road, Boston.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On February 10, 1977, your Honor approved a permission to award contracts to several companies for furnishing perishable foods and other edible commodities for the period from July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978, inclusive.

Permission is requested at this time to award contracts, without public advertisement, to the following-named companies for the period from February 6, to June 30, 1978, inclusive.

Hubco Packing Corp., 81 Newmarket Square, Boston; Northern Meat Sales Co., Inc., 48 Newmarket Square, Boston.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

Bomb Detection Equipment

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Invitation to bid on proposals for furnishing Bomb Detection Equipment, Proposal 197, to the Police Department was advertised in the "City Record." Bids were to be publicly opened and read in this office on January 10, 1978, but none were received.

Golden Engineering, Inc., 5740 Warren Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48105, submitted a bid which was received late in the Purchasing Office and the Auditor's Office.

This equipment is the same type used by the Navy, Army, and Air Force. It is available at this time only from this company who submitted the late bid and it is used for the detection of bombs. Golden Engineering, Inc. is qualified to do work in the bomb detection field and the price quoted is reasonable. Since this item was publicly advertised and a late bid received from the, apparently, only available source no useful purpose would be served by re-advertising.

Permission is requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Golden Engineering, Inc. for immediate delivery of bomb detection equipment to the Police Department in an amount not to exceed $4,395, net. Immediate delivery in this instance is within ninety days of receipt of purchase order.

It is my opinion that the best interests of the city would be served by awarding the contract in this manner.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

Razing of Buildings

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

8 Maryland Street, Ward 13.

Emergency bid submitted in bid box January 9, 1978 — one copy to Auditing Department. Box opened by Office of Development and Construction. This building is in an unsafe and dangerous condition, a hazard to the general public.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures. (Community Development Block Grant.)

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Raze Construction Corp., $4,144; Mystic Building Wrecking Co., Inc., $4,176; Franklin Crane Service, Inc., $3,440; John J. Duane Co., Inc., $3,585; James G. Grant Co., Inc., $3,347; Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., $4,371.

James G. Grant Co., Inc., 28 Wolcott Street, Readville, Mass. 02137, has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $3,347, to James G. Grant Co., Inc., 28 Wolcott Street, Readville, Mass. 02137.

Very truly yours,
FRANCIS W. GENS,
Building Commissioner.

Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., 105 Norwell Street, Dorchester, Mass. 02121, has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

105 Norwell Street, Dorchester, Mass. 02121.

Very truly yours,
FRANCIS W. GENS,
Building Commissioner.

CITY COUNCIL

Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I hereby request permission to enter into a contract to hire Charles F. Choate as special counsel to the City Council in the matter pertaining to the Reserve Fund. The cost of the contract will not exceed $10,000. The recent votes on the Office of Fiscal Affairs, so called, and the Property Tax Review Project, so called, have brought to light a number of questions regarding the use of the Reserve Fund. On February 15, the Council passed an order that there be a determination in a court of law of the specific rights of the legislative and executive branches as regards the Reserve Fund. As there is some disagreement between the Corporation Counsel and members of the City Council in this matter, it is essential that special counsel be hired.

Mr. Choate is acquainted with the workings of our city government, since he is representing the Council in the Charles Street Jail case. The amount in question is reasonable for the proposed service. The services to be performed are professional. In my view, therefore, no useful purpose would be served in publicly advertising for bids to perform the work. Contract period February 15, 1977, through June 30, 1978.

Sincerely,
LAWRENCE S. DiCARA,
President.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Day Care Program

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $20,000, to Inquilinos Boricuas en Accion-I.B.A.-(D.B.F.) Escuelita Agueybana, located at 405 Shawmut Avenue, Boston, Mass. Payment for this contract shall be made from the Community Development Block Grant.

Under the terms of the agreement, I.B.A. (D.B.F.) Escuelita Agueybana will plan and implement a day care program to include bilingual, bicultural day care, nutrition, health, and social services, training of staff, community volunteers, and parents for the South End. The period of performance shall be from December 1, 1977, through August 31, 1978.

Escuelita Agueybana is a new service delivery under I.B.A.'s management. In the past I.B.A. has demonstrated the ability to manage and deliver a variety of social services to the community. In the interest of continuity of community development, I recommend that a contractual relationship be established between the city and I.B.A. (D.B.F.) Escuelita Agueybana at this time.

Therefore, for the reason cited above, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,
KATHARINE D. KANE,
Deputy Mayor.

EEPA

Youth Programs Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising and to award a contract to Action for Boston Community Development, Inc., 1500 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. 02111, to conduct a Youth Community Conservation and Improvement Project (YCCIP) under Title III of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973 (P.L. 93-203). The total cost of this contract will not exceed $54,000. The funds for this contract are to be provided through a federal grant to the city made under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Project Act of 1977. No City of Boston funds will be involved. The effective dates of operation of this contract will be from January 1, 1978, through September 30, 1978.

Each contractor for the YCCIP program was selected as a result of a Request for Proposal (RFP) process conducted by the EEPA. Proposals were evaluated according to the following ranking criteria:

(1) Identification of community need; strategy to meet need; description of tangible community benefit; (2) evidence of collaborative planning; coordination with community resources, and youth employment programs; (3) adequate documentation of participation/supervisor ratio; (4) applicant's capabilities and utilization of other resources; (5) ability to provide skills or knowledge that will enhance the possibility of future employment; (6) adherence to RFP; clarity; replicability.

The project submitted by the Action for Boston Community Development, Inc. (ABCD) was chosen on the basis of the comparative score it received in our review process. Due to the special nature of the services provided under this contract and the extensive solicitation and review process (including public notice) which was followed, it is my belief that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with advertising in the "City Record," and to award a contract to Casa del Sol, 405 Shawmut Avenue, Boston, Mass. 02118, for a Youth Employment and Training Program (YETP) to be operated under CETA, Title III. The program Bilingual ABC'S: Assessment, Basics, and Career Skills, will provide assessment, basic education (towards qualifying for general equivalency diplomas), and skills training for at least sixty-six, hard-core, Hispanic, school dropouts in the City of Boston.

Funds for this contract will be provided through a federal government grant to the city under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period February 1, 1978, through September 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $69,000.

Because Casa del Sol is an agency of demonstrated effectiveness providing needed services to a significant population segment at a low cost per enrollee, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting proposals by further public advertising, and to award a contract to National CSS, Inc., 1033 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, MA 02138, to supply data processing services for Project YES under Title III of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973 (P.L. 93-203). The total cost of this contract will not exceed $147,000. The funds for this contract are to be provided through a federal grant to the city made under the Youth Incentive Entitlement Pilot Project of 1977. No City of Boston funds will be involved. The effective dates of operation of this contract will be from January 1, 1978, through September 30, 1979.

Extensive market research was performed in order to select a supplier of data processing services. Five companies were evaluated according to:

1. Capabilities; 2. mode of operation; 3. cost effectiveness based on a benchmark performance; 4. availability of data base management system; 5. computer equipment; 6. user experience; 7. ability to supply timely supportive education; 8. supply timely technical support.

Six data base management systems were evaluated according to these criteria:

1. Use of a report/request language which is easy to learn and use for non-programmers; 2. use of a high-level language for implementing and maintaining the data base; 3. provision of design capabilities for relational and hierarchical data base structures; 4. ability to effect data security and access limitation; 5. provision of easy and convenient facilities for change and/or additions to the data base.

National CSS and its NOMAD data base system were selected on the basis of their abilities to meet the above criteria. Due to the special nature of the services provided under this contract, the reasonable cost of the services to be provided, the extensive solicitation and review process which was followed, it is my belief that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising and to award a contract to the Education Collaborative for Greater Boston, Inc. (EDCO), 20 Kent Street, Brookline, Mass., to conduct a Youth Employment and Training Program (YETP) under Title III of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, (P.L. 93-203). The total cost of this contract will not exceed $90,000. The funds for this contract are to be provided through a federal grant to the city made under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Project Act of 1977. The effective dates of operation of this contract will be from January 1, 1978, through September 30, 1978.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, EDCO will serve twenty City of Boston youths in a program designed to keep youths in school, or in the case of dropouts, to enroll them again. Each participant will be engaged in the program on a full-time basis, i.e., twenty hours of well-supervised work and ten to fifteen hours of instruction per week during the school year, and forty hours of supervised work during the summer.

Due to the experience of EDCO in operating programs of a similar nature, and the reasonable cost of services to be provided, I feel that no purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the "City Record," and to award a contract to the Massachusetts Occupational Information System (MOIS), 60 William Street, Wellesley Hills, MA 02181, for the operation of a computerized, job-data bank for the CETA Youth Resource Centers in the City of Boston.

Funds for this contract will be provided from a federal government grant to the City of Boston under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The effective dates of operation of the proposed contract will be from January 1, 1978, to September 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $50,000.

MOIS is the only agency that can provide this needed service, and, therefore, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

Printing Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with advertising in the "City Record," and to award a contract to Copy Cop, 815 Boylston Street, Boston, MA 02116, for printing and graphic services in connection with the city's proposal and application to the U.S. Department of Labor for a Youth Entitlement System (Y.E.S.).

Funds for this contract will be provided through a federal government grant to the city under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period December 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978; costs incurred under this contract will not exceed $5,000.

In order to comply with the strict federal application deadlines, it was necessary to engage a contractor who could provide immediate turn-around and delivery on extremely short notice. Because Copy Cop is a well-known supplier of printing and graphic services at the most competitive prices, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

Payroll Processing

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting proposals by further public advertising and to award a contract to Automatic Data Processing, 1050 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, MA 02215, to conduct payroll processing services for participants in Project YES under Title III of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973 (P.L. 93-203). The total costs of this contract will not exceed $76,000. The funds for this contract are to be provided through a federal grant to the city made under the Youth Incentive Entitlement Pilot Project of 1977. No City of Boston funds will be involved. The effective dates of operation of this contract will be from January 1, 1978, through September 30, 1979.

Offer on payroll services for Project YES were solicited by advertisement in the legal notices section of the "Boston Globe." Subsequently, officials of each of the bidders were interviewed separately to further ascertain their relative capabilities. Bids were evaluated according to the following ranking criteria:

1. Price;
2. experience;
3. ease of implementation;
4. understanding and capability to perform the work required;
5. back-up and support available;
6. training and user manuals provided.

The bid submitted by Automatic Data Processing was selected because it was the unanimous decision of the interviewers that it best met the above criteria. Due to the special nature of the services provided under this contract, the reasonable proposed cost of the services, and the extensive solicitation and review process which was followed, it is my belief that no useful purpose would be served by further advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

Training Correction Officers

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the "City Record," and awaiting bids and award a contract for Basic Exercises for Correctional Officers to the Massachusetts County Correctional Training Academy, located on 115 Woodland Road, Southborough, Mass. 01172, in an amount not to exceed $37,000.

Funds for this training contract will be provided from a federal grant to the City of Boston through the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973, (P.L. 93-203). There will be no financial assistance from the City of Boston. The effective dates of the contract are from June 1, 1977, through May 31, 1978.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, the Correctional Training Academy will train sixty-one, CETA participants as correctional officers in an intensive three-week course designed to prepare them for their responsibilities in the county's prisons, and increase their employability in that field.

Given the highly special and unique character of the subject services, and the reasonable cost of the services to be provided, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by public solicitation of bids.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

MIS System Services

Dear Mayor White:

This is to request your Honor's permission to dispense with a public advertising in the "City Record," and to award a contract to Dr. Laurence Howard, 45 Banks Street, Somerville, Mass. 02144, for consulting services to be rendered in connection with the analysis and redesign of the Management Information System for CETA, Title I & III programs.

The expectation of increased federal funding to the city for manpower programs creates an urgent need for an entire redesign and overhaul of our existing MIS system capacity and capability in order to comply with the department and labor regulations. The contractor, Dr. Howard, has extensive experience working with and consulting for CETA prime sponsors, and has several MIS systems in operation which have resulted in decreased operational costs for the prime sponsor.

Funds for this contract will be provided from a grant to the City of Boston under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contractor will be paid at a rate of $125 per diem for the period January 17, 1978, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $10,000. The rate is most reasonable for work of this sort.

Because of Dr. Howard's extensive experience and accomplishments, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids in this instance.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

Job Training Services

Dear Mayor White:

This is to request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the Boston Foundation, Inc., a non-profit corporation, located in the City of Boston, for the operation of a private sector on-the-job training (OJT) program for economically disadvantaged Boston residents. Funds for this contract will be provided through a federal government grant to the city under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The total amount of the contract will not exceed $503,000, and will be effective for the period December 1, 1977, through September 30, 1978.

The private sector, OJT component to be operated under this contract, in cooperation with Boston businesses, will provide on-the-job training to approximately 250, CETA-eligible, city residents. The vehicle for providing this OJT experience will be approximately fifty, private-sector employers who have agreed to pay 50 percent of the wages to be paid each trainee. The balance of the wages, plus support services, are provided for under this contract.

In order to reimburse employers for the city share of training expenses, EEPA was faced with the prospect of drafting separate contracts and processing monthly invoices for each of the fifty-odd, private-sector employers. It was felt this course would place an undue burden on the City Hall contract and payment system and result in potential delays and excessive paperwork for all of the involved parties. Accordingly, a means of providing for a consolidated contract and disbursement system was sought.

In conjunction with the Boston Foundation, Inc., an independent contractor, the EEPA developed a system to meet the above-mentioned needs which provides an efficient and rational alternative. Under the terms of the proposed contract the Boston Foundation, Inc. will provide EEPA with a management system to facilitate OJT contract development, invoice approval, and cash disbursements. Given the nature of the Boston Foundation and the desire to hold payment-processing time to reasonable private-sector expectations, the Boston Foundation, Inc. is a most logical and appropriate agency to be awarded this contract without formal bidding procedures. For these reasons it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

Management Consultant Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Nance Lyons, 176 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, MA 02116, for management consulting services to be rendered to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, Ms. Lyons, who has extensive experience in public-sector management, will advise the Employment and Economic Policy Administration in the following areas:

(1) Revision of EEPA contract boilerplate; (2) systematization of EEPA program management, including contract monitoring, compliance and evaluation; (3) review of federal regulations to insure up-to-date compliance procedures; (4) codification and redrafting of EEPA hearing and grievance procedures for contractors.

Funds for this contract will be provided from a federal government grant to the City of Boston under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contractor will be paid $150 per day for work to be performed from January 30, 1978, through January 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $20,000.

Because of the willingness of the contractor to work hours on demand, her qualifications and experience, and the reasonable cost for these services, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids in this instance.

Sincerely,
CHARLES M. ATKINS,
Administrator.

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered area.

All bidders will be required to certify as part of their proposal that they are able to furnish labor that can work in harmony with all other elements of labor employed or to be employed on the work.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in the form of a bid bond, cash, certified check, treasurer's or cashier's check issued to the MBTA by a responsible surety, bank or trust company.

Declaration of Independence

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION OF THE THIRTEEN UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WHEN in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.—We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,—That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.—Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.—He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.—He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.—He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless these people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.—He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.—He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.—He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.—He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.—He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers.—He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.—He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.—He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures.—He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power.—He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:—For quartering large bodies of armed

WE, THEREFORE, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES: that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown. and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do.—And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

MAYOR PRAISES ST. GERMAIN STREET RESTORATION DEVELOPMENT

Mayor Kevin H. White recently praised the St. Germain Street housing restoration development which saved more than fifty 1890-vintage brick, bow-front townhouses from demolition and converted them to house modern apartments.

The restoration effort was undertaken by Goldweitz and Company, a Boston real estate investment and development firm, with $4.6 million in mortgage funds provided by the Workingmans Cooperative Bank, the state's largest co-operative bank. The restoration effort was supported and assisted by the Boston Redevelopment Authority.

Said Mayor White, "This development proves three things: Boston neighborhoods are recognized as good investments by business; restoration rather than demolition has become an accepted residential development technique; and government financial aid is not a prerequisite for successful development in this city."

Mayor White added, "Never has such a large residential restoration project returned so many buildings to their productive place on the tax roles. This was not a sure thing. The men who made these decisions took a gamble on Boston's future, and their gamble paid off. Both the developer, Mark Goldwietz, and the president of Workingmens Co-operative, Everett Pope, should be commended for their dedication to the city and their contribution to its prosperous future."

Construction on the restoration project began in January, 1977, after Goldweitz and Company was chosen as the developer by Church Realty Trust, the real estate affiliate of The First Church of Christ, Scientist. Rental of studio, one- and two-bedroom townhouse apartments began in August, 1977.

The exterior of the brownstone buildings lining St. Germain Street have been cleaned and refurbished to their turn-of-the-century appeal and appropriately landscaped. The interiors have been gutted and remodeled into modern townhouse apartments.

BRA AWARDS CONTRACT

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has awarded a $662,000 public improvement contract for the construction of new streets in the Campus High Urban Renewal Project.

The BRA contract calls for construction of two new streets, Kerr Place and DeWitt Drive, and the reconstruction of Whittier Street, Cabot Street and Ruggles Street.

The work will consist of paving, sidewalks, curbing, water mains, drainage, street lighting and trees.

BRA Director Robert F. Walsh said, "We are pleased that we can get this contract under way early in the construction season. The new streets will service the town houses presently under construction in the Campus High project and we want to finish this work when residents begin moving into the new project this fall."

The contract was awarded to the John Mahoney Construction Company, Inc., which was the low bidder for the job.

MAYOR WHITE ELECTED PRESIDENT OF U.S. DEMOCRATIC MAYORS CONFERENCE

Mayor Kevin H. White was elected President of the U.S. Democratic Mayors Conference at the DMC's meeting in Atlanta on June 19.

In his acceptance speech, Mayor White said he felt "very strongly that we as Mayors must provide leadership in the Democratic Party."

Mayor White said Boston and other major cities nationwide "need a strong, undiluted voice that will articulate their needs and not compromise them."

He said the Democratic Mayors Conference has evolved into a "major political force that will defend the principles that urban Democrats have stood for over the years."

The Mayor said the DMC under his leadership will be involved in getting property tax reform passed by the state legislatures.

"Our constituencies deserve it," the Mayor said, "and they are getting impatient, as we saw recently in California."

"In my opinion," he said, "property tax reform is the number one domestic issue in the country and we must respond in a reasonable and timely manner."

Mayor White said the conference must use its "political muscle" to influence the national political debate on urban issues, unifying urban constituencies in a "strength in numbers" national lobby for the big cities.

The Mayor said the DMC will hold a series of regional meetings across the country to muster support for property tax relief and to lobby for passage of the Carter administration's national urban policy as it progresses through Congress.

EMPLOYERS: NEED SUMMER HELP!

Students at UMass-Boston can offer potential employers a number of unique qualities not usually possessed by college students seeking full-time jobs for the summer.

Currently, the Job Development Center, which is located in the Financial Aid Office on the Harbor Campus in Dorchester, provides a free employment service to all businesses in the Greater Boston area desiring to hire dependable, hard-working and mature personnel.

The students' average age is 25, most of them have already obtained a great deal of practical work experience in life, and they possess a variety of job skills — including those required in the clerical, managerial, service and trade sectors, says Grace Muscarella, associate director of UMass-Boston's Financial Aid Office.

Because of the part-time and full-time jobs they have held to date to help pay their way through college, they obviously tend to be more mature and dependable, she stressed.

Further, she said, that prospective student employees "will be carefully screened before being referred to any outside personnel offices for interviews. This ensures that only students with the proper qualifications and a sense of diligence and persistence are referred to business representatives."

Following a week of interviews, Ms. Darlene Perkins and the staff of the Job Development Program will check with prospective employers to determine their satisfaction as to the caliber of students being referred to them.

Ms. Perkins, whose program is being funded in part by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, notes that UMass-Boston's Harbor Campus is only three miles from downtown Boston and students have easy access to the city via private transportation and the MBTA.

"Any business person hoping to fill full-time summer jobs, but who is weary of interviewing candidates who are overqualified, underqualified, unmotivated, or unqualified — should contact the Office of Job Development in UMass-Boston's Financial Aid Office by telephoning 287-1900, ext. 2311 or 2312," said Ms. Perkins.

Officials said some 800 to 1,000 students will need summer jobs to help pay for their education in the next academic year.

ALTERNATIVE SOUGHT FOR "OPEN HYDRANT"

The Summer Task Force, several city departments assigned by Mayor Kevin H. White to develop summer water recreation alternatives to the traditional "open fire hydrant," is nearing the completion of its three-month study of existing water recreational facilities and programs.

The aim of the Summer Task Force is to heighten public awareness about the potential dangers to life and property represented by the illegal opening of fire hydrants.

Said Mayor White, "Summer in the city has always meant cracking open the local hydrant to relieve the discomfort of hot days and muggy nights. But that practice can lower the water pressure to a degree where it prevents effective fire fighting if an emergency should arise."

Fire Commissioner George Paul added, "The hazards resulting from the unauthorized use of fire hydrants fall not only upon the fire department. Homeowners are often plagued by flooding, automobiles are immobilized, and hospitals are forced to rely on emergency pumping systems."

Task Force Chairman John Dimiceli, deputy director of the Mayor's Office of Public Service, said, "The Summer Task Force will coordinate efforts throughout the summer. They will also monitor and respond to complaints by neighborhood residents called into the Little City Halls."

Representatives from the Boston Fire Department; Boston Housing Authority; Boston School Department; Boston Water and Sewer Commission; Boston Community School; the Metropolitan District Commission; the Mayor's Office of Public Service; Parks and Recreation; and Youth Activities Commission comprise the Summer Task Force.

Arrested for speeding, a California driver claimed that he had his car washed and was trying to dry it off.

BOSTON'S LANDMARKS

ROSWELL GLEASON HOUSE

101 Claybourne, Street, Dorchester

The designation category of Landmark was given on October 25, 1977, to the Roswell Gleason House.

The owner is Mary V. Bowker.

Built in about 1840 by renowned pewterer Roswell Gleason, this two-story frame house is the best example in Boston of the transition from Greek Revival to Gothic Revival domestic architectural style.

Prominently sited on a large, elevated lot, the house displays numerous features of the early Gothic Revival style. The main doorway is flanked by Gothic spirelets; wooden muntins in several windows imitate tracery; the roof gable is outlined by scroll-carved "Carpenter Gothic" barge boards, and porches with medieval detailing.

Roswell Gleason, the builder of the house, was a prominent resident of Dorchester (then still an independent town) and a pewterer whose work is included in most major collections of American pewter. Notable collections in New England of his work include those at the Currier Gallery in Manchester, N.H., and the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

CLASSIFICATION AMENDMENT URGED

Mass. mayors' report urges classification amendment to reduce impact of 100 percent valuation.

The Massachusetts Mayors' Association recently released a report predicting a 15 percent increase statewide in the average homeowner's property tax under 100 percent valuation — and a 35 percent increase for residents in major industrial cities.

At a press conference at Lynn City Hall, Lynn Mayor Antonio Marino, vice-president of the Mayors' Association, released a 73-page study estimating the statewide impact of 100 percent valuation and making a case for passage of a classification amendment, which would allow property classes to be assessed at different ratios.

Mayor Marino said "There's been so much attention to Proposition 13 in California, that today the Mayors' Association is making its own proposition to the overburdened taxpayers of Massachusetts — vote for classification in November."

The classification amendment will be question one on the November 7 ballot. The Mayors are attempting to create a statewide movement to pass the amendment under their Statewide Committee on Classification, headed by Boston Mayor Kevin H. White.

The Mayors' Association report shows that if 100 percent valuation is implemented without a classification amendment to soften the impact about $265 million in property tax obligation will be shifted from commercial and industry to residential property.

Mayor White cautioned that the classification amendment will prevent this, but that there will be still a need for long-term property tax reform from the state legislature.

Mayor White called the recent passage of the Jarvis amendment by California voters "much too drastic for Massachusetts." "There is no need for the people of this state to deprive themselves of vital services to get property tax relief," Mayor White said.

"Our state legislature got the message from the California vote. What is needed now is to get the classification amendment passed this year to stave off the effects of 100 percent valuation, and then to get meaningful long-term property tax reform passed by 1980."

LIKE SAILING? TAKE NOTE

Austin announce a family Sailing Open House, Sunday, July 9, at Jamaica Pond from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. There will be sailing for the family and a chance to meet the instructors who will supervise and help. Bring a picnic and prepare for a full day of fun and excitement at a beautiful pond.

MAYOR CREATES "BE SURE" PROGRAM

Mayor announces creation of 50 percent rebate security program for neighborhood merchants at crime prevention week observance.

Mayor Kevin H. White on June 15, announced the creation of a program designed to provide free security consultation to Boston neighborhood merchants, and a 50 percent rebate program on all store security improvements up to $1,000.

The program, dubbed "Be Sure," has operated through $30,000 in federal funds on a pilot basis for the past four months under the Neighborhood Business Program and Boston Police Department's Crime Prevention Unit.

Said Mayor White, "I urge small store owners, particularly those who have suffered a break-in, burglary, or even vandalism, to consult the local Crime Prevention officer, who has been specially trained in small business security."

Mayor White added, "I know that security improvements are costly. Once you get that advice, we will meet you half-way in implementing the security suggestions by offering a 50 percent rebate on all police-approved security improvements up to $1,000."

The Crime Prevention Unit, which is composed of 11 officers, reports that it receives complaints on nearly 5,000 break-ins per year.

Said Mayor White, "Working together — residents and police — we lowered the crime rate city-wide last year by 12 percent. That same kind of cooperation has meant an 8 percent drop in the crime rate for the first quarter of 1978 and a drop in motor vehicle theft of 25 percent. Citizen involvement can make a difference in crime statistics. And we hope that involvement in this commercial security program will mean a drop in break-in statistics."

To have a free security survey made of your store, call the Boston Police Crime Prevention Unit at 247-4310. All surveys are confidential.

WEST ROXBURY POLICE STATION: NEW LOCATION

Mayor Kevin H. White has selected the former Coveney Garage site at Centre Street and West Roxbury Parkway as the location of a new police station for West Roxbury.

Mayor White signed the sales agreement for the 1704-1710 Centre Street location at a Boston Police Department crime prevention display on the site June 23.

The site covers approximately 38,000 square feet of land. It is being purchased by the city's Public Facilities Department from Warren H. Coveney of Needham for $200,000.

Mayor White, whose announcement will come during the annual "West Roxbury Week" community tribute, has indicated that the new station will be a fully-staffed district station, boasting a full complement of officers. West Roxbury was previously served by a substation arrangement.

Mayor White said, "West Roxbury is now getting the police station it has wanted and needed for such a long time. This is just one way of bringing police services closer to the people. Another way is the greater utilization of mounted patrols." Mayor White added, "What we are trying to do with these programs and others is to reduce the crime rate. Through citizen cooperation, the crime rate dropped last year 12 percent. The latest quarter statistics reflect another 8 percent drop city-wide, and a 25 percent drop in our nagging auto theft rate."

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan said, "I look forward to the construction and full staffing of this new station. With the continued cooperation of the community, we can make still greater progress in crime prevention."

When a sailor at a Navy swimming class refused to dive from a 15-foot platform, the instructor asked: "What would you do if you were that high up on a sinking ship?"

"Sir," said the student, "I'd wait for it to sink about 10 feet more."

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

1. The Offerer's or Bidder's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and the "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth herein.

2. The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered area, are as follows: (See Appendix 1 to Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Specifications).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered area.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required by the specifications set forth in 41 CFR 60-4.3(a), and its efforts to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract, resulting from this solicitation, is to be performed. The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract, and in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects. The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

3. The contractor shall provide written notification to the Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs within ten (10) working days of any construction subcontract in excess of $10,000 at any tier for construction work under the contract resulting from this solicitation. The notification shall list the name, address, and telephone number of the subcontractor; employer identification number; estimated dollar amount of the subcontract; estimated starting and completion dates of the subcontract; and the geographical area in which the contract is to be performed.

4. As used in this notice, and in the contract resulting from this solicitation, the "covered area" is Everett, Massachusetts, Middlesex County.

Authorization for the bidders to view the site of the work on the MBTA's property shall be obtained from the office of Mr. J. S. O'Hara, Superintendent, Civil and Design Engineering Division, Telephone 722-5441.

A prebid conference will be held on July 10, 1978, at 10 a.m. at the office of the Project Manager, Mr. D. J. Burns, 50 High Street, Boston, Mass. It is imperative that prospective bidders have a representative attend. Any request for interpretation of plans and specifications should be submitted in writing at that time.

All bidders will be required to certify that they are not on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors.

The provisions of Massachusetts Executive Order No. 130, Anti-Boycott Covenants, are incorporated by reference as part of this contract.

All bidders will be required to certify as part of their proposal that they are able to furnish labor that can work in harmony with all other elements of labor employed or to be employed on the work.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of two thousand dollars ($2,000) in the form of a bid bond, or cash, certified check, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by a responsible bank or trust company.

The successful bidder shall be required to furnish a performance bond and a labor and materials payment bond, each for the full amount of the contract price. The surety shall be a surety company or securities satisfactory to the Authority.

The Authority reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, to waive informalities, to advertise for new proposals or proceed to do the work otherwise, as may be deemed to be for the best interests of the Authority.

Bid deposits shall be in the amount equal to at least 5 percent of each proposal for Cleaning Up of Lots and Miscellaneous Areas No. 3 throughout the City of Boston.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price will be required of the successful bidder.

Attention is also directed to the instructions to Bidders — Award of Contract: Rejection of Bids due to abnormally high and abnormally low prices for any class or item of work.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment and to the Boston Redevelopment Authority's Equal Opportunity Compliance Policy, adopted February 20, 1969, revised June, 1975, and to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Supplemental Equal Employment Opportunity, Anti-Discrimination and Affirmative Action Program Contract Provision.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, without limitation, the notice to all bidders, (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs, as required by section 3, and a section 3 Affirmative Action Plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. These forms are AAP1-AAP6 and AAP8 and can be found at pages ST1-ST10 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he/she is able to demonstrate to satisfaction to the Awarding Authority his/her ability to comply with these requirements.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract for CDBG-funded construction contracts, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his/her bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set forth for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

Attention is called to all prospective bidders that they are required to attend a prebid conference to discuss the federal, state, and local compliance requirements regarding affirmative action with the Contract Compliance Section of the Boston Redevelopment Authority. Prebid conference will be held at 11:30 A.M., on July 7, 1978, at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 917.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding of the contract.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

1. The Offerer's or Bidder's attention is called to the "Equal Employment Opportunity Clause" and the "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth herein.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract, and in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects. The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the

It is imperative that prospective bidders have a representative attend. Any request for interpretation of plans and specifications should be submitted in writing at that time.

All bidders will be required to certify that they are not on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors.

The provisions of Massachusetts Executive Order No. 130, Anti-Boycott Covenants, are incorporated by reference as part of this contract.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of six thousand two hundred dollars ($6,200) in the form of a bid bond, or cash, certified check, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by a responsible bank or trust company.

The successful bidder shall be required to furnish a performance bond and a labor and materials payment bond, each for the full amount of the contract price. The surety shall be a surety company or securities satisfactory to the Authority.

FREEDOM TRAIL ATTRACTS THOUSANDS

Welcome to Boston and the Freedom Trail

The Freedom Trail is an ideal introduction to the City of Boston. The red, brick line on the trail will direct you through historic Boston — and, unavoidably, bring you to many of the most interesting views of the new city. As you will discover, old and new are quite inseparable.

There are sixteen sites on the trail and several exhibits, monuments, and shrines just off the trail. Most of the sites tell a story about Boston's Colonial and Revolutionary history.

If you are planning to visit a site with a large group, call ahead to the site for reservations. Massachusetts schoolchildren are admitted free to most of the historic sites.

The Freedom Trail is the nation's first urban recreational trail and is organized and maintained by The Freedom Trail Foundation, Inc., the Greater Boston Convention and Tourist Bureau, and the National Park Service. The Boston Park Visitor Center (opening winter, 1978) is at 15 State Street, near the Old State House.

One note — there is no particular order to the sites on the trail. You may begin your walking tour at any point. Please remember that the churches on the Freedom Trail hold regular services which you will wish to respect.

Boston Common

A 48-acre park in Boston's busy downtown, the Common was purchased in 1634 to serve the people of Boston. In colonial days it was a pasture land and militia training ground. At Central Burying Ground, on the Common's Boylston Street side, artist Gilbert Stuart and composer William Billings rest. (Free)

The State House and Archives

Designed by Charles Bulfinch, the "new" State House was erected in 1795 on land bought from the Hancock family. Samuel Adams laid the cornerstone. The Archives contain many original documents such as the Massachusetts Constitution of 1780 and Bradford's History of Plimoth Plantation. Free tours Monday-Friday, 10-4 p.m. Enter the State House up the center stairway on Beacon Street. (Free)

Park Street Church

Next to the Granary Burying Ground, notice the Park Street

Church (1809), also known as "Brimstone Corner" because the church was used as a gunpowder "factory" during the War of 1812. Open summer, 10-4 p.m., winter, by appointment. (Free)

Granary Burying Ground

Next to the site of the town's first granary, the cemetery shelters three signers of the Declaration of Independence: John Hancock, Robert Treat Paine, and Samuel Adams. Paul Revere, Peter Faneuil, Benjamin Franklin's parents, and the victims of the Boston Massacre are also buried here. Daily, 8-4 p.m. (Free)

King's Chapel

The present building was completed in 1754 and during England's rule was favored with gifts of silver and vestments by Queen Anne and George III. After the Revolution, it became America's first Unitarian Church. Open, 10-4 p.m. (closed Mondays). The burial ground next door shelters Governor Winthrop and William Dawes, Jr. (Free)

The Site of the First Public School and Ben Franklin's Statue

Boston's reputation for great scholarship began with the first public schoolhouse built in 1635 which later became the Boston Latin School. It was a place of learning for Colonial America's great minds, including Benjamin Franklin, whose statue is here. (Free)

The Old Corner Bookstore

Here met the authors who made Boston "the Athens of America." Built in 1712, in the nineteenth century it was the publishing house of Ticknor and Fields; later, it became the Old Corner Bookstore and a meeting place for the literary greats: Emerson, Hawthorne, Holmes, Stowe, and others. Open daily, 10-6 p.m. (Free)

Old South Meeting House

Built in 1729 as the 3rd Congregational Church in Boston, this was the major meeting house of Colonial days. From here the Boston Tea Party was launched. In 1877 Old South was preserved for religious and educational uses. Open daily, 10-4 p.m., winter; 10-6 p.m., summer. Adults, $.50; children, free with adults. On Milk Street, a plaque marks the site of Ben Franklin's birthplace, visible through windows on the right side.

Old State House

Built in 1712, known as the Town House before the Revolution, this was the seat of Colonial government. Here also is the Museum of Boston History, maintained by the Bostonian Society. Open daily, 10-4 p.m. Adults, $.75; children, $.25; Mass. school children, free. Nearby at 15 State Street is the Boston National Park Visitor Center. Restrooms and information are available here.

Boston Massacre Site

At this site, on March 5, 1770, a British guard of nine soldiers clashed with an unruly mob, resulting in the death of five colonists — including Crispus Attucks, an early black patriot. From here a side trip through Government Center to Cambridge Street brings you to the Bulfinch-designed Harrison Gray Otis House and Old West Church. (Free)

Faneuil Hall

Built by Peter Faneuil for the city in 1742, this hall has been a meeting and marketplace ever since. Town meetings here were so active that John Adams named it "the Cradle of Liberty." Enlarged by Bulfinch in 1806, the hall now houses the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company on the third floor. From here to Paul Revere's House you will pass Samuel Adams' statue, the Boston Stone (for measuring distance, it's the heart of Boston) and the Ebenezer Hancock House at 10 Marshall Street. Open 9-5, daily. (Free)

Paul Revere House

Built in 1676, this is the oldest standing structure in downtown Boston. Paul Revere owned the house from 1770 to 1800 and left its doors on December 16, 1773, for the Boston Tea Party and on April 18, 1775, for his historic ride to Lexington and Concord. Open daily, 10-6 p.m. (summer); 10-4 (winter). Adults, $.50; children, $.25.

Old North Church, Christ Church

Built in 1723, "Old North," or Christ Church, in Boston is the city's oldest standing church. On April 18, 1775, two lanterns hung from the steeple signalled to patriots across the river that the British were on their way to Concord "by sea." Open, 9-5 p.m., daily. Visitors welcome to attend services. (Nearby are Paul Revere Mall and St. Stephen's Church, the only surviving Bulfinch church in Boston.) (Free)

Copp's Hill Burial Ground

Used as a cemetery in 1660, the hill was taken a century later by the British who used the site to train their cannon on Charlestown and Bunker Hill across the harbor. Buried here are Cotton Mather, Prince Hall, and Edmund Hartt, builder of the U.S.S. "Constitution." Open daily, 8-4 p.m. (Free)

Bunker Hill Monument

A towering obelisk marks the site of the first major battle of the Revolution: the Battle of Bunker Hill, June 17, 1775. The monument is a tribute to those Colonists who, though badly outnumbered, fought bravely against the British and withdrew only after their ammunition was gone. Monument and museum open daily, 9 to dusk. Adults, $.75; children, $.50.

U.S.S. "Constitution" and Charlestown Navy Yard

Nicknamed "Old Ironsides" from the strength of her oak construction, this heavy frigate never lost a fight. The ship, launched in Boston in 1797, was most recently restored between 1973 and 1976. It is the oldest commissioned warship afloat in the world. She is open from 9:30 to 3:50 p.m., daily. U.S.S. "Constitution" Museum. Admission, $1.50; children, $.75, and the rest of the Navy Yard are open daily, 9:00-5:00 p.m.

MAYOR ANNOUNCES $1.4 MILLION GRANT FOR VETERANS' JOB DEVELOPMENT

Mayor Kevin H. White, on June 27, announced that Boston's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) has been awarded a $1.4-million Department of Labor grant to develop training programs, primarily for unemployed veterans.

The Help Through Industry Retraining and Employment (HIRE II) program is designed to develop on-the-job training opportunities in the private sector, placing as many veterans into jobs as possible. Under this program, veterans will be given an eight-day, exclusive referral to any job opening — disabled and Vietnam-era veterans have priority. After that period, persons with veterans preference enrolled in the program will be referred.

Mayor White said, "This grant provides about 400 jobs and training specifically targeted to unemployed veterans. That means better job opportunities for those who have seen military service to find useful employment in private sector jobs."

EEPA Administrator Charles M. Atkins said, "All $1.4 million must be earmarked for contracts with employers before October 1. We are asking private industry employers to take advantage of the city's subsidized on-the-job training programs, and, at the same time help to reduce the stragging rate of unemployment among Boston's veterans."

Interested employers and veterans are asked to call Jim Greene at 482-6513 for further information.

VOTERS ELECT THOMAS J. McGRIMLEY

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 32, section 20 (4) (b), an election was held June 15, 1978, for the office of the second member of the Boston Retirement Board.

Thomas J. McGrimley, Boston School Department, was elected for the term of three years beginning October 1, 1978, and ending September 30, 1981.

BOSTON POLICE REPORT

Boston Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan today reaffirmed the department's commitment to strictly enforce the city's ordinance which prohibits the drinking of alcoholic beverages in public.

In this effort, special teams of police officers have been fielded in each district throughout the city, and have concentrated their activities in areas where citizen complaints of public drinking and its associated gang activity (such as citizen harassment, neighborhood noise, vandalism, or the commission of crimes) have been most prevalent, namely on street corners and public parks.

Since the campaign was initiated on May 1, 1978, the following actions have been taken:

Arrests (drinking alcoholic beverages in public streets and parks), 1,207; field interrogation and/or observation reports, 1,338; groups dispersed, 3,660; motor vehicle citations, 553; calls answered, 2,378.

CRIME RATE DECREASED

Crime, as measured by the Uniform Crime Reports' Index, decreased 4 percent during the first quarter of 1978 when compared with the same period of 1977, Attorney General Griffin B. Bell announced on June 29.

This figure was included in Crime Index statistics released by William H. Webster, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"While the volume of crime has declined consistently in recent quarters, lawlessness remains a pervasive national concern," Mr. Bell said. "It is imperative that our determination to conquer the crime problem does not weaken."

As a group, the number of violent, indexed crimes reported to law enforcement agencies across the country fell 1 percent. Within that group, two offenses showed increases. Forcible rape was up 4 percent, and aggravated assault rose 1 percent. Decreases were reported for the remaining two violent crimes. Murder declined 2 percent and robbery 4 percent.

Collectively, the property crimes of the index showed a decline of 5 percent. Each offense within this category registered a decrease. Reports of larceny-thefts were down 7 percent, while burglary and motor vehicles theft notifications decreased 2 percent each.

Mr. Webster echoed Mr. Bell's comments concerning the three-month figures and added, "I am extremely pleased with this downward trend and hope that it continues. I know that all responsible citizens share my concern with the problem of crime in the United States."

Reported Crime Index offenses in cities with more than 50,000 inhabitants, like the national experience, decreased by 4 percent. The suburban areas recorded a 6-percent decline; the rural areas showed a 5-percent drop; and a 3-percent decrease occurred in cities outside metropolitan areas.

Geographically, the only increase in reported offenses occurred in the western states, where a 1-percent rise was recorded. The largest decline was reported in the north central states, 9 percent; the north-eastern states followed with a 7-percent drop; and the southern states experienced a 5-percent decrease.

A TIMELY REMINDER

Making arrangements for holding or forwarding mail prior to leaving home for vacations can save customers a lot of misery and inconvenience, Postmaster Sullivan, of Boston, reminds local residents.

"An overflowing mailbox can be an open invitation to burglars," he said. "Letting mail or newspapers pile up is advertising the fact that the house or apartment will be empty and unguarded."

Householders should ask a friend or neighbor to check their mailbox daily and to hold their mail until vacation's over.

If they prefer, they can ask the Post Office to hold their mail for up to thirty days, or forward it to their vacation address.

Problem Solved

A man was tormented by nightmares. Whenever he went to sleep, he dreamed that ugly animals came out from under his bed and rushed back under it again. "I told my brother about it and he stopped it," he told a friend later with satisfaction.

"Is your brother a psychiatrist?" the friend asked.

"No, he's a carpenter," the man replied. "He sawed the legs off my bed."

HAYDEN BUILDING

691-693 Washington Street, Boston

The designation category of Landmark was given on November 30, 1977, to the Hayden Building, which is owned by Joseph P. Balliro, Revere, Mass.

The Hayden Building, built in 1875, is significant as the last, extant, commercial building in Boston designed by H. H. Richardson.

A narrow, flat-roofed, five-story structure, the Hayden Building is constructed of load-bearing masonry, faced with rough-hewn Longmeadow brownstone set in random courses. Above the remodeled ground level, the original design prevails, with the strong, controlled massing and Romanesque rounded arches, a contrast to the High Victorian Gothic style prevalent at the time of its construction.

The design was only recently discovered to be by Richardson, one of America's most famous architects and namesake of the Richardson Romanesque architectural style. Among his most noteworthy local structures are Trinity Church and Brattle Street Church in Boston and Sever and Austin Halls on the Harvard campus in Cambridge. Because of restricted lot size, Richardson could not use his customary massing; the resulting commercial design of the Hayden Building prefigures his Marshall Field store in Chicago. The building thus assumes significance as an early, skyscraper-design prototype.

INNOVATIVE JOBS PROGRAM FOR WOMEN

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that the city's employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) recently completed an innovative training program designed to expand employment opportunities for economically disadvantaged Boston women.

Through a unique partnership between the city and two, private companies — Women's Enterprises and ECON, a Boston-based energy firm — thirteen women received education, training, and practical work experience in the growing field of energy conservation. Specifically, the thirteen women and their twelve male counterparts, were trained as energy planners.

EEPA Administrator Charles M. Atkins explained that the women in the program had been chosen from Boston's neighborhood Employment Centers. Said Mr. Atkins, "Self-motivation and initiative were the criteria used for placing these women in the particular program. This program is challenging. The people selected for the program demonstrated aptitude to meet that challenge."

Mayor White said, "Private sector job opportunities for women have been expanding. No longer do the traditional attitudes prevail toward women and their work. That change in the attitudes of private sector employers also holds true for public service employment for women. This program represents a significant accomplishment in expanding employment opportunities for women in Boston's public service employment programs."

Ninety percent of the women enrolled in the program have been placed in energy conservation-related fields since the end of the training cycle. Prior to their enrollment in the city's program, they had held occupations ranging from maid to model, from switchboard operator to seamstress.

"SIGNIFICANT PROGRESS" IN CROSTOWN INDUSTRIAL PARK DEVELOPMENT

Mayor Kevin H. White, on June 28, announced that "significant progress" has been made in the development of the Crosstown Industrial Park in Boston's South End-Roxbury District.

Negotiations with Digital Equipment Corporation, the Industrial Park's prime tenant, have culminated in Digital's signing a lease to occupy their seven-acre parcel on the site. That lease-signing coincided with the completion of the complementary negotiations aimed at clearing the way for overall site development.

Mayor White singled out the city's Economic Development Industrial Corporation (EDIC) for praise in its resolution of the negotiations. He also lauded the Community Development Corporation of Boston (CDC), the Boston Redevelopment Authority, the Department of Public Works, and officials from Digital.

Mayor White said, "The sooner this project becomes a reality the sooner long-idle land can be returned to a productive place on the city's tax roles, and more importantly, the sooner more jobs can be generated for Boston's unemployed."

Mayor White added, "This Boston Plan project could well serve as a model for future, inner-city, industrial development which forges a partnership between government and private sector initiatives."

EDIC Executive Director Michael Westgate said, "The long negotiations have been successful — Digital is the anchor for this project. The progress this indicates is good news not only for the neighborhoods bordering the site, but for the economic vitality of Boston. We expect ground to be broken for the Digital site late this year."

REGISTRY OMBUDSMAN TO SERVE PUBLIC

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Alan Mackey announced recently that Chief Deputy Registrar E. Theodore Gunaris will immediately assume the newly established title and duties of Registry Ombudsman.

"There have been many times in the past when an Ombudsman, or a trouble-shooter, was just what was needed," said Mr. Mackey and he recalled the dilemma of one man who was in charge of a fleet of trucks when the company he worked for changed names.

"His questions were difficult — covering everything from registration plates to sales and excise taxes — so several people had to be contacted and we helped him out. This is the type of function the Ombudsman will perform," Registrar Mackey said.

By making Chief Deputy Gunaris the Ombudsman he is choosing the person with the experience and knowledge needed to solve the tougher problems that arise.

"We want to provide the public with the best service possible," the Registrar stated and he said that the Ombudsman will also provide the Registry staff with more of the information that is used to best determine what the needs of the public are.

The Ombudsman will work closely with the Registry Informational Services Section — people who are assigned to answer telephone queries from the public — and he and his staff will enhance the efficiency of that section. To contact the Ombudsman call the Registry Informational Services Section at 727-3911.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT

Veterinary Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the "City Record," and to award a contract for professional services to the Animal Rescue League of Boston, a charitable Massachusetts corporation, at a cost not to exceed $34,197, during the period from July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978.

The compensation to be provided under the proposed contract represents an increase of $26,197 over the amount paid in previous years. This increase was made necessary to reduce the substantial disparity which had developed between the rising cost of services performed by the Animal Rescue League of Boston and the fees which the city offered in compensation.

The fee-for-services structure established under the proposed contract is reasonable. Under the proposed contract the Animal Rescue League of Boston will perform various duties related to the control of rabies in the City of Boston. These professional services will include, but not limited to, the quarantine of possibly rabid animals; the performance of follow-up inspections and veterinary examinations; the analysis of brain tissue to determine the presence of rabies; and the compliance with all state health laws pertaining to rabies control.

In view of the professional and unique services to be rendered in which the Animal Rescue League has had wide experience and which it has satisfactorily provided to the city for many years, it is my opinion that inviting proposals by advertisement would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

Ambulance Services

Dear Sir:

An Invitation for bids for providing ambulance transfer services to Boston City Hospital, Long Island Hospital, and Mattapan Hospital, for the period July 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, was advertised in the "City Record" on June 13, 1977, and bids were publicly opened and read aloud on June 29, 1977. The bid proposals, however, were not responsive in the manner anticipated by the department and it was determined to reject all bids. A second invitation for bids, for the above-mentioned services with revised specifications, for the period November 15, 1977, through June 30, 1978, was advertised in the "City Record," on October 17 and 24, 1977, and the contract was awarded to Para Medical Supplies, Inc., and approved by the Mayor on December 7, 1977.

Due to the resulting delay and because of the need to continue these services without interruption, the department revived last year's, multi-vendor system under which several companies would share these functions on a rotating basis.

Because of the reasons stated above, because the Department of Health and Hospitals was faced with an emergency situation, and because these services have been faithfully performed, I, David L. Rosenbloom, pursuant to authority delegated to me by the Board, respectfully request your Honor's permission to retroactively award, without advertising, a contract to Brewster Ambulance Service, 20 Brookley Road, Jamaica Plain, Mass. 02130; Fallon Ambulance Service, 95 Eliot Street, Milton, Mass. 02187; Garber Ambulance Service, P. O. Box 480, Lexington, Mass. 02173; Medicab of Mass. Bay, 37 Whitcomb Street, Waltham, Mass. 02154; Reardon Ambulance Service, 53 Mallet Street, Dorchester, Mass. 02124; Stavis Ambulance Service, 322 Washington Street, Brookline, Mass. 02146, for the period July 1, 1977, through November 15, 1977. The applicable rate shall be the welfare rate in effect on November 15, 1977, or $41 per trip within the city limits and $1.50 per mile outside the city limits and shall be an amount not to exceed $17,500.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

Estrogen Receptor Assay

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Herbert H. Wotiz, M.D., Boston University School of Medicine, Room L-518, 80 East Concord Street, Boston, Mass. 02118, for the period July 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $2,000.

Under this contract Herbert H. Wotiz, M.D., will perform Estrogen Receptor Assay (Binding) at a cost of $75 each.

Justification for Estrogen Receptor Assay is based on the following benefits which under it accrues to patients:

Tissues which respond to estrogenic hormones are known to contain a specific receptor protein which is necessary as an initial step in carrying out the function of the hormone. In the absence of such a receptor, estrogen can no longer cause the growth of the tissue involved. In the past three years, it has been demonstrated that breast cancers can be divided into hormone dependent and hormone independent tumors purely on the basis of the presence or relative absence of these estrogen receptors. Since patients whose tumors are hormone dependent may respond favorably to a series of hormonal manipulations (ovariectomy, adrenalectomy, hypophysectomy, hormone treatment, etc.) and those with hormone independent tumors do not respond to such manipulation, it is of considerable importance to the patient to obtain early knowledge of the character of the tumor. Until now, patients are selected more or less randomly for treatment and when no response is obtained, after a few weeks or months, therapy is changed. Such an approach frequently is deleterious to the patient. Even worse, removal of ovaries or adrenal glands without knowledge of the tumor's character may expose the patient (and her insurance company) to unnecessary surgical risk and expense. The estrogen receptor assay thus allows early and rational selection of patients for appropriate therapy and most importantly can prevent non-productive, ablative procedures. A very high correlation between assay results and therapeutic results exists.

This specialized test is not offered at Leary Laboratory, Clin Chem, or Boston Medical Laboratory.

Therefore, inasmuch as this contract is of a highly specialized nature and as Herbert H. Wotiz, M.D., is eminently qualified to perform these tests at a reasonable cost to the city, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

Electro-Mechanical Maintenance

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Abbott Laboratories, Diagnostics Division, 820 Mission Street, South Pasadena, California 91030, with local offices at 1129 Bloomfield Avenue, W. Caldwell, New Jersey 07006, for the period July 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $6,450.

Under this contract Abbott Laboratories will provide preventive maintenance and repairs for three, Abbott Model ABA-100 units in the Emergency Laboratories of the Clinical Biochemical Division of the Boston City Hospital. The service, during the term of this agreement, shall include:

a. Two scheduled, electro-mechanical, preventive maintenance calls (at BCH) at approximately six-month intervals; b. emergency electro-mechanical service calls during and after normal business hours (twenty-four hours per day, Saturday and Sunday); c. chemical/operational service calls performed by Abbott technical service representatives.

Abbott Laboratories, patent holder or manufacturer, is the laboratory best equipped to service the above-described units and to provide trained personnel, competent to service this complex equipment. Furthermore, Abbott Laboratories offers read accessibility to parts required for repair purposes.

Therefore, inasmuch as this contract is of a very specialized nature and as Abbott Laboratories is uniquely suited to furnish the required services at a reasonable cost, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLOOM,
Commissioner.

Dear Commissioner Paul:

I would like to commend District Chief Paul McNiff and the fire fighters under his command for the way that they responded to two fires set by arson at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church on the mornings of February 27th and March 4th, 1978. The fire damage was kept to a minimum due to the prompt and efficient work of Chief McNiff and his men. Chief McNiff also took special pains to help in the subsequent investigations of the arson.

Faithfully,

Signed/(The Rev.) Wm. Dwyer, Vicar."

—"May 19, 1978.

Commissioner Paul:

Residents I talked to today, following the fire early this morning at 362 Commonwealth Avenue, had nothing but the highest praise for fire fighters who helped lead them out of the building.

The outstanding effort of Boston fire fighters, in my opinion, averted what might have been a real tragedy considering the type of fire and the number of people in the building. You and your men should be commended.

It was a job well done.

Sincerely,

Signed/Tom Horgan,

VI. LETTERS OF THANKS

"May 22, 1978.

Dear Commissioner Paul:

I want to commend the action of District Chief Sylvester, of Division I, District 4, who efficiently contained a mattress fire which occurred in our hotel today.

The situation was handled extremely well throughout and avoided panic while there were over 1,000 people in the hotel registered as guests or attending meetings and conferences. This happened during the height of the luncheon period and so much could have resulted from it, but we want to commend the department for its fast action in eliminating this unfortunate situation.

Again my warmest congratulations to the department and for the respect that they showed to our hotel in performing their duties.

Sincerely,

Signed/Roger A. Saunders.

President, Park Plaza,

Hotel, Towers & Motor Inn."

"May 11, 1978.

Dear Commissioner Paul:

I want to take this opportunity to express my personal thanks and appreciation to the fine men of the Boston Fire Department who responded to the recent fire at Linda Mae's Restaurant on Morrissey Boulevard, Dorchester.

I was not present when the fire broke out, but I am informed by my staff that it was only the swift response to the alarm and the coordinated effort which prevented what could have been much more extensive damage than occurred.

I want, by way of this letter, to specifically thank Deputy Chief John Kilroy; District Chief Thomas Hoban; the fire fighters of Engine Companies 17, 18, 20, and 21; Ladder Companies, Aerial Tower 2, Companies 7, 20, and 23; Rescue Companies 1 and 2, all of whom I personally witnessed when I arrived at the scene.

In times like these, when we seldom hear good reports of deeds, I believe it is important for us all to recognize the valiant efforts of the fire fighters who performed so well in saving property and possibly lives at Linda Mae's.

I just thought that you would like to know.

Graftefully,

Signed/Robert A. Beineke,

President."

General Order No. 35

I. COMPLETION OF W-4 AND KEYPUNCH FORMS

Included with this week's paychecks are two forms for every employee who receives a paycheck in this department: an I.R.S. W-4 form and a form specially designed for keypunching, with basically the same information. Each employee must complete both forms. This should be done at the time they receive their checks to insure that all employees complete the forms promptly. These forms should be returned to the Payroll Office upon completion.

Treasury Division personnel will check to insure that each employee has completed both forms, using preliminary payrolls as checklists. You should keep a copy of each form for each employee who is on vacation or out sick and instruct him to complete these forms when he returns to work. These employees' forms should also be returned to the Treasury Division as soon as they are completed. CETA employees must complete these forms also.

You should be aware that it is very important that these forms be completed quickly and accurately.

III. LETTER OF THANKS

"May 27, 1978.

Dear Commissioner:

On May 24 at about 1906 hours, I perforated the gas tank of my car in front of the Harbor Towers, where I reside. As fate would have it, the tank was full. The situation was, of course, fraught with the danger of ignition and the loss of several cars parked next to me.

We called you for help and two trucks were on location within go-go seconds. My wife and I wish to express our heartfelt appreciation for your prompt response, your sense of duty, and the courtesy of your men.

Signed/Carol-Gerry Blanc."

PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 70

NO. 29

MAYOR'S BUDGET MESSAGE: FISCAL '78-'79

Kevin H. White, Mayor of Boston, to the City Council and Citizens of Boston, May 2, 1978.

I submit today the operating budget for Fiscal Year 1978-1979, consisting of appropriations for city and county departments.

The city also pays other bills not included in its operating budget, representing expenditures over which it has no direct control: the schools, state assessments, debt service, and the pension bill. Yet other city activities are funded by sources other than the tax levy. For example, the Neighborhood Improvement Program recently approved by the Council is funded by the federal Community Development Block Grant and by a part of the city's capital budget.

This message will discuss the operating budget as it relates to the total fiscal and program plan for the city.

The central objectives of that plan are stability in taxes, job development, crime prevention, help for Boston's elderly, more effective service delivery to residential neighborhoods, and management improvement.

The city and county operating budgets provide for appropriations of $342.9 million for fiscal 1979. The increase over the $306.4 million budgeted for fiscal 1978 reflects primarily the impact of inflation on wages and other costs, rather than new or expanded programs.

Program Priorities

Our basic objective in planning this budget was to hold the line on taxes without drastic cutbacks in essential services. If the city receives an equitable share of new state aid, that objective will be reached, with very little money left over for new initiatives.

However, within the constraints that bind us, it will be possible to direct more resources toward several key policy objectives. Wherever possible, we plan to finance these efforts through sources other than the tax levy.

Jobs Development: The Boston Plan

Boston needs jobs. In particular, the city needs an expanded economic base and new opportunities for residents of neighborhoods where the lack of jobs has been a persistent problem.

That requires massive private investment, catalyzed by a level of public funding which only the federal government can provide.

The Boston Plan is two strategies: an economic strategy for using federal money to revitalize neighborhoods and create jobs, and a political strategy for getting federal money by demonstrating in advance that it will be well-spent.

As an economic strategy, the Boston Plan is a group of projects and programs directed at economic development and jobs creation. In total, the Boston Plan which I announced last year called for $122 million in federal money, generating four times that in private investment. It would result in the development of 14,000 jobs, a majority of them to be set aside for Boston residents.

Elements of the Boston Plan already funded, including Lafayette Place, the Charlestown Navy Yard, and the Crosstown Industrial Park, will receive a total of $50 million in federal funds, and approval of another $20 million is near.

The most ambitious element of the Boston Plan, the rehabilitation of the Blue Hill Avenue Corridor, has not yet been approved, partly because its results will be so long in appearing. We remain convinced that only a long-term plan has any hope of accomplishing such a massive task. We are confident that the Carter administration will recognize this fact, and the necessity for action in economically depressed areas as part of any serious urban program. This recognition would lead to approval of our initial $7 million request for help with this job.

Boston was one of only seven cities to win the national competition for discretionary youth employment funding. Project YES was approved in part because it was not an isolated program, but one element of a coherent jobs program for the city: a prime example of the advantages of a comprehensive plan in securing federal grants.

Project YES will give every high school student within its area an opportunity for summer and after-school employment while he or she completes high school. This will encourage many students who would otherwise have dropped out to finish school instead. They will then have some practical experience, as well as educational credentials, as a start in the job market.

Security and Crime Prevention

Over the past several years, we have made substantial progress in modernizing and improving the Police Department. The department's emergency response system, using the computer-aided dispatch of patrol cars, has cut the average response time to citizen calls from fifteen minutes in 1973, to eight minutes over the past year. We have gone through a thorough, and at times painful, process of cutting the department's budget and strengthening its command structure. We have brought in civilians to handle desk assignments and returned 459 highly trained officers to street duty. We have developed new approaches to patrol strategy, notably the team patrols which have markedly improved the level of police protection for residents of high-density areas such as housing projects.

We are now beginning to see the results of these hard-won reforms, made over a decade. On the cost-control side, the department's budget has grown only 17 percent since 1972, compared to inflation of 54 percent. On the service-delivery side, we are beginning to see, not only reductions in the 911 response time, but also reductions in the crime rate. The index of serious crimes has fallen 17 percent in the last two years.

Thanks to the management changes within the Police Department, we are now in a much stronger position to improve services by devoting new resources to policing. A relatively small increase in total funding, devoted entirely to additional patrols, will substantially increase available patrol time. By concentrating the incremental patrol resources on times and places of maximum need, we will achieve a significant service improvement at a modest dollar cost.
